HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

MONDAY, June 23, 1913.

The House met at 8:00 o'clock P. M.

The SPEAKER (George E. Alter) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, (Rev. J. E. Wright) offered the following prayer:

O God, by Thy kindly providence we are again in our places that we may resume our work; that we may add to the volume and fullness of it and so make it more truly an expression of the people's will and of the purposes of Heaven. We would not be content with a mutilated offering. We would not be willing to hand over to Thee immature or unfinished work. Therefore, notwithstanding the length of the legislative session and the heat of these days of the summer, we are here in our wonted places that we may take up and carry forward this work to a successful completion. May nothing interfere with the satisfactory progress of it and the successful finish of it; and may we have no occasion, when the session shall have ended, to feel compunctious or regretful or in any sense ashamed of the record which we have made. Wilt Thou give to us the grace of fidelity and of resolute purposes that the thing we have undertaken to do may be fully and rightly and honorably done; and Thy name shall have the praise of it through Jesus Christ, our Lord, Amen.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of Friday's, June 20th, 1913, proceedings.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of Friday's June 20th, 1913, proceedings, when on motion of Mr. Donnally, the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal approved.

Which was referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

Mr. KUHN asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. Leslie.

RESOLUTION.

Mr. HOBBS offered the following resolution, which was read and laid over under the rules:

Whereas, It has been the custom and practice during the latter days of previous sessions of the House of Representatives for members to indulge in throwing papers, book covers, rubber mats, and other things at each other and conducting themselves in a manner not as becoming and dignified as should be expected of an Honorable Body of Legislators representing so grand a Commonwealth as is Pennsylvania and

Whereas, Such practice if carried on to excess is liable to cause physical injury and may arouse temporary anger of members toward each other which would have the tendency to disturb the friendly relations and mar the harmony which have existed throughout this session, and

Whereas, The reputation of thi body for progress, justice, and dignity, has been on a higher plane than have been some of the previous sessions of this State Legislature. Therefore, be it resolved, that we join with our Honorable Speaker in conducting ourselves during the few last days and final hours of this long and memorial biennial session, in a manner that will reflect credit and dignity upon us and thereby establish and complete a reputation of which we may justly feel proud. Be it further resolved, that we adopt this resolution not only for our own good name, but in behalf of the people throughout the Commonwealth, as an example of discipline and decorum worthy of consideration and imitation by all properly organized bodies of men and especially for the benefit of future sessions of this State Legislature which will be held in this legislative hall.

RESOLUTION EXTENDING SYMPATHY TO KENNETH L. M. PRAY.

Mr. HUMES offered a resolution which was read as follows:

Whereas, the grim hand of death has, in a tragic and untimely manner, stricken down the companion and helpmate of Kenneth L. M. Pray, Staff Correspondent of the Philadelphia Record.

Now Therefore, Be it resolved that the heartfelt sympathy of this House is hereby extended to Mr. Pray in his bereavement.

And be it further resolved that this resolution be entered upon the Legislative Journal and a copy be sent Mr. Pray.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection the Chair will lay the resolution before the House at this time. Is there any objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the adoption of the resolution? It was unanimously adopted.

RESOLUTION CONGRATULATING HON. GEORGE E. ALTER.

Mr. WILTBANK offered a resolution which was read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 23, 1913.

Whereas, This House has just received, unofficially, the pleasant news that our honored Speaker, Honorable George E. Alter, is recently the father of a splendid baby girl; therefore be it Resolved, That we singly and as a body extend to the Honorable George E. Alter and to his good wife our heartiest congratulations on this important event, together with our best wishes for a long and happy future life for the young one that has just come to grace his home.

The SPEAKER. This resolution will lie over under the rules.

Mr. WILTBANK. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent for the immediate consideration of the resolution.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent for the immediate consideration of the resolution? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the adoption of the resolution?

By a rising vote the House unanimously adopted the resolution.

The SPEAKER. The Chair might state to the House that this has been one of the most pleasant incidents of the session, and it may not be out of place to state here that the cigars are at the Speaker's office.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO PARTY PLEDGES.

Mr. BERGEY offered a resolution which was read as follows:

Whereas, delegates in control of the machinery of the Republican and Democrat parties at their last State convention pledged the parties to the enactment of specific legislation and

Whereas, a majority of the members of this Assembly were pledged to support their party platforms and

Whereas, a majority of the members of this Assembly fulfilled their party pledges by voting for legislation pledged by their party platforms and

Whereas, bills covering pre-election pledges passed by a majority vote of the members of this Assembly and was sent to the upper branch of this Assembly and

Whereas, all such bills have either been killed in committee or mutilated in committee by the friends of the Administration and of the Senior United States Senator and

Whereas, it is the consensus of opinion of many members of this Assembly that the people should know the truth about the career of legislation pledged by party platforms, it is therefore,

Resolved, That the responsibility for the failure of enactment of legislation pledged to the people rests upon the friends of the Administration and of the Senior United States Senator of this State.

The SPEAKER. The resolution will lie over under the rules.

Mr. BERGEY. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent for the immediate consideration of this resolution.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent for the immediate consideration of the resolution. Is there any objection? The Chair hears objections.

Mr. BERGEY. Mr. Speaker, I move that the rule of the House be suspended to permit the immediate consideration of this resolution.

Mr. KUHN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was not agreed to.

Mr. W. H. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that Senate Bill No. 1795, entitled:

on page four of to-day's Calendar be recommitted to the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation.

Mr. GANS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1434.

Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, June 19, 1913.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:—I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1434, entitled:

"An Act to validate certain sales public and private and certain mortgages of real estate of decedents heretofore made under authority of orphans' courts upon petition of executors or administrators for payment of debts or for any other lawful purpose."

This proposed bill is a general validating act, for the purpose of validating all sales, public and private, and all mortgages of real estate of decedents heretofore made under and by virtue of decrees of orphans' courts for payment of the debts of decedents, or for any other purpose.

The appearance in the proviso of the word "judiciously" instead of the word "judicially," makes the proviso absurd. There is no exception from the operation of the act of proceedings now pending but not determined.

In my judgment the bill is too general and vague in its terms, and I therefore withhold my approval from the same.

(Signed.) JOHN K. TENER.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, this message calls attention to a clerical error which some how or other has occurred with other bills. We have had occasion and they have been numerous when bills were reported back for amendment to this House at the request of the Governor, where errors like that have occurred. I presume that the bill which was handed to me by the Bar Association of Allegheny County is not sufficient merit to go any further. I therefore, move that further consideration of this veto be postponed.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears no objection.
The motion was agreed to.
Also the following:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1793.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, June 19, 1913.
To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Gentlemen:—I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1793, entitled:
"An Act to amend section one of article one of an act approved the seventh day of March one thousand nine hundred and one entitled 'An Act for the government of cities of the second class.'"
In my opinion this bill would establish a bad precedent. The best public policy forbids executive officers, both State and municipal, from succeeding themselves. I know of no good reason why an exception to this rule should be made for second class cities.

For this reason the bill is not approved.

(Signed,) JOHN K. TENER.

Mr. GEARY. Mr. Speaker, I move that his matter be laid on the table.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection the communication will be laid on the table.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. LOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendment at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

Amend section 3 by striking out the same and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Section 3. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with or supplied hereby are repealed, but this act shall not be taken to repeal any special or local law."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to insert the amendment as read? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none and the amendment will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

The bill as amended was then agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up on page 22 of today's calendar, Senate Bill No. 1395, bills on third reading postponed for the present.

Agreeably to order,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 2072 (Senate No. 1395), entitled:

An Act to amend section twenty-one of an act approved the first day of June one thousand eight hundred eighty-nine entitled "A further supplement to an act entitled 'An Act to provide revenue by taxation' approved the seventh day of June Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine" as amended

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass?

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from York.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from York (Mr. Spangler) permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire what the purpose of this bill is, what it does.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, I do not act as the sponsor of this bill. I was asked to call up the bill at this time, but as I understand, this bill is the same bill that has passed the House once before and was vetoed by the Governor by mistake. The purpose of the bill is to place laundries in the category of manufacturing plants, for the purpose of taxation.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, the bill has once been acted upon by this House and vetoed by the Governor and I would like to raise the point of order that this bill has been acted upon by the House once, or a bill having the same purpose; it has been vetoed by the Governor, returned to this House and action on it postponed, or it has been laid on the table, and that the only method of procedure is to act upon the veto of the Governor.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, this is not a redrafted bill, it is an entirely new bill, but a bill covering practically the same provisions that the other bill carried. It was redrafted at the suggestion of the Governor.

The SPEAKER. The Chair has some familiarity with the bill, it being one of those recommended by the taxation commission, and the bill now before the House is not the same bill as it passed, but it aims at the same thing in a different way. Therefore the point of order is not sustained.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed the same without amendment.

Mr. WILDMAN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up Senate Bill No. 268, on page 20 of today's calendar.

The SPEAKER. If it should come to pass, and the Chair has no information on the subject, that this Legislature should adjourn on next Thursday, it appears to the Chair that the House would be better engaged in passing the House Bills instead of the Senate bills.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 782, as follows:

An Act making an appropriation to carry out the laws of this Commonwealth relative to the supervision construction maintenance and repair of township roads in second class townships

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That for the purpose of carrying out the laws of this Commonwealth relative to the supervision construction maintenance and repair of township roads in second class townships for the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and thirteen the sum of two million five hundred thousand dollars ($2,500,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the sponsor tell us what this bill is.

Mr. E. E. JONES. Mr. Speaker, this bill merely makes the appropriation of $2,500,000.00 to carry out the provisions of a law regarding the township roads, the bonus due to townships. It applies to the old act of 1911, and this bill is to carry out the law already on the statute books, the State's contract with the fifteen hundred townships of the State. It is just as much of an obligation on the part of the State to make this appropriation and carry out its contract as it is to make an appropriation in the general deficiency bill to pay the judges.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 1243, as follows

An Act to provide a just and equitable method of distributing the money appropriated for the relief of the poor requiring medical and surgical treatment in hospitals and sanatoria in this Commonwealth not under the absolute control of the State and unable to pay for the same.

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That on and after June first Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and fifteen the money appropriated by this Commonwealth for the relief of poor requiring medical and surgical treatment in hospitals and sanatoria in this Commonwealth not under the absolute control of the State shall be distributed in the manner and on the basis following

Section 2 On or after the first Monday of each quarter beginning with the first Monday of September there shall be paid to each such institution approved by the Board of Public Charities and Department of Health receiving and caring for destitute patients requiring medical and surgical treatment for every resident of the Commonwealth maintained and treated free of charge a sum not exceeding two dollars and twenty-five cents ($2.25) per day for each such patient during the time necessarily remaining therein for treatment Provided That the total disbursements for any period shall not exceed one-eighth (1-8th) of the whole appropriation multiplied by the number of quarters that have elapsed and provided further that the whole amount paid to any one institution in any year shall not exceed the amount properly chargeable for such service less all voluntary contributions for the maintenance and operation thereof all payments for or on account of any such patient and revenues received from investments and donations of any kind not specifically appropriated by the donor for some other purpose

Section 3 Immediately after the first Monday of each quarter any institution claiming payment for such services shall submit its bill for the preceding quarter The bill shall give the name age and residence of each free and part pay patient the dates of admission and discharge for what treatment received and the name of the physician or surgeon who had charge of the case Unless the patient was committed by the poor authorities the superintendent of the institution shall make a report that after due investigation and inquiry the said superintendent is satisfied that neither the patient nor those legally responsible were able to pay for the services rendered and that the patient was properly entitled to receive public relief The bill shall also give the total number of patients both free part any and pay maintained and treated and the total expense for maintenance and operation during the quarter and the total estimated revenues for the year and the sources from which derived The bill shall be sworn to by the superintendent and approved by the president secretary or treasurer of the institution or any two of them and shall be audited and approved by the Board of Public Charities before being presented to the Auditor General for payment

Section 4 The amount distributed in any one year shall not exceed one-half of the total appropriation No institution shall in any year receive more than the amount properly chargeable to the expense of the maintenance of fee and part pay patients to be ascertained by apportioning the total cost of maintenance and operation pro rata between the free and pay patients and by deducting from the share apportioned to the cost of free and part pay patients all donations and contributions for maintenance and operation and all revenues from endowments and investments of any kind nor shall it receive more than two dollars and twenty-five cents ($2.25) for each free patient for each day of hospital treatment

Section 5 The Board of Public Charities and the Auditor General shall have the right to audit all bills submitted to call for further proof if desired to interrogate witnesses under oath and to compel a production of the books of the institution at any time

Section 6 The Board of Public Charities shall have the right to investigate the management of any institution receiving any money from the Commonwealth under this act or any supplement thereto or amendment thereof To prescribe the manner of keeping accounts to decide what deductions should be made from cost of maintenance in order to ascertain how much the institution has the right to receive to correct extravagances of any kind and require such reduction in the number and salaries of employees and other expenditures as it may think proper as a condition of receiving any payment under this act

Section 7 No institution receiving money from the State from any other appropriation shall receive money under this act

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass?

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call the attention of the House to the fact that this is a bill that was the subject matter of some discussion a week or ten days ago, when House Bill No. 101 was reached on the calendar, on second reading. This is a bill which has for its purpose the placing of hospitals and sanitoriums of the Commonwealth upon a basis where they need have no lobby; where they have not to subject themselves to any political influence in order to secure the support and co-operation of the State to which they are entitled. By the terms of this bill, the hospital appropriation will be made in a lump sum. By its terms hospitals of the State would receive assistance from the State in the same manner that we now assist in the care of the indigent insane. This bill, as it has been amended by the Appropriation Committee, would not go into effect until the first day of June, 1915, so it would in no wise interfere with the appropriations that are made at this session of the Legislature; after this, however, with this bill, were this bill to become a law, the hospitals of the State render its assistance to hospitals by making a lump sum appropriation. The State Board of Charities, this last year, recommended appropriations to hospitals and sanitoriums to the aggregate of almost four millions dollars, about $3,900,000.00. Next session, were this bill to become a law, the Legislature would simply appropriate a lump sum of four million dollars or whatever is necessary to cover its purpose for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this act, and every hospital in the State would then under the procedure prescribed in this act, secure from the Commonwealth its cost to maintain the charity and free patients within its walls, during the preceding quarter or during the period of two years for which the appropriation was made. I believe that it would do more to accomplish good and to relieve the unfortunate condition that at present exists in certain institutions, if this bill is enacted into a law. I trust that this House will pass this bill with such an overwhelming vote that the people of the State will know that we realize that the present cumbersome system of making appropriations is equally unsatisfactory to the Legislature and to the hospitals.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, this bill should receive the support of the House. One of the great evils of this and all Legislatures in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is the matter of appropriations. It gives to the House a great power which it does not desire. It places upon the House and Senate a great burden which should not be placed upon the shoulders of the members of the Legislature. It gives to the Executive of this Commonwealth a power that he should not possess; at the same time it curbs him with the burden that he should not be fettered with. All of us in the House appreciate the want of knowledge that we have in voting out the vast number of thousands of dollars to various charitable institutions. We must depend upon the Appropriations Committee and the Appropriations Committee must depend upon the various interests that bring influence upon that committee to name various amounts in the various appropriations. If we follow it by enacting into law that which is suggested by this bill, we have removed from the Legislature a curb that prevents freedom of action by members of the Legislature. Many of us are compelled to go back home with our appropriations or else be discredited. We cannot convince our constituents that we have the freedom of our votes when we are burdened with an appropriation for a charity; and we cannot go back home and have our charities unsupported and we have to bow to the power that controls that appropriations. It has been the great appropriation evil that has changed this House from as independent an House as ever was elected to a House that must be subservient to the executive will. It is not a discredit to the House if every member would vote freely for the support of any good measure, if the support would bring to him the power that would not curb the rights of appropriations to the House bill or the charity in the member's section. Let us give this bill our support, though it might not become a law this session; though it might meet with the rocks in the Senate. Let us give at least to this bill the approval of the House. I have spoken to many of the members of the House on this question and I have not found any man who wants to hold the power of voting appropriations, as we do now under our present law. One of the greatest steps toward reform legislation is for those of us irrespective of our party to vote for this bill.

Mr. MOSES. Mr. Speaker, if I understand right, it provides for a per capita of $2.25. If you are going to pay a per capita of $2.25 to every hospital in the State, you are going to encourage extravagance. You are going to pay more than they ask for. I believe the average per capita now is $1.80. This bill calls for $2.25 that is a difference of forty-five cents. If there is to be any economy in that, I don't see it. I can't see it. If you want to encourage extravagance, vote for the bill. If you want to pay what they are entitled to, vote it down.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I want to reply to the inquiry just made by the gentleman from Cambria; as it was in the form of an inquiry. He entirely misunderstands and miscomprehends the provisions of the bill which fixes $2.25 for free beds as a maximum figure, and every hospital is only entitled to the actual cost of maintaining a free bed or of supporting a free patient but the maximum is fixed at $2.25. It would be almost sixteen dollars a week and there are many hospitals in the State that expend more than that sum on any free patient that may be confined in its institution. So the $2.25 is not an arbitrary figure but is the maximum figure and the hospital is only entitled to the amount which it actually costs to take care of a free patient.

Mr. MOSES. Mr. Speaker, I don't think that I am mistaken. That is the provision of a maximum figure of $2.25. Any hospital can make it $2.25 if they can take care of a patient for $1.75 or $1.80, that is all right. But this is not right if you are going to make a maximum of $2.25 because they can then spend $2.25.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, inasmuch as the remarks of the gentleman from Cambria are addressed to me, I want to call attention to this: Every hospital must submit its report to the Auditor General under affidavit and state its cost of maintenance. If the gentleman is going to assume that the Auditor General is not going to perform his duty, there may be some merit to his argument. The bill is drafted on the theory that the party that elects on Auditor General, will elect an Auditor General who is an intelligent and honest official and who is going to ascertain whether the reports made by these hospitals are correct and if they are correct, as we have a right to assume the charitable institutions will make them, then they can only recover the actual cost of maintenance. If the gentleman from Cambria pre-supposes that the Auditor General and the hospitals are going to be dishonest, then there might be some excuse for the argument.

Mr. MOSES. Mr. Speaker, the pride of every superintendent of every hospital in the State is to keep that per capita as low as possible. I still maintain that if you made the per capita $2.25 you will encourage extravagance. You will give away $2.25 and they will not try to keep it down. There are some of the superintendents in the State and many of them who pride themselves to keep down that expense. I understand they have to make an affidavit before the Auditor General before they can draw a cent; that they must fix the per capita of what it costs and what the amount may be. If the superintendent of the hospital wants to spend more money than it actually costs, he can spend up to $2.25; they can do that. I still claim that the idea is wrong and that I am right.

Shall the bill pass finally?

SPECIAL ORDER.

The SPEAKER. The hour of 9:30 having arrived, the Chair lays before the House as the special order for this hour House Bill No. 2132 (Senate No. 1438), on third reading.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 2132 (Senate No. 1438), entitled:

An Act regulating the appropriation and use of money realized by cities of the first class from the sale of bonds

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. W. H. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I will explain to the House as stated when this bill was on second reading, by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Roney, that this bill takes a paragraph out of another bill introduced in this House a section which restricted the use of money which was raised on the sale of bonds or personal property tax and provides that the money in cities of the first class shall only be used for the purpose of building subways and other permanent improvements. It is really a companion bill to the bill already passed. I ask that the House give its support.

Shall the bill pass finally?

SPECIAL ORDER.

The SPEAKER. The hour of 9:45 having arrived the Chair lays before the House the special order for this hour, Senate Bill No. 742 (House Bill No. 2202), page 1 of today's calendar.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 2202 (Senate No. 742), entitled:

An Act making it lawful for appropriations to be made and for contracts to be entered into and work and materials to be done and furnished under such contracts when funds for the purposes thereof shall have been or have been authorized to be borrowed by cities of the first class without awaiting the issue of such loans or the receipt of the money to be so borrowed

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Speaker, this bill simply provides that contracts for municipal work might be entered into before the money realized from the sale of bonds issued in pursuance of authorization by the people is actually in the City Treasury and will result in considerable saving of interest charges, etc., in municipalities, and I therefore ask the House to support the bill.

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

SPECIAL ORDER.

The SPEAKER. The hour of 10:00 o'clock having arrived, the Chair lays before the House the special order for this Hour, House Bill No. 2233.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 2233, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the several fire companies in the city of Harrisburg

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. SPEISER. Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the House, the bill before us is one of those bills which this House should pass without a dissenting vote. It is a just recognition for the noble services rendered to the Commonwealth in the saving and preservation of its property by some of the noble and heroic men who comprise the volunteer fire department of the City of Harrisburg. For a great many years, I am informed, that the various Legislatures recognized this obligation and have lived up to it by liberal appropriations. This present Assembly surely will not be derelict in its duty. Some apprehension was felt for this bill by some of those interested in it, because of its being voted out of the general appropriation bill. But these fears, I trust, are groundless and I fully believe that our colleagues who were responsible for this action did it with an idea of saving the bill on constitutional grounds, and now that the matter is before us in proper shape, I am confident that they will support it. One word more, Mr. Speaker, I believe I owe it to the volunteer fire organizations that will benefit by this appropriation and also to the people at large of this city, to say that my attention to this measure and to the worthiness of it was brought by the Hon. William S. Tunis, an ex-member of this House. He it was that was responsible for my interest and also the interest of a great number of my colleagues who surround me on this side of the House. My one regret, Mr. Speaker, is that I had not the pleasure of being a colleague of the gentleman at the last session. His energy and interest, his tact and his patience, will certainly in a large measure be responsible for the passage of this bill, and I want to congratulate the citizens of Harrisburg for having such a public spirited citizen in the person of the Hon. William S. Tunis as one of their number. I trust you will pass this bill unanimously.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

NAYS—1.

rmott.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. SHERWOOD offered the following motion, which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

Moved by Mr. Sherwood, seconded by Mr. Conner that the vote by which House Bill No. 1469, entitled:

An Act relating to roads providing for the supervision construction maintenance and repair of township roads relating to road tax making an appropriation and providing penalties for the violation thereof was defeated on final passage on June 18th, be reconsidered.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass?

Mr. E. E. JONES. Mr. Speaker, there being some objections raised to this bill for the reason that it provides for a third deputy in the highway department at a salary of six thousand dollars. I have agreed to have this clause stricken out in the Senate if the bill should pass here to-night. I can assure the House that this will either be stricken out in the Senate or the bill withdrawn from the Senate, so any one having any objections to the bill on that ground can safely vote for it because I give them my word that this particular clause will be stricken out.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, the author of the bill has explained one of the objections but there are many others. One of the principal objections as I recall it raised against the bill was to take control of the dirt roads out of the hands of the local authorities and put it in the control of the State Highway Department. I am sorry to say that to-day there is great feeling against the Highway Department. Whether that is just or not is not a matter for discussion here to-night. As I understand the bill, it is the bill that puts under the control or management of the State Highway Departments every mile and road of dirt road in this Commonwealth. This bill was defeated by a very decisive vote the other day, there being more votes against it than for it. The time may come when a proposition of this kind may be enacted into law, but I do not believe it is wise at this time. I know that my people back home are not in favor of it, and as I have had no change of heart, therefore, I will vote against it again.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, as was suggested by the gentleman from Tioga and the gentleman from Delaware the other day, this is a bill which extends the scope of the Highway Department far beyond the limits of its present scope, which is purely to control all the public highways of Pennsylvania, and in addition to that I call further attention to the fact, and I express myself plain in this matter that this bill is a purely political machine building bill, and I say that for this reason, that the Highway Department acquires, as it would under the provisions of this bill, the right to control the work done upon the dirt roads under the supervision of the supervisors of that department, and just so soon will the people in charge of this work see fit to give out this work where it will best serve the purpose of that department. There is not a man on the floor of this House, Mr. Speaker, but knows that dirt road building in a State as large as Pennsylvania needs a vast army of men. You may not have seen the workings of this department in your own home, but those in the more thickly populated districts have seen the workings of these departments. Mr. Speaker, when the Department of Public Highways has acquired the control of the public roads they at such time as they may see fit can control the voters in various communities, and when they need the voters you will see the work becoming very busy all along the line. Mr. Speaker, this bill has been attempted to be put through the House or forced through the House much in the same manner as the fifty million dollar bond issue, and every time that department has attempted to do that it has lost ground and favor in the eyes of the people of this Commonwealth, every time they have made a move of this kind reaching out to grab something that doesn't belong to them. Every time this is done more suspicion arises in the minds of the people. I say to you, Mr. Speaker, that this House will do a lasting favor to the people of this Commonwealth if they will ingloriously defeat this bill.

Mr. McDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, I was opposed to this bill when it was defeated and I am opposed to the bill on the same grounds to-night. I am of the belief that this is a bill merely to form a political organization, and they are attempting to put it through just as they have other bills. I for one will not stand here and allow them to push another one over me. Why should we allow this bill to go to the Senate? Why does not the gentleman have it amended in this House? What treatment have we got as a body from the Senate since we were sworn in in January. Every important bill that was passed that would relieve the people, every bill that was a Labor Bill, has suffered in the other house. There are the Utilities Bill, the Elections Bills, and the important Labor Bills. I say the bill ought to be defeated. A man does not have to be Irish to believe in Home Rule. Why not give us the right to manage our own roads. I have been connected with roads for eight years and I can build a road for one-third of the cost of that roads are being built to-day by the State. It is costing per mile about ten to eighteen thousand dollars to build the present Telford roads and they will have to be resurfaced in about five years. That is what you are getting for your money. This bill is only to affect a political organization, and ought not to pass.

Mr. HOBBS. Mr. Speaker, I don't think it makes any difference what the Senate has done on various bills. It has no relation to this bill. I believe this bill is intended for the very best purposes, giving the Public Highways Department control of the dirt roads. I have every confidence in the Highway Department of Pennsylvania, more than to believe their motive is to build up a political machine. The object is to complete the system of the Highway Department from the State Highways to the township roads whereby the same system will apply to every road to the State. It is patterned. I understand, after the system established and made successful in the State of New York. It is intended to build up a great system of public highways throughout this State, and I believe that if we pass this bill that we will have better highways, State and local, than we will have if we do not pass it. The provisions as I understand them give the Highway Department supervision of the local roads, not absolute control, because the townships elect their own supervisors, and they will construct the roads under the advice and supervision of the superintendents connected with the Highway Department.

I think we will take a step in the right direction for better roads in every part of the State, by passing this bill.

Mr. GRABE. Mr. Speaker, it seems to me that this amendment was thoroughly discussed the other day when it was defeated and I do not see why we should spend any more time on it. I hope that this House will not give their consent to vote to reconsider this measure. I made the statement here last week in reference to the working of these roads. As I stated the other day, the Highway Department has charge now of eight thousand miles of roads in this State. There are approximately seventy-five thousand miles of roads to be taken care of. They have not been able to get over half of those eight thousand miles of roads and make them in the proper season of the year. How are we going to expect them to take over seventy-five thousand miles? We admit as representatives from the rural districts that in getting this appropriation from the State, that the State should have some supervision over these roads, but we don't expect that the State should dictate to the townships what roads and what bridges should be built or where this money should be spent. It simply leaves it to the superintendents of the State Highway Department to say where this fifty per cent. is to be spent or what townships shall have the right to receive that aid. We are willing as Representatives from the rural districts to have these county superintendents elected by the supervisors or the people of the various counties, but we don't want an extra deputy superintendent come over here in the Highway Department. This Highway Department does not need anything more than possibly some clerical help in the way of taking charge of that work. I hope the members of this House will not give their consent to voting favorably on this bill.

Mr. E. E. JONES. Mr. Speaker, there seems to be a great deal of misunderstanding on this bill. I think that comparatively few members who have spoken on the bill have read it and I think there are a great many of them who don't understand it. In response to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Allen, I deny that this is a political scheme. The Highway Department have had nothing to do with the drafting of this bill. It was drafted as it is now two years ago, outside of the State of Pennsylvania, under the advice and direction and the help of the Deputy Highway Commissioner of New York State. I don't imagine that the Highway Department of this State is particularly anxious to have any more burdens placed upon it. In response to the gentleman from Clearfield, Mr. McDermott, who asks why the bill is not amended here to-night, I will say that the bill must pass to-night, if it pass at all. It cannot go through the House if the Legislature adjourns on Thursday. I will state and will expect the members to take my statement, that I will permit that amendment to go in it in the Senate. In response to the gentleman from Butler, Mr. Grabe, the idea is not that the Highway Department shall take over this seventy-five thousand miles of roads as in the Sproul Bill. That is a physical impossibility; it cannot be done and there is no such intention of the bill; nothing of that sort whatever. It simply provides that in the Highway Department there will be some people whose business it will be to look after the specifications and standards to be followed and in every way that they can assist local supervisors that they shall do so. They don't go out to work the road as under the Sproul Act. There is nothing of that kind at all. Those roads are distinctly State roads and are already provided for and have all the help they need at the expense of the State. Here we come from the country and have been asking for six years for sixty per cent. for the maintenance of dirt roads. We have been coming down here asking again and again for this money. I think we would meet with greater success if the State Government would give us some existence and help on these dirt roads if we have them come in and suggest any help they can to our supervisors and help us to build up the roads. We have fifteen hundred townships in the State of Pennsylvania and three supervisors in each district. These supervisors will have their own taxes to raise and their own money to secure and every one of these supervisors have a system of their own, if they have a system at all, and some have no system whatever and there is no standard for them to work on. They have no help from those who are qualified to speak as the Highway Department is qualified to speak and there is no systematic effort to have a standard for earth roads in Pennsylvania. In New York State, in four years where a standard was adopted and a system put in force, the roads have been improved more than one hundred per cent. and you would have them in Pennsylvania in five years' time, if this law is enacted this year.

Mr. E. G. M. KUHNS. Mr. Speaker, here is a bill that reminds me very much of years back when the first school law was introduced in Pennsylvania, when the men who were back of it were forced to hide to save their lives, and what were the results? We have had during this session many bills without merit. What do we want on the floor of this House? I cannot see any necessity for the excitement. I am not afraid that Mr. Bigelow or anybody in the Highway Department will do any harm. Nothing like it. When you turn back to the Public School System, how did that work out? Is it not a fact, that you have not heard of any school board being put to jail if they didn't carry out the provisions of that act. The axe will hit it in the back of the head. If we have any bill that we want passed if we do not pass this bill. If we pass this bill, we are sure that the people in the counties will get their money year after year and we ought to have it.

Mr. WATSON. Mr. Speaker, the Committee on Roads have labored, I think faithfully and earnestly, to bring before this House a good bill. If there should be any defects in it, it is not their fault. They have brought a bill before this House as good as could be expected under the circumstances. Now, what does it mean, if we fail to pass this bill. There is no head on the question of making roads in the State. And all this labor and all this appropriation will practically be without any central control. Now, we cannot afford to allow that much money to be used in any way and in every where as different supervisors may see fit. There must be some one to see to it and I think the head of the Highway Department has labored earnestly and honestly as any man in this State can do and I think the committee has done the very best it can in organizing in the direction of a system of this kind. Gentlemen of the House, I will admit that in this organization there are some mistakes but we believe in a recommendation that could come from the head of a department to put it on a standard system. One engineer might run a road in one county, another engineer might run one in another direction towards a different point and there must be a general system. I think it is a great mistake to vote against this bill simply because some people have formed a prejudice against the department.

Mr. McDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Lehigh. Mr. Kuhns.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lehigh permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. E. G. M. KUHNS. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. McDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know where he gets the authority for saying that if we don't pass this bill that the Governor will veto or hit in the head another bill.

Mr. E. G. N. KUHNS. Mr. Speaker, because it has been done continuously since 1905. Simply because we have not spent the money as the State wanted it spent.

Mr. McDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, if that is the case, then we are a useless body; we might as well serve under a czar.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Mr. CHEESEMAN. Mr. Speaker, I call for the verification of the roll.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to call up House Bill No. 1588, on page 8 of to-night's Calendar, bills on third reading. It is a bill for the purpose of providing for the nomination of Superior Court Judges. Under our present law of 1911 there is no provision made and unless this bill is passed on third reading in the House to-night it will be impossible for this bill to become a law and take care of conditions arising at this Fall's election.

The SPEAKER. The bill is in the same condition that all the other House bills are.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I think there is no bill that is in the condition of this bill. If this bill does not pass third reading to-night there will be no way provided for nominating at the Fall primaries candidates to fill the offices of Judges of the Superior Court in which there will be two vacancies.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman makes the request on account of the unusual importance of the bill. Does the House give unanimous consent? The Chair hears no objections and consent is granted.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1588, as follows:

An Act to provide for the nomination at fall primaries of candidates for the office of Judge of the Supreme and Superior Courts when such office is to be filled at a municipal election

The Secretary of the Commonwealth upon the filing of requests for withdrawal in the manner herein provided shall forthwith certify to the county commissioners of the proper county a correct list of the candidates filing such requests.

Section 9 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith be hereby repealed.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass?

Mr. John R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to explain this bill to the House. Under the constitutional amendment which was adopted three years ago, the Superior Court Judges could be nominated and elected in a municipal year, in an odd numbered year, when as all the members of the House know a Superior Court Judge is a State officer and he therefore must be nominated in a convention. In the municipal year there is no convention. So therefore this was an oversight that was not provided for by any law that we passed last session in 1911 for the registration of voters and the fixing of the primaries, fixed the municipal primaries in September. The result is that these two judges for the Superior Court, one a Democrat and one a Republican, time expires and two must be nominated and two must be elected, one from a majority and one from a minority party, and there is no machinery in our law that will provide for the nomination of these two judges and therefore this law permits, in the municipal primaries, the nomination of a State officer, which will only apply to this coming election. Possibly a condition of this kind will never arise again and this law is for the purpose of meeting a present deficiency in the law and I take it that it should have no opposition at all.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

BILL PLACED ON CALENDAR.

Mr. KITTS. Mr. Speaker, I offer the following motion:

The motion was read by the Clerk as follows:

Moved by Mr. Kitts, seconded by Mr. Mitchell, that Senate Bill No. 1440, file folio 3885, entitled:

An Act to amend an act approved the sixteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred thirteen entitled "An Act for the protection of the public health and the prevention of fraud and deception by regulating the storage and sale of cold storage foods fixing penalties for the violation of the provisions thereof and providing for the enforcement thereof" by making further regulations in regard to fish be placed upon the Calendar, notwithstanding the negative recommendation of the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. KITTS. Mr. Speaker, this motion is made for the reason that if the Public Health and Sanitation Committee met to-morrow, it might make it too late to pass the bill. I have the consent of the Chairman of the Committee, and it is the consensus of opinion in the Committee that this motion should be made at this time and save a legislative day.

The question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

More than sixty gentlemen, or more than the number required by the rules having voted in the affirmative, the motion was agreed to, and the bill placed on the Calendar.

Mr. KITTS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to have this bill read this evening on first reading?

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent? Is there any objection?

Mr. GANS. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objection.

Mr. STEIN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the rules be suspended to permit this bill to be read for the first time.

Mr. KITTS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk states to the Chair that there is no record of this bill having been reported from the Committee.

Mr. RICHARDS. Mr. Speaker, I think I can explain that. The action taken by the Committee on the bill was that the bill should be reported negatively. On a motion by another member it was agreed to hold the bill in Committee. The bill is now in the possession of the Chairman of the Committee and will be presented to the House on demand.

The SPEAKER. Under the existing circumstances, the gentleman's motion is wrong.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that the original motion of the gentleman from Erie is out of order. This bill cannot be placed upon the Calendar by a vote of sixty members if it has not been reported negatively. It is now in the Committee. The motion would have to be a different motion.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken. The action of the House upon the motion is a nullity because it was based upon a wrong impression as to the circumstances.

Mr. KITTS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation be discharged from further consideration of this bill.

Mr. BENNINGER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know how long this bill has been in Committee.

Mr. RICHARDS. Mr. Speaker, it was acted upon last Tuesday night a week ago.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that if the bill were reported on last Monday it has not been sufficiently long in the Committee to discharge the Committee from its consideration.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken.

Mr. KITTS. I am under the impression that the bill has been in the Committee for a longer time than that.

Mr. SPEISER. Mr. Speaker, I have before me the Senate history of this bill. It passed finally in the Senate on the third of June. If it proceeded in the regular order of business it would come to this body on the fourth, and immediately be referred to the Committee. Therefore, that it has been in the hands of the Committee for at least ten days and almost two weeks.

The SPEAKER. Does this record show the date of reference?

Mr. SPEISER. The date is blank.

Mr. RICHARDS. The gentleman from Philadelphia is quite right. I had forgotten the day it was referred to our Committee, but at the first meeting it was referred to a sub-committee and the sub-committee reported it to the Committee and it was acted on last Tuesday. It was in the hands of the sub-committee possibly a week.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will ascertain when the bill was referred to the Committee.

Mr. MITCHELL. Mr. Speaker, a week ago last Tuesday I attended a meeting of the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation, and the bill was sent to a sub-committee on that day.

The SPEAKER. Two weeks ago to-morrow?

Mr. MITCHELL. Yes, sir.

The SPEAKER. In that case it is evident that the bill has been in the Committee over ten days. The record showed that this bill was referred on the third of June and consequently the motion pending that the Committee be discharged and the bill placed upon the Calendar is in order.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

106 gentlemen or more than the number required by the rule having voted in the affirmative, the motion is agreed to and the bill placed upon the Calendar notwithstanding the negative recommendation of the Committee.

Mr. KITTS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the rules be suspended to permit this bill to be read for the first time this evening.

Mr. STEIN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. KITTS. Mr. Speaker, I only ask this on account of the possibility of an early adjournment. We thought perhaps that the bill might go down for lack of time.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to and the rules were suspended.

BILL ON FIRST READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the first reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2150 (Senate Bill No. 1440) entitled:

An Act to amend an act approved the sixteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred thirteen entitled "An Act for the protection of the public health and the prevention of fraud and deception by regulating the storage and sale of cold storage foods fixing penalties for the violation of the provisions thereof and providing for the enforcement thereof" by making further regulations in regard to fish

And said bill having been read at length the first time,
Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Mr. MORROW. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up from page twenty of to-day's Calendar Senate Bill No. 830:

Agreeably to order,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 2054 (Senate Bill No. 830), entitled:

An Act to amend an act approved the twenty-ninth day of April one thousand nine hundred and nine entitled "An Act to provide for the health and safety of minors in certain employments by regulating the ages at which said minors may be employed their hours of employment their protection against injury and to prescribe rules for the obtaining of employment certificates and providing penalties for violation of the provisions" as amended

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. MORROW. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk then read the amendment as follows:

Amend by inserting in line 31 after the word "wharves" the words "in quarries"

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendment? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none and the amendment will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

The bill as amended was then agreed to on third reading.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

The SPEAKER. Mr. George A. Baldwin desires to have considered at this time House Bill No. 1415 on page 6, of the Calendar, which was passed in order for the reason that the gentleman was in attendance at a meeting of the investigation committee, such permission having been given by the House.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1415 as follows:

An Act authorizing and empowering any city or borough in this State to impose an annual tax of one dollar per pole upon every person partnership or corporation now or hereafter maintaining any pole or poles upon any avenue street lane alley or highway in such city borough or township providing when such tax shall be due and payable providing a penalty for non-payment and providing for the collection of said tax and penalty

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That any city or borough in this State is hereby authorized and empowered to impose an annual tax of not to exceed one dollar per pole upon every person partnership or corporation now or hereafter maintaining any pole or poles upon any avenue street lane alley or highway in such city or borough

Section 2 That the said tax shall be due and payable on the first Monday of January in each year beginning with the first Monday of January one thousand nine hundred fourteen and shall be computed upon the number of poles maintained by such person partnership or corporation upon said avenues streets lanes alleys or highways on the last Monday of December in the preceding year

Section 3 If said tax or any part thereof is not paid within thirty days after the same is due and payable the city or borough shall add thereto a penalty of twenty-five per centum of the amount thereof and the said tax together with the penalty may be recovered by such city or borough from such person partnership or corporation as debts of like amount are now by law recoverable

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Lesh than the majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative, and the bill falls.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 22 entitled;

An Act to provide for the erection of a tablet marker or monument to commemorate the services and patriotism during the Civil War of the Allen Infantry of Allentown Pennsylvania officially known as Company G Twenty-fifth Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers and commonly styled "The First Defenders" providing for the appointment of a commission to carry into effect the provisions of this act and making an appropriation therefor

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, The King of France and twenty thousand of his men marched up the hill and then marched down again. This military figure I think is a propos to these monument bills. I suppose that the House referred them back to the Committee on Appropriation for the purpose of having them sorted out and some discrimination made upon them as to their relative merits. The appropriation Committee having seen fit to evade their duty and therefore it is incumbent upon the House to do as best they can and pass those which ought to pass and defeat those which ought to be defeated. This however is comparatively easy to do, because there is one among them which if passed will solve the whole problem and will properly provide for the patriotic action of the State in marking historic spots and at the same time save the State's money. You will find on top of page 24, Senate Bill No. 435, entitled as follows: "An Act providing for the establishment of the Pennsylvania Historical Commission, defining its powers and duties and making an appropriation for its work." If you will turn to the bill on your files, you will find that it provides for the establishment of a commission which shall do all this work. Section four reads as follows: "The Pennsylvania Historical Commission may upon its own initiative or upon the petition of municipalities or historical societies mark by proper monuments tablets, or markers or buildings within this Commonwealth where historical events have transpired and may arrange for the care and arrangements of said monument."

In other words, instead of asking the Legislature to pass bill after bill with all sorts and all kinds of appropriations and commissions it appoints one State central body which shall be a corporation and which shall have power of perpetual existence and shall be able to accept legacies and gifts and will always be ready upon proper petition to make the monument or to set the mark. This seems to me to be an adequate solution of the whole trouble. The bill provides for an appropriation of forty thousand dollars which is a reduction from the sixty thousand dollars originally named in the act and if we will pass that bill and defeat all the rest, we will do everything which a proper patriotism requires and will save the State considerable money and we will stop this foolish and indiscriminate passage of appropriating money for monument bills. I suggest, therefore, that we begin one by one to defeat these bills until we come to Senate Bill No. 435, which ought to pass

Mr. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. S. B. Scott.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman how did he vote on the Matt Pension bill?

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, If I remember right I voted "No."

Mr. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, there are two ways of dealing with this question as to the exceptions to be made to these appropriation bills. These two exceptions are covered in a speech delivered by Mr. Scott in this House about two weeks ago. I quote from his speech of that time. "It is characteristic of a decadent age to spend the energies of the people, etc." and towards the end of his speech he says "there were slaves in the old days but they have been emancipated but there are slaves in the present age—slaves of industry, slaves of sickness and slaves of disaster." I say, as to the first objection which may be raised:—I take issue with the gentleman from Philadelphia. I believe that markers and monuments are not in evidence of a decadent age or of a decadent people. I believe that they tend to teach us lessons; that they tend to more patriotism; tend to teach the coming generation what their ancestors have done and what may be expected of them and posterity. I ask you what would the Battlefield of Gettysburg be without its markers? What was Valley Forge before we took it over as a State park and planted upon its field some evidence of what was suffered and done there for this country. I agree, and I believe you all agree with me, that we are looking forward to the time when we hope that there will be no blood-shed; when universal peace may prevail. But we are not yet ready for that period; we are not yet doing things in that manner and until that time has come, even if it does come, I still believe that it is fitting and proper that the services of men in the past, for the country, should be remembered by markers and monuments and some evidences of the glories that have been realized in this State.

I say that a man may have conscientious scruples against the expenditures of money in any manner military. I believe that this is the position of the gentleman from Philadelphia and I believe that he has been perfectly consistent, because he has told you that he has voted against the Matt pension bill, which has gone by the boards. He has opposed these monument bills every time that they have come before the House. The second objection which can be raised against these bills is the grand total of appropriations that they carry with them. As I pointed out to you last week, don't be alarmed at the total which was presented to you by the gentleman from Philadelphia when he first read it to you. He had a total of $1,600,000. He included in that items such as the Emancipation Proclamation Celebration which the Speaker of this House told you was not germane to the monument bills at all. He had in that list other appropriations such as the Niagara Celebration, Gettysburg Memorial Commission and other things which were not germane to monument bills. And in addition to that, gentlemen, as was pointed out in the interrogation which Captain Wiltbank directed at the gentleman, the first time he read the amounts asked for in the bills, not the amounts actually recommended by the Committee. For instance, the removal of the flags from the Library to this building, in which the original bill calls for $10,000, as it finally passed this House was reduced to $6,000. The statute for Meade, in the bill as originally introduced asked for $17,500; as reported from the committee it asks for $15,000. The Valley Forge Appropriation bill asked originally for $202,000; as reported from committee, the committee recommended $75,000. And so, if you will go over the list, items that he includes in that grand total, I can assure you that you will find it is away down below, possibly one-half million dollars. You need not be alarmed by the recent recital of the total of $1,600,000. Indeed, he has been so zealous in the compilation of those figures that he cites this item: "Designating the Monday after the second Sunday of May in each year as a public legal holiday to be known as Mother's Day." I would like to know what appropriation that carries with it. In other words, I wish to impress upon your minds that a good deal of this objection which was raised against these appropriation bills and has been raised persistently carries no weight with it at all. This particular appropriation bill under question I wish to call your attention to. I wish to point out to you what it means and what it asks for. I said last week that I believe each appropriation bill should be considered by this House on its merits. This bill asks for an appropriation of $1,600 in order that a monument or a marker may be planted in the city park at Allentown on the plot to be donated by the city of Allentown to the State of Pennsylvania for that purpose; a marker to commemorate the services of the Allen Infantry, who were one of the five companies who were known as "The First Defenders" in the War of the Rebellion. April 5, 1861, President Lincoln issued his proclamation asking for 75,000 men. On the 17th of April, five companies, known as "The First Defenders", were on the way to Washington. They passed through this city. They camped on the Capitol Ground here at Harrisburg; passed through Baltimore, were stoned with rocks and cobblestones and finally reached the Capitol. There was encamped in the building a small body of men, but the report went out through the newspapers in Washington to the people at large that as many as 15,000 men were holding the Capitol. It was that moral effect alone which saved the United States Capitol from being taken by the enemies of the Federal Government. Those "First Defenders" have been spoken of in history; their valor needs no defense. They have brought honor upon the State of Pennsylvania. Everyone knows what they have done. We are proud of the first soldiers who enlisted in the War of the Rebellion; those who first came to the Capitol at Washington were men from Pennsylvania. It is only fitting, it seems to me, that we as patriotic citizens are marking the deeds of our forefathers and trying to inculcate the spirit in posterity. It is only fitting, I say, to commemorate the valor of the first defenders and to commemorate that by a small monument costing only $1,600. I ask you, gentlemen of the House, to vote for this bill on its merits.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass?

Mr. HERMAN. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, This bill that is now before you for your consideration is not of my making, but, more the less is one of the provisions of which I heartily indorse. This measure provides for and expenditure of $5,000, by this Commonwealth for a purpose altogether praise worthy and in perfect accord with the customs of the great State of Pennsylvania, and of every civilized country. Mr. Speaker only a few days ago I listened to words from a gentleman upon the floor of this House, words that I never expected to hear from any intelligent man in opposition to this and similar bills.

If my memory serves me correctly and I believe the records will bear me out he made this statement. "Only decadent Nations erect monuments to the memory of their great men."

Think of this statement Mr. Speaker and gentlemen, I submit there is no one who is a student of history who will for a moment believe that the gentleman was serious when he made that statement. He referred us to the Greek empire as an example. Held up for our inspection that ancient Empire as an example of the follies of the custom of erecting tablets in public places to commemorate their achievements.

Gentlemen of the House it is my contention that after the laps of all the centuries since the decline of the Greek nation we have left to us to verify the records of their great deeds their tablets and monuments. The history of any nation past or present is taught and verified and its civilization very largely determined by their manner of honoring their illustrious sons and their achievements.

Now Mr. Speaker I do not desire to take up the time of this House but I feel that I would be unfaithful to my trust and ungateful to a class of men that above all others I honor and respect if I failed to do everything that lay within my powers to persuade this House to honor themselves by honoring the memory of the men of the 198 Reg. Pa. Vol.

This gallant band of men mustered themselves into the service of their country from the eastern part of the State. To-day only a few of them remain and those few are through me praying you gentlemen of the House to assist them to honor those of their number who made the complete sacrifice that you and I might enjoy peace and prosperity. This bill tells you of only a few of the battlefields upon which they bled and died.

The measure also provides that our Honored Governor appoint three of the remaining war scarred veterans of this regiment as a committee to select a suitable marker (for that my friends is all this paltry sum will allow and to select the spot where the same shall be located.

Mr. Speaker, had I the eloquence of the gentleman from Philadelphia, I could paint for the House the picture of one who gave his service to his country and from whom I get my ideas of patriotism. I could tell you Mr. Speaker, of the battles in which he fought, and finally I could tell you of the last battle.

How in the fury of this battle he was not only torn with shell his horse shot falling upon him so mangling his leg that the bones protruded through the flesh and as if this were not enough gentlemen he was captured, Thrown into that Hell, the Salisbury prison with only a piece of his own shirt wrapped round his broken and mangled limb. This with a battle of linement and a cane kindly given him by an old negro, was all the medical attention that a case like this required.

What was suffered in that prison pen can be only faintly imagined, I shall not endeavor to describe it, it is beyond description except by those who participated in its barbarities. Gentlemen, I know this man I have the cane that the old negro gave him.—This man was my father. Now I say this to you, Mr. Speaker, because I do not want any member of this House to impugn my motions when I vote for any measure that in my judgment will honor the memory of the Grand Army of the Republic, for I feel that in so voting I shall assist in the education of even unborn generations and the perpetuating of the institutions of my country.

I invite you Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the House, to join with me in granting the prayer of these men.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

On the question.

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I call for the verification of the roll.

The Clerk read the names of the gentlemen voting in the affirmative.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I challenge the vote of Mr. George A. Baldwin. He is not in his seat.

The SPEAKER. The vote of the gentleman from Beaver is challenged on what grounds?

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. On the ground that he did not vote.

The SPEAKER. The Chair has no information as to the voting of the gentleman from Beaver.

Mr. MISSIMER. Mr. Speaker, I saw Mr. Baldwin go out after the roll started.

The SPEAKER. Did the gentleman notice the gentleman from Beaver voting?

Mr. MISSIMER. I noticed that he went out.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk states that the gentleman answered to his name. Would the challenge change the result of the bill?

The Chief Clerk. No, sir.

The SPEAKER. What evidence has the gentleman from Philadelphia that the gentleman from Beaver did not vote?

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. I just want to make a general statement that I have kept a roll call here and there is such a large number of men whom I have not marked but whose names have been called by the Clerk, which led me to believe that the confusion must be so great and the responses so very light; my list is so different from that read by the Clerk that I do not care to press it any further.

The SPEAKER. If the gentleman challenges the correctness of the Clerk's roll, the Chair would prefer to settle it now rather than leave it in that situation.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. I will read a list of those whom I did not hear vote.

The SPEAKER. The roll of the Clerk is official and the Chair believes it to be kept with care.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I did not hear the following names: Baldwin, G. A., Benninger, Bittles, Blair, Walter Allen,—

Mr. A. W. Blair. Mr. Speaker, I distinctly answered "aye."

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Brownlee,—

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Washington got up and asked the Chair to have him recorded and the Chair so directed.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Collins,—

Mr. COLLINS. Mr. Speaker, I voted "aye."

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Curry,—

Mr. CURRY. I stood back there and voted "aye" so you could hear me all over the Capitol.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Kauffman, Kennedy,—

Mr. KENNEDY. Mr. Speaker, I try to make myself heard.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Letzkus,—

Mr. LETZKUS. Mr. Speaker, I certainly answered very distinctly to my name.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Lowers,—

Mr. LOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I think my vote was recorded as loud as any man in the room.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mannion,—

Mr. S. J. PERRY. Mr. Speaker, he just went out; I saw him go down in the elevator.

Mr. CHARLES A. SHAFFER. Mr. Speaker, I spoke to Mr. Mannion on the outside. I asked him if he voted and he said he did.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Ramsey,—

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is not recorded as voting.

Mr. EHRHARDT. Mr. Speaker, I heard Mr. Mannion respond to his name.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Rhoads,—

Mr. RHOADS. Mr. Speaker, I was here when my name was called, and voted.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Roney,—

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Speaker, I voted "aye."

The SPEAKER. The Chair calls the attention of all persons present to the fact that this investigation has disclosed that the Clerk was correct in his marking of the roll.

The Clerk will proceed with the verification.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 1456, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation for the erection of a monument for the reception and preservation of certain relics of the Battleship Maine, commemorating the services of Lieutenant Friend W. Jenkins and the sailors who were killed in the explosion of the Maine

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. BIGGER. Mr. Speaker, Livy said: "Dulce et decorum est pro patria mori" "It is sweet and honorable to die for one's country").

The war between our nation and Spain was like no other war of ancient or modern times. It was a protest of civilization and a plea for humanity. From the time of the landing of Cortes and Pizzro to the returning of Weyler the emblem of the Spaniard was the signal of greed, rapine and murder. Incalculable savagery perpetrated inconceivable crime. Spain in the Western World stood for concentration and desolation. Under her imperial sway the rights of man were crushed, liberty destroyed.

In Cuba the tide of moral poison and Spanish cruelty reached the high-water mark in the closing years of the nineteenth century and this in sound and sight of the great American Republic. There the American as well as the Cuban citizen was ignominiously humiliated. Conditions are unmentionable in this respect. They were torn from their homes in a ruthless manner, with foul air, foul water, and foul food or none. The sanitary conditions were of the poorest kind, subjecting the people to disease and pestilence. Little children not properly cared for. Men and women crawling in the public streets seeking food dying from exhaustion. A rich country in desolation and ruin from misrule. Four hundred thousand innocent human beings, old men and women and children mostly, actually perished in one year.

This was not all. Captain-General Weyler issued the following order which had for its object a scheme to exterminate by starvation and disease the inhabitants. It read: "I order and command all the inhabitants of the country or outside of the line of fortifications of the towns, shall, within the period of eight days, concentrate themselves in the town so occupied by the troops. Any individual, who after the expiration of this period, is found in the uninhabited parts will be considered a rebel, and tried as such."

They not only oppressed the people of this island and ruled despotically and corruptly, but defied the people of the United States by violating treaty obligations and injury to our commerce. A day of reckoning for all this injury was approaching.

President McKinley had sent the Maine an armored cruiser of the second-class and often described as "the pride of the Navy of the United States" to Cuba upon a "visit of courtesy." The relations between Spain and the United States had been greatly disturbed and it was officially stated that this visit meant simply the resumption of friendly relations with Spain. This visit was approved by the Spanish authorities. She was given her place of mooring by the regular pilot of the port.

On Wednesday morning, February 16, 1898, the Maine was destroyed in Havana Harbor. At the roll call 288 seamen answered not to their names but had perished—but not to fame.

They were from many States but all Americans. They were a brave and splendid crew. They were a part of the courage and sinew of our land. Lieutenant Jenkins was from our own State.

Most of them were young men at a time where life is full of hope, and all the tides of effectation were at their highest and grandest flow.

The destruction of the Maine, while not the immediate cause of the Spanish-American war, was the indirect cause of it. It was the occasion that attracted the whole public mind and aroused the conscience of the American people to a sense of righteous indignation and they demanded in the name of humanity that the cruelties of the Spanish must cease in Cuba. Injustice is blind and Spain paid the penalty.

No people ever gave to the world higher evidence of devotion to liberty than the people of this nation gave when they demanded the withdrawal of Spain from Cuba and resorted to the arbitrament of war to enforce that demand.

Our nation is a nation of peace but it loves justice.

This war annihilated sectional lives and solidified the States.

It announced an old doctrine among the natives of the world, "that we are our brother's keepers."

It elevated, broadened, and realized the courage of the rising generations of our people.

These heroes, like all heroes that fall in a noble cause, shall be held in grateful remembrance by our people as long as virtue, patriotism and gratitude remains among them.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

The Senate Proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 803 (House Bill No. 570), as follows:

An Act requiring any individual firm or corporation mining anthracite coal in this Commonwealth where coal mined and paid for by the car to keep a record of all coal mined at the miners' chutes where said coal is loaded in cars providing that said record shall be the final basis in computing the miners' earnings per car without any deduction for any slate or refuse that may be loaded in said car or cars in the usual and natural course of mining coal providing further that said record shall be open for the inspection of all miners and providing penalties for failure to comply with the provisions of this act

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That at every anthracite coal mine in this Commonwealth where coal is mined and paid for by the car a record of all cars of coal mined shall be kept at the miners' chutes or at the most convenient and practical of said chutes where said coal is loaded in cars which record shall be the final basis in computing the miners' earnings per car without any deduction for any slate or other refuse that may be loaded on said car or cars in the usual and natural course of mining and loading coal and which record shall be open at all times for the inspection of all miners

Section 2 Any individual firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall for each offense be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars

Section 3 Provided That this act shall not affect any existing contract nor shall it prevent the making of any contract between the owner or operator of any mine and the miners employed therein as to the method of recording cars mined and of deducting for refuse therein and no penalty provided in this act shall apply to such owner or operator so contracting or agreeing

Section 4 That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed

And said bill having been read at length the third time and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BEIDLEMAN. Mr. President, This bill is intended to correct a condition which exists among the miners of this section alone. I am advised that in all the regions, both anthracite and bituminous, contracts have been entered into between the operators and the miners relative to dockage which have been satisfactory, except to the miners of Dauphin County, where the operators have absolutely refused to enter into any contract whereby those workmen may know to what extent, if any, they are to be docked when they engage in mining coal. This bill, as it now appears upon the Calendar, will not interfere with any contract which now exists or which may hereafter be entered into between the operators and the miners for the satisfactory docking, if any such docking is to take place, but in this county for some years the miners have been arbitrarily docked without any known schedule therefor, and it was at the miners located in upper Dauphin County last year the miners suffered a most unfair, unreasonable and unjust dockage, arbitrarily made by the mining company and amounting to over ten thousand cars. It is to correct this condition that this bill appears upon the calendar and I ask the careful consideration of the Senate in securing its passage.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate Proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1568 (House No. 1349), entitled:

An Act to regulate the temperature of milk and cream intended to be shipped solid or offered for sale

And said bill having been read at length the third time,
On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, I very much apprehend that if this bill is enacted into a law it will not only impose almost impossible conditions upon moderate sized and small farmers but will also tend greatly to increase the price of milk to customers in the cities. The milk provides that all milk shall be reduced to fifty degrees within one hour after milking. A spring water only averages about fifty four degrees it will be impossible in many cases for the farmers without ice to reduce the milk to sixty degrees, and they must reduce it below sixty degrees because it will rise in the shipping. In addition to this, a great many farmers throughout the section that I represent have already begun to discontinue the keeping of cows and are feeding steers on account of inability to comply with the increasing exacting conditions imposed and the trolley roads that are now hauling the milk are doing it more for the accommodation of the patrons than they are for the profit and if this act passes in order to transport this milk they will have to put on additional cars and they will likely decline to do so and this will add to the scarcity of the milk and advance in the price to the customers.

Mr. NUTTY. Mr. President, This bill is not changing the present law. The milk to-day is delivered into the city of Philadelphia at sixty. The bill does not change the temperature at this time, but if the Boards of Health in the various cities or in the city of Philadelphia see fit to change the temperature, to bring it down to fifty-five, there is where the hardship is going to come in to the farmers and the carriers. They have no trouble getting the milk in at sixty, but, in order that the Senate may be fairly convinced, I move that the question together with a further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. KNAPP. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1788 (House Bill No. 1789), on third reading, entitled:

An Act regulating process and practice in all civil cases whether at law in equity in divorce or otherwise howsoever hereafter brought in any court of common pleas of this Commonwealth and providing a complete system of procedure within the limits of the subject matter of this act be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. HALL. Mr. President, I second the motion.
The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1838 (House Bill No. 1833), entitled:

An Act making an appropriation for the purpose of further carrying out the provisions of a joint resolution approved the fourteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and eleven entitled "A joint resolution to provide for the participation of the State of Pennsylvania in the Panama-Pacific International Exposition to be held in San Francisco California in one thousand nine hundred and fifteen to celebrate the completion and opening of the Panama Canal and the Four Hundredth Anniversary of the discovery of the Pacific Ocean and provide for the appointment of a commission and making an appropriation to defray the expenses of the same

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I asked yesterday that this bill go over until to-day to make some examination about the necessity of making this appropriation of four hundred and fifty thousand dollars and I am free to say that if I had found there seemed to be any reasonable necessity for that, I would vote for it but I think at the present time it is an extravagant appropriation. Together with what we appropriated two years ago, it will make half a million of dollars. A half million of dollars is equivalent to the amount of money we appropriated two years ago for the dirt roads throughout the State of Pennsylvania, and it was made that because the Governor said it was for want of funds. We have passed other bills here that will take from the State some additional funds this year, and making the income perhaps less than it was two years ago, and we are not sure there will be any more funds then there were two years ago, and it seems to me that if three hundred thousand dollars were appropriated it would be ample and satisfactory. The normal schools of Pennsylvania thirteen of them, asked for three hundred and ninety thousand dollars and this committee that raised this appropriation from three hundred thousand to four hundred and fifty thousand saw fit to reduce that appropriation one hundred and thirty thousand dollars. Now these schools appeal to the large portion of the population of the State, of the poor people, and they need the appropriation therefor because they have already spent the money, they are in debt, and if the State cannot see fit to appropriate the additional one hundred and thirty thousand dollars, it does not seem to me to be fair to add the hundred and fifty thousand dollars and make this almost half a million dollars for a show over at San Francisco. The necessity does not seem to exist. One hundred thousand dollars would build a large structure and another hundred thousand dollars will entertain all the people that would go there. It seems to be that two hundred thousand dollars would be a very fair appropriation here and we ought not to ask the State to appropriate four hundred and fifty thousand dollars to this object. The House went over the matter thoroughly and scaled it down to a three hundred thousand dollar figure and I hope the Senate will consent to do that and vote against this bill.

Mr. WASBERS. Mr. President, I believe it is just and proper that this great State of Pennsylvania put up a building that would be a credit to the State but the appropriations that were made heretofore for purposes of expositions were three hundred thousand dollars. Now, at Chicago, the building I believe cost ninety-one thousand dollars, furnishings sixteen thousand dollars and Pennsylvania Day, I believe five thousand dollars, making a one hundred and twelve thousand dollars. Subtracting that from three hundred thousand dollars left one thousand and eighty-eight thousand dollars for a contingent fund. Now the same applies to the St. Louis Buildings. The appropriation there was three hundred thousand dollars, and the cost of the building was seventy-four thousand dollars, the furnishings were thirteen thousand five hundred dollars and Pennsylvania Day cost nineteen thousand three hundred dollars leaving a balance of one hundred and ninety-three thousand dollars. Therefor I believe that four hundred and fifty thousand dollars is unnecessary.

Mr. McILHENNY. Mr. President, I am surprised at the gentlemen who have just preceded me referring to the appropriation of $450,000 as being entirely too much for this great State of Pennsylvania to spend in the exhibition at the Panama Canal Exposition. If they will only take into consideration the conditions surrounding, the labor and the wages for mechanics in California at the present time, and what was expended in St. Louis as representing $128,000 for a building, it would be impossible for this State or any other State in the eastern part of the country to do what they did in St. Louis with the increase for the cost of mechanics and the increase in the cost of materials in that part of the country for $250,000. If the money is properly and economically expended, I think Pennsylvania, to us the greatest State in the Union, would be absolutely compensated and the advantage to our inhabitants and the people engaged in business if Pennsylvania appropriated half a million dollars or a million dollars, because if the money is wisely spent it gives great advertising to the industries of this State and I think this bill should pass as it came from the committee. because of the increased price of labor as it now exists in California it is costing one hundred per cent. more than it was the time of the expositions at St. Louis and Chicago.

Mr. KLINE. Mr. President, in addition to what the Senator from Philadelphia has said in regard to this bill, I wish to say that it would really be a shame to appropriate only three hundred thousand dollars along side, say of New York. The State of New York, I understand, has appropriated $800,000 for buildings at this exposition. I know there is not a member of this Senate who will stand up and want to believe that the State of New York should stand pre-eminent over the great Commonwealth of Pennsylvania with regard to their buildings, and if any member of this Senate should go to the Panama Exposition and see an inferior buildings alongside of any other State they will be ashamed of the great Commonwealth in which they so proudly believe and I sincerely hope that this $450,000 in this bill will prevail.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, in connection with this bill we know that the State of Pennsylvania appropriated $300,000 for each of the Chicago Expositions and the Louisiana Purchase Exposition at St. Louis, and that only possibly one-half of the allowance of money that was appropriated then was expended for buildings and for expenses as the result of the exposition. I see no reason at all why at this time and for this exposition, 3,500 miles away, the State of Pennsylvania should appropriate $450,000—$150,000 more than was expended or appropriated for any one of those expositions. We know that the appropriation bills that we have passed here and are now passing will very likely exceed the revenues for the next two years and I think it would be entirely wrong to have reductions made in appropriations that were made to hospitals and educational institutions and penal institutions and those institutions that need money very sorely in this State, and to appropriate $450,000—$150,000 more than has been appropriated at any time heretofore. I ask this question, why do we need $150,000 more now? Is it due to the high cost of living or is it due to the high-handed method of appropriating money for purposes of this kind? I believe it is not right. Furthermore, this exposition will be held in the year 1915 and the next session of the Legislature will meet in 1915. Why not make this amount $300,000 now and in case there should be a deficiency the next Legislature could provide for that difference?

Mr. KLINE. Mr. President, I just want to take up with the Senator from Lehigh one thing, and that is about this exposition being so far away. We do not care how far away the exposition may be, whether it is away over in the Eastern Hemisphere or not. Pennsylvania, wherever she may be, wants to be represented right and proper. This marks the opening of the great Panama Canal, which, when completed, will confer upon our great nation the commercial sceptre of the seas, and also marks the opening of this great way to the grand Pacific Ocean, which will carry to us from her shores the blessings of the future. The progressive spirit prevails not only through our State, but through our Nation, and the progress of this great nation must rightly continue and Pennsylvania must rightly continue in her position in the grand United States, and I sincerely hope this bill will pass.

Mr. McNICHOLS. Mr. President, I confess that I am not very well acquainted with the provisions of this bill otherwise than the amount they seek to appropriate for this occasion. For information I presume that this building is intended for the housing of the exhibits from this State, taken from the different departments of the State. If such is the case I presume the man who drafted this bill knew what he was doing, that it would take so much money to complete such a building, but if the building is intended simply as a resort for the reception of the citizens of this Commonwealth while visiting that fair in California, then to my mind this appropriation is too large. If it is for the purpose, as I said, to use the building in San Francisco for the reception of the citizens of this Commonwealth and a place to meet, then I believe the amount of money sought to be appropriated in this bill is too large. But if it is to house the different departments of this Commonwealth and its exhibits, then I believe the sum possibly will be sufficient, and I do not think it is exorbitant. But for information I would like to have that point explained. The resolution as recited in the bill does not clearly express the object of this appropriation.

Mr. KLINE. Mr. President, so as to enlighten the Senator from Lackawanna and also the other members of the Senate of Pennsylvania, I would say that my understanding is that this will do both, not only for the purpose of a place where the people of the State of Pennsylvania and elsewhere may go and receive sandwiches and soft drinks without any investigation whatever, but also a place for the housing of the different exhibits of the different industries of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, a fitting place for the same and the members of this commission who have had charge of this and have given considerable study to this bill realize that it requires an enormous building to house all the exhibits, and they place the amount necessary to carry out this purpose at $450,000.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, my information is that the New York State appropriation is $400,000 and not $800,000, and besides that New York is situated differently and there may be some local necessity for their appropriation of $400,000. We appropriated $50,000 two years ago. Now this it not a State exhibition. It is a National exhibition. This so far as Pennsylvania is concerned is but an incident to Pennsylvania. The United States Government is making or giving this exhibition. They are controlling it. It is their affair, and they are making a proper appropriation to take care of the expenses. Therefore Pennsylvania, New York and the other states taking part in it are simply taking part in it as visitors and so long as the Chairman of this Committee has been unable to show the Senate the necessity of making an appropriation of even $300,000, it does seem to me that there is very little necessity for the appropriation.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, it is true that the United States is taking this unto itself as a proposition. But the State of Pennsylvania is in the position of the merchant or business man who desires to advertise his wares and with all the nations of the world assembled at that Exposition, why should not Pennsylvania be there represented in her proper sphere. And why should not we with conditions such as there are, not only as to the cost of labor but as to the increased cost of material, why should we not have a building there in keeping with the great State of Pennsylvania and with the conditions such as the Senator from Scranton refers to, able, competent and capable of housing any thing that you might desire to put there and have this advertisement. Not only will the county which the Senator represents, but every county in the State, and Pennsylvania will be known not only in this country but all over the world as the great State of Pennsylvania.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. McNichol.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. McNichol, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President I will.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, Is the price indicated as to what this building will cost?

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, it is left to the integrity of the gentlemen on that Commission, as they know the cost of materials has increased from the time the gentleman referred to as to the St. Louis and Louisiana Expositions. Materials have increased upwards from fifty to seventy-five per cent. and labor has increased from fifty to sixty per cent. in this section of the country, and in California one hundred per cent. I think the Commission has acted wisely. Labor in California is dearer and more expensive than in any other section of the United States.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I move the Senate do now proceed to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1788 (House Bill No. 1789), entitled:

An Act regulating process and practice in all civil cases whether at law in equity in divorce or otherwise howsoever hereafter brought in any court of common pleas of this Commonwealth and providing a complete system of procedure within the limits of the subject matter of this act

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

A division was called for.

Whereupon twenty Senators voted in the affirmative and seventeen Senators voted in the negative.

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1788 (House Bill No. 1789) entitled:

An Act regulating process and practice in all civil cases whether at law in equity in divorce or otherwise howsoever hereafter brought in any court of common pleas

Commonwealth and providing a complete system of procedure within the limits of the subject matter of this act

And said bill having been read at length the third time and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, this is rather an important bill and I presume perhaps it would be best to call the attention of the Senate to some of the features of this bill. This is what is known as a practice act which is along Progressive lines. It does away entirely with the necessity of filing demurrers in civil cases and compels affidavits of defense to be filed in trespass cases. It is a bill that has been very carefully considered and compared and as I understand it has been recommended by the State Bar Association, or at least a bill similar to this has been recommended. There are a number of features in it which go to simplify the practice of the law. I have read the bill very carefully, and I believe it would be a wise piece of legislation for this Senate to pass.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I want to take issue with the gentleman on that question. I think this bill will revolutionize the practice of law in Pennsylvania. In 1887 a Practice Act was passed designed to simplify the practice in Pennsylvania and the argument made at that time was that the poor man then could get to the courts without costing so much money. This Act is not a progressive act as termed by the Senator from Bucks. It is a revolutionary act. It is a technical act. Lawyers who have learned to practice law under the old practice act will have to go back to their books and study over again. I venture to say there are no judges or lawyers who have actually made a study of this act who are in favor of it and I am quite sure the laity would not be in favor of it. The State Bar Association of Pennsylvania is not in favor of the Act and the Bar Association of Philadelphia is against it, and so far as I know the only man who wants this Act is a member of the House, in the Legislature at the present time. It will not simplify a thing. It is a complicated bill. I think it is designed to complicate the practice and the Act of 1887 which we have all been practicing under all these years will go to pieces. I hope the Senate will defeat this bill. It is not an appropriation bill where the organization has to put through twenty-six votes. Nobody is interested in it particularly and I hope the lawyers at least will stand up and defeat it.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I do not know whether this is a good bill or a bad bill, but the best lawyers of Philadelphia have requested my vote on this bill, and I want to take issue with the Senator from Monroe, when he says that only one of these lawyers wants this bill. I repeat the best law firm of Philadelphia is very much interested in the passage of this bill.

Mr. CROW. Mr. President, I would take it that the law firm of Philadelphia that is in favor of this bill would have more to do with the plaintiff's side of damage cases than the other side.

Mr. McILHENNY. Mr. President, the objection I have to this bill is the one voiced by the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Crow. Ever since I have been in the Legislature there has been a bill introduced to compel defendants in negligence cases to file affidavits of defense and in the Judiciary General Committee, composed entirely of lawyers, they have uniformly been negative, and the reason for that is that the defendants in negligence cases have a hard enough time anyhow. It is a very difficult kind of case to try—to be the defendant in, and to give the plaintiff an additional advantage over what he has to-day in negligence cases will be no justice, but undue advantage to plaintiffs in that class of cases, and for that reason only I think the bill should not pass.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. SNYDER offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to.

Resolved by the Senate of Pennsylvania that the Commissioners of the Battle of Gettysburg Commission shall forward to each Senator at his home address forthwith four reserved seats tickets in the tent where services of commemoration are being conducted for each day of the ceremonies of the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg.

RESOLUTION PROVIDING FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF ADDITIONAL MEMBERS OF THE PANAMA-PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION COMMISSION.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. SNYDER offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

Resolved (if the House concur) That the President pro tempore of the Senate shall appoint ten Senators and the Speaker of the House ten members of the House of Representatives, who, together with the present President pro tempore of the Senate and the present Speaker of the House of Representatives, shall be additional members of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition Committee, and who shall have all the rights and privileges of the original members of the said committee.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. HEACOCK. Mr. President, I would like to ask why it should be limited to ten members. Why not take the whole Senate?

Mr. McILHENNY. Mr. President, I do not object to the amendment being considered at this time, but I do object to the adoption of the resolution. There are now I think twenty-five members on this Panama Exposition Commission and there is no reason why we should have forty-five members and have the State spending its money. It ought at least to be for the benefit of the State not for the benefit of any individual of the State and I object very much to this resolution passing.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I beg to differ with the gentleman from Philadelphia. I submit that if I were as old in legislative practice as the gentleman is the commission that was previously appointed would have been amended as I now desire to have it amended. It is my belief, gentlemen of the Senate, that these commissions that the State appoints are officered, manned and conducted by laymen in the State who have nothing else to do and have the time to be honorary members of these commissions and they employ attorneys to do their work. It seems to me not more than just that the members of the House and members of the Senate who make it their business to attend to legislation and who are conversant with it ought to have the benefits and privileges of any honorary positions that may be created, as well as the pleasure. It seems to me a proper and just resolution that the members of the Senate and House should be members of this Commission. I do not object to the Governor appointing his friends. They are all proper men, but it seems to me that the practice of the members of the Senate and House in the past to permit men of the State who are simply on these commissions and fill them in an honorary way and employ attorneys to do their work, that that same work could be done by the members of the Senate and House with the same kind of service that the members appointed are now working under and I ask that the members of the Senate vote for this resolution. I would like to know for information how did the gentlemen from Philadelphia vote upon the proposition? If he voted against this appropriation and it passed, it seems to me it ought to be a matter of pride that other members of the Senate are interested enough to bother with this commission.

Mr. McILHENNY. Mr. President, I cannot say that I point to my vote with pride. I voted for the resolution because I thought that Pennsylvania ought to be represented. I do think the appropriation is extravagant, but if we are going to have an extravagant appropriation by all means let us spend the money on the building. Four hundred and fifty thousand dollars is a great deal of money, but it does not take forty-five people to see that it is spent honestly and I think it is a great mistake to have all these people do one piece of work and I think the resolution ought to be defeated.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I do not know whether this resolution was introduced in good faith or not. But twenty-five men on a commission of this kind of course is very large and if we put ten more Senators to it and ten men from the House, notwithstanding the fact that probably every man in the Senate should have an equal right to go there, if they feel after having voted one half million dollars for this kind of a show, it does seem to me, however, that is very unfair to add any more members to this commission. I would not like to have the Senate pass this resolution. It looks to me it would be something of a joy-ride that ought not to be tolerated by the Senate. I hope the Senate will not pass this resolution. I endorse what the Senator from Schuylkill says to the extent of his criticism of the method of appointing these commissions. I am not in favor of it.

And the question recurring.

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. McIlhenny and Mr. Heacock and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—18.

Catlin,	Endsley,	Kurtz,	Nulty,
Clark,	Graff,	Martin,	Salus,
Cooper,	Hoke,	McNichol,	Snyder,
Crow,	Homsher,	Morgan,	Vare,
Daix,	Knapp,

NAYS—12.

Hall,	Hunter,	Magee,	Mills,
Heacock,	Jarrett,	McIlhenny,	Sensenich,
Huffman,	Jones,	Miller,	Washers,

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

RECESS.

Mr. CROW. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess until nine o'clock to-night.

Mr. KURTZ. Mr. President, I second the motion. The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS.

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed the Senate will be in order.

Mr. McNICHOLS presented the report of the Committee of Conference appointed to consider the differences existing between the two Houses in relation to Senate Bill No. 942, entitled:

An Act providing for the printing binding and distribution of two publications heretofore published by the State namely "Pennsylvania at Gettysburg" and "Report of the Commission to Locate the Sites of the Frontier Forts of Pennsylvania" also providing for additions to said reports and for the editing proofreading and indexing thereof and making an appropriation for said work

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION PROVIDING FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF A COMMISSION TO CONSIDER AND REPORT UPON A REVISION OF THE LAWS FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF CITIES OF THE FIRST CLASS, FOR THE EMPLOYMENT OF NECESSARY OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES AND GIVING IT AUTHORITY TO COMPEL THE ATTENDANCE OF PERSONS AND THE PRODUCTION OF BOOKS AND PAPERS.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. SALUS offered the following resolution:

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur) That the Governor of the Commonwealth be and he is hereby authorized to appoint three citizens of any city of the first class of this Commonwealth, who together with three Senators to be appointed by the president pro tempore of the Senate and three members of the House of Representatives to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall constitute a commission to serve without compensation and whose duty it shall be to consider the laws of the Commonwealth relating to the government of cities of the first class, and especially to the structure and organization of councils thereof, and to report to the next Legislature whatever changes may be deemed necessary in said laws for the government of cities of the first class, together with a draft of an act or acts of Assembly to accomplish such changes. Said commission shall have power to elect its own chairman, to sit after the adjournment of the Legislature, to employ legal counsel and such other officers and employees as may be needed to enable it to properly perform its duties as aforesaid. Its expenditures shall be provided for in the general appropriation bill to be passed at this session of the Legislature and shall be paid out of the State Treasury upon vouchers signed by the chairman of said commission. The said commission shall have power to issue subpoenas, signed by its chairman, requiring the attendance of such persons and the production of such books and papers as in its judgment will assist in the performance of its duties aforesaid. It is a matter in which the Committee of Seventy is interested.

PRAYER.

The CHAPLAIN (Rev. J. E. Wright) offered the following prayer:

O God, we thank Thee for the experiences coming into our lives, opportunities opening avenues before us for thought and action, appeals calling for exertion of our energies and our will, enticements to be resisted, difficulties and hindrances to be composedly faced and resolutely conquered. Let us not be resentful, if hard things come, let us not be stirred to bitterness or moved to complaint because of checks or hindrances. We need this discipline and if we rightfully improve it we shall be the better and the stronger for the things which befall us. May those things which are most needful and helpful to us therefore come to us this day. We submit ourselves to Thee, the sons to the father, the disciples to the teacher, asking that we may face bravely and meet courageously whatever Thou dost send us and be made somewhat better because of the day through which we are passing. And Thy name shall have the praise of it, now and forever. Amen.

HOUSE RESUMES CONSIDERATION OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1553.

The SPEAKER. The Sponsor of House Bill No. 1553, now being present in the House, the Chair lays the bill before the House which was passed in its order. When this bill was before the House before, the question was, shall the bill pass finally, and the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McClintock desired to interrogate the gentleman from Blair, Mr. George C. Irwin. Will the gentleman from Blair permit himself to the interrogated?

Mr. GEORGE C. IRWIN. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. McCLINTOCK. Mr. Speaker, I desire the sponsor to explain this bill.

Mr. GEORGE C. IRWIN. Mr. Speaker, this bill provides for an extra precaution where steam boilers are used. In the larger manufacturing concerns the operators have adopted this precautionary measure, but some of the smaller ones are a little more careless. This makes it compulsory.

Mr. McCLINTOCK. In a great many instances the feed water gauge has not worked satisfactorily. The engineer or fireman, relying on the perfect working of the automatic arrangement, does not give it attention, thereby placing property and life in danger. I believe that the responsibility should be placed upon the fireman or engineer, and it will be better taken care of under those circumstances, than relying on the perfect working of the automatic regulator. I think this bill ought not to pass.

Mr. GEORGE C. IRWIN. Mr. Speaker, the fireman or engineer who does not pay any attention to the gauge should not be in charge of the boiler. The gauges now on a boiler are a precaution, but this bill provides for an additional precaution.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

SENATE MESSAGE.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has insisted upon its amendments, non-concurred in by the House of Representatives, to House Bill No. 119 entitled:

An Act to provide for the health safety and welfare of minors by forbidding their employment or work in certain occupations and under certain specified ages by restricting their hours of labor and regulating certain conditions of their employment by requiring employment certificates and badges for certain children and prescribing rules for the issuance re-issuance filing return and recording thereof requiring certain abstracts and notices to be posted providing for the enforcement of this act by officers of the Department of Labor and Industry and the Department of Mines by the Superintendent of Public Instruction by officers of the Boards of School Directors and by police officers prescribing penalties for violations of the provisions of this act defining the procedure in prosecutions and repealing all acts and parts of acts that are inconsistent therewith and has appointed, Messrs. Snyder, Clark and S. a committee of conference to confer with a similar committee of the House of Representatives, (If the House of Representatives shall appoint such committee) on the subject of the differences existing between the two Houses in relation to said bill.

Mr. LENKER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House adhere to its non-concurrence in the amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 119 and appoint a committee of conference to confer with a similar committee of the Senate already appointed to consider the differences existing between the two Houses in relation to said bill.

Mr. MATT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON HOUSE BILL NO. 119.

The SPEAKER. On the part of the House, the Chair appoints Messrs. Walnut, Lenker and Matt, as a committee of conference to confer with a similar committee of the Senate already appointed, in relation to the differences existing between the two Houses on said bill.

Ordered, that the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE.

Mr. EHRHARDT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to report a bill from the Committee on Appropriations.

The SPEAKER. The title of the bill will be read by the Clerk.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, what is the number of that bill?

Mr. EHRHARDT. Mr. Speaker, Senate Bill No. 1872, file folio 5397.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I object to that bill being read by title.

The SPEAKER. The order of presenting reports from Committee having passed it will be necessary to have unanimous consent to report a bill from committee, or suspend the rules for the purpose of reporting bills from committee. The Chair, at this time, hears objection to the reporting of this bill.

Mr. EHRHARDT. Mr. Speaker, I move that the rules be suspended for the purpose of permitting the reporting of this bill from committee.

Mr. LOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, the previous motion was to report the bill.

The SPEAKER. The Chair takes up one thing at a time; I omitted the latter part of it.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I appreciate the fact that the Chair eliminated the latter part of it.

The SPEAKER. The Chair did not notice the latter part of it.

Mr. EHRHARDT. Mr. Speaker, my motion was that the rules be suspended for the purpose of reporting this bill from the Committee, and reading it the first time. That would be the final purport of the motion.

The SPEAKER. The question is upon the motion to suspend the rules in order to permit the report of a bill from Committee.

The motion was agreed to.

And the rules were suspended for the purpose of reporting a bill from Committee.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE.

Mr. EHRHARDT, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported as committed Senate Bill No. 1872, (House Bill No. 2239) entitled:

An Act fixing the number compensation mileage and duties of the officers and employees of the General Assembly and providing for their election or appointment and manner of filling vacancies.

Mr. EHRHARDT. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the bill be now read for the first time.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I object on the grounds that the bill is not on the files of the members of the House.

The SPEAKER. The bill is Senate Bill No. 1872, file folio 5397 and it is on the files.

Mr. EHRHARDT. Mr. Speaker, I now move that we suspend the rules for the purpose of permitting this bill to be read the first time.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. The motion is on the question of suspending the rules to permit the reading of this bill for the first time.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a yea and nay vote. I feel that there are very few members in this House that know what Bill 1872 is. If they are desirous of going on record as voting for this bill without any further knowledge about it, they can do so.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, it is but fair to the members of the House to know that this is a bill that raises the salaries of the majority of the employees of the Senate and the House.

The SPEAKER. The question is on the motion to suspend the rules in order that this bill may now be read for the first time. The yeas and nays have been called for. Those who are in favor of suspending the rules for the purpose indicated will vote Aye, those opposed to suspending the rules for this purpose, will vote no.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. ALLEN and Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT and were as follows:

On the question,

Shall the bill pass?

Mr. BERGEY. Mr. Speaker, in defending this bill I want to read from an editorial published on December 5, 1905, by a former member of this House and a member of the Committee which formerly drew the present law upon the statute books. The article says:

THE COMPULSORY VACCINATION SCHOOL LAW.

The Act of June 18, 1895, is a general health law, and was never intended as a compulsory vaccination law.

The Legislature understood that it applied to cities and towns, and was not intended to apply to townships, the word municipalities being used throughout the act.

It was intended to apply to congested districts, because the Legislature had been given the impression that the foreign element in large cities lives in uncleanly conditions, and that such conditions can breed smallpox.

It was understood at the time of the passage of the Act that it was only to be applied to these classes.

Restrictions are all those applied to towns and cities. Boards of Health are held responsible, but townships then had none.

Placards were not put on infected houses in the country. Streets, not roads and highways, are mentioned.

Advertisements of funerals are not published in the country.

Blanks were not furnished the teachers by the health authorities, for there were no health authorities to furnish them.

Daily reports were not made by the teachers to health authorities.

Hired vehicles and public conveyances are not generally used at country funerals.

From 1895 to 1905 every provision was enforced except the 12th section.

This section was never enforced by Dr. Lee, Secretary of the State Board of Health, who practically prepared the bill. It was placed in the law so that it could be enforced if an epidemic existed in cities, and it became necessary to enforce it. No such necessity exists at this time. If it is to be enforced then the next Legislature should amend it so as to apply only when an epidemic exists, and it is absolutely necessary to enforce it. This is the right thing to do and cannot be done too soon. * * * The law unquestionably refers only towns and cities, but even in that it is too sweeping. It should be amended, as we have said, to apply only even in their cases, where there is an epidemic. This was the original purpose, although the construction was not as clear as it should have been.

Mr. Speaker, the article which I have just read, I think applies specifically to the present bill under consideration. The present bill does not change the law one iota with the exception that when an epidemic exists then it becomes compulsory and I believe if the members of this House will vote aye in favor of this bill, there will be no complaint from their constituents.

Mr. O'NEILL. Mr. Speaker, this bill was reported out as amended, defeated on the floor of this House and after a long delay and on a thin House, it was put on the floor again. It is an anti-vaccination bill, opposed by every department of health and the main Department of Health of Pennsylvania, the Department of Health of Philadelphia and every other good physician, and this bill ought to be defeated once and for all.

Mr. WATSON. Mr. Speaker, if the members have read this bill carefully and have considered the requirements, it is a fair bill. I have had some experience, not that I am entirely carried away with the question, but in 1907 I introduced a bill before this House which was carefully considered. It was for the purpose of harmonizing, if possible the compulsory education and compulsory vaccination. In our section of the State there was I suppose one-fourth of the school children remaining at home, and I was waited on by a committee of the Directors of our Public Schools and asked that something be done to harmonize these two acts. After a careful consideration in this House, the bill passed with only nine votes against it, and it provided practically the same that this bill does, that vaccination should only be compulsory when smallpox was known to exist as a menace to the health of the community. Now why is it not fair, why should you compel the children to be vaccinated and not apply it to people generally. It is admitted that smallpox is contagious. It is admitted that if there is a case of it brought into this House, and we sit here with it that possibly the one-half of us would be affected, that we would contract smallpox. Now gentlemen, if the argument of the gentleman who opposed this bill is good, every member of this House ought to be compelled to go and get vaccinated. We adjourn once a week. We go to the utmost parts of the State and we return. If there is any smallpox upon the train or in any locality we visit, we may be affected and come back and take smallpox into this House and spread it all over the House. Now, I say, gentlemen of the House, they are working at the wrong end of the vaccination bill. The little child that crosses the road to school, or the little child that is on its mother's lap is not going to spread smallpox over the State. It is the transient man that will do it and if you have not been vaccinated for seven years you will take varioloid and if you have not been vaccinated for seven years you will take smallpox and if you travel around with the smallpox on your face, with varioloid, you will spread the disease as bad as the man covered with it. Now, gentlemen, this is a fair bill. It is a democratic bill. It is a bill that interferes with you going into my house and taking my little child and vaccinating it. It should be optional, and in addition to that it is well known—and I have had personal experience—if you are vaccinated when you know there is smallpox about you you will not take it and it will protect you. When I was at Ann Harbor the smallpox broke out and we had something like 200 cases, and I went and got vaccinated and I had a sore arm and three of us sat up with one of our friends and none of us took it. His father came there and sat up with him and his sister and they both took it and the sister died, and it was proved that if you are vaccinated and have a sore arm and were around the smallpox you would not take it but would be protected. This is a fair proposition and I hope the members of this House will not make it compulsory upon anybody to get vaccinated without everybody is included alike.

Mr. STEELE. Mr. Speaker, this is an amendment of the Act of 1895, the twelfth section of that Act, making compulsory vaccination of School children. As you all know, as far as vaccination in Pennsylvania is concerned, it is not compulsory on any person except the children who attend the schools.

Now in 1911 our Governor appointed a commission to investigate the use of vaccine on children, whether or not it was an efficient remedy for the cure of smallpox. As far back as 1798, when vaccine was introduced to the medical profession people died at the rate of 40 to 50 per cent. with smallpox. From 1798 to 1803, in those five years, the death rate from smallpox decreased at the rate of 500 per cent. This is not a fair bill. It is a bill putting it up to you who are not physicians or scientists on the matter to decide whether or not vaccine should be instituted in our public schools, and private schools and parochial schools; whether or not you shall decide that the medical man is wrong, when he has succeeded in bringing the State of Pennsylvania, so far as sanitary conditions are concerned, to a position second to none in this United States. It is putting before this State the opinion of men who have no particular knowledge on the subject in preference to the opinions of men who have spent years in order that the people of this State might be protected. The age of 6 is the place to start. The child is not so susceptible then as between the ages of 15 and 20 and 30, and that is why this bill has been opposed so strongly by our State board. You vaccinate a child at the age of 6 and again at the age of 15, and it is absolutely impossible for that child to develop smallpox. The child might develop varioloid but not smallpox, which is the most hideous and dirty scar producing disease in the world. It will take just one scourge in this State, and it will probably visit this State within a few years, to show that vaccination is the proper method. In Germany they vaccinate at the age of 1 and again at the age of 12, and Germany stands first in the death rate from smallpox in the world. The rate is only 53 in a population of 60,000,000. Think of that? Think what that means? Do you want a scourge of smallpox in Pennsylvania just because some one has heard of a child dying or being injured from being vaccinated. You have only heard of it, but you have never been able to see cases where it is really so. The medical men, or at least 999 of them out of every thousand are in favor of this method of treatment for the prevention of smallpox. The child vaccinated may have varioloid, but not true smallpox such as it would have if it had not been vaccinated.

Mr. ULERICH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STEELE. Mr. Speaker, with pleasure.

Mr. ULERICH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know if the gentleman understands that this does away with vaccination?

Mr. STEELE. I certainly do.

Mr. ULERICH. Why?

Mr. STEELE. Because it does not make it compulsory.

Mr. ULERICH. As I understand it, it is compulsory. If there is any danger, it compels them to be vaccinated.

Mr. STEELE. That is the point I want to make. You want to close the doors after the horse is stolen. You want to wait until there is a plague. In that case the physician, since men, women and children will all want to be vaccinated at once, might not be so careful with his sterilizing as it might be when he only vaccinates five or ten at a time.

Mr. ULERICH. Isn't it true that ninety-nine persons out of a hundred especially in Pennsylvania believe in vaccination?

Mr. STEELE. I believe that.

Mr. ULERICH. That 99 parents out of a hundred will have their children vaccinated regardless of law?

Mr. STEELE. Yes, but that one per cent. of children could start the trouble.

Mr. ULERICH. But there couldn't be much of a plague with only one per cent. to get it.

Mr. STEELE. There is a greater per centage than that not vaccinated.

Mr. ULERICH. I am very much in favor of vaccination, as much as is the gentleman from Allegheny. I have had this experience as supervisor of the schools. There are a class of foreigners who are actually afraid to have their children vaccinated, and rather than have that done, will keep their children out of school; even though there may be no plague within a hundred miles, under the law it is necessary to have the children vaccinated. Being afraid these people keep their children away from school. If there had been any danger it would have been all right. I do not believe it is right to deprive the children of the schooling because the parents are afraid to have them vaccinated. I believe the bill is fair and ought to pass.

Mr. O'NEILL. Mr. Speaker, the argument of the gentleman does not hold. There was a servant came from Virginia, 450 miles away. That was the only case of smallpox. The city of Philadelphia did not wait for that to spread, but vaccinated every pupil in the schools. As a result the only case was the servant who came from Virginia.

Mr. WATSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STEELE. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. WATSON. I would like to know whether or not he can inform the House if most of the cases of smallpox are not found in adults.

Mr. STEELE. As I said, they are more susceptible between the ages of 15 and 30.

Mr. WATSON. As a matter of fact, if you have an epidemic of smallpox, fifty per cent. of the cases are in adults?

Mr. STEELE. As a rule.

Mr. WATSON. Then if your theory is right, then why not have Dr. Dixon come up here and vaccinate every one of us?

Mr. STEELE. You asked why I didn't have Dr. Dixon come up here and vaccinate us all. I don't believe there is a man in the House that has not been vaccinated.

Mr. WATSON. I don't believe there are twenty-five men in the House who have been vaccinated in the last 25 years.

Mr. STEELE. At a certain age we are not so susceptible.

Mr. WATSON. If a person has been vaccinated at the age of six can they contract smallpox? There have been such cases.

Mr. STEELE. There is no way of telling how long the immunity will last.

Mr. WATSON. Would the children that have been vaccinated not take varioloid?

Mr. STEELE. That is what I said.

Mr. WATSON. Then if I came in contact with a person who had varioloid I could contract smallpox?

Mr. STEELE. Yes.

Mr. WATSON. Then it may prevent but not prohibit.

Mr. STEELE. It is a preventative.

Mr. WATSON. Do you know of cases where a physician has diagnosed a case of chicken pox as smallpox and vaccinated?

Mr. STEELE. I don't know of that mistake ever being made.

Mr. WATSON. Mr. Speaker, they sometimes diagnose exzema for smallpox.

Mr. STEELE. Mr. Speaker, No, no. Not medical men.

Shall the bill pass finally?

NAYS—1.

Rockwell,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the amendments concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

RESOLUTION CONGRATULATING HON. JOHN MCKAY.

Mr. ADAMS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer a resolution at this time.

The SPEAKER. The resolution will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk then read the resolution as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 24, 1913.

Whereas, One of the members of this House believes in the Scriptural admonition that "it is not good for man to be alone," and

Whereas, Said member, who throughout his life has followed the light of sacred writ and trod the path of those who shun the ways of evil and dare to do right, has heeded said admonition and has taken unto himself a wife; therefore

Be it Resolved, That to the Honorable John McKay, a member of this House from Luzerne county, and to his beloved wife, Mrs. Eva Bonham McKay, this House extends its heartiest congratulations and its sincerest best wishes for the years to come.

Within a few days our friend will return
To his beautiful home, in Borough Luzerne
There in contentment, and joy, to reside
With the lady he chose to become his bride.
We congratulate him as a wise course to take
And surely the lady has made no mistake
May their future career as husband and wife
Add much to their pleasure all the rest of their life.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the resolution?

The resolution was unanimously agreed to.

Mr. McKAY. Mr. Speaker, and gentlemen of the House, I believe what the gentleman from Luzerne has already said in that resolution, that it is not good for man to be alone, and I wonder as I look upon this body of men; members of this House, my colleagues is one, on my left and on the right and in the front of me are bachelors and widowers who have not yet taken unto themselves a helpmate. Therefore I would recommend that they go and do likewise. I wish to thank you one and all for the courtesy extended to me, not only at this moment but during all of this session that I have been here. I go back home with kind recollections, with gratitude for your kindness and for your courtesy to me from the beginning of this session. I am not a speech-maker and could not if I would. I feel sometimes like the boy, the young man, who went to see his girl in a country town and came home in the morning very happy, singing and whistling. His mother said to him, "John, you are very happy this morning," and John said "Yes." His mother asked him where he had been. John said, "Down to see Sally." She asked him, "What did you talk about?" "Nothing." "What did she say?" "Nothing." "Nothing? You said nothing and she said nothing?" "No." "Why?" "Because, mother, that would have spoiled it all." So I think, gentlemen of the House and Mr. Speaker, that there are men in this House who could profit by that, because as I sat here during these five or six months I realized that more could have been done had they said less. I thank you one and all, Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the House.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments of the Senate?

Mr. J. J. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, these amendments are satisfactory to the author of the bill.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, these amendments may be satisfactory to the author of the bill, but there are many members of the House to whom the amendments are not satisfactory. For that reason I move that the House do not concur in the amendments of the Senate. I wish to call the attention of the House to the fact that the amendments are very obnoxious.

Mr. J. J. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to call the attention of the House to the fact that the amendments are approved by the art jurors of Philadelphia, and I hope the House will concur in the amendments.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER VOTE.

Mr. SEMMENS. Mr. Speaker, I offer the following motion.

The SPEAKER. The motion will be read by the Clerk. The motion was read by the Clerk as follows:

Moved by Mr. Semmens, seconded by Mr. Hess, that the vote by which Senate Bill No. 750, file folio 4519, entitled:

An Act authorizing the councils of incorporated boroughs to require the sprinkling or oiling of public streets or thoroughfares or parts thereof and assess the cost of the same to the owner or owners or occupiers of the property abutting thereon and providing for the collection of the same was stricken from the calendar, be reconsidered.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. SEMMENS. Mr. Speaker, I believe the motion read a little further—for the purpose of amendment.

The SPEAKER. Yes, but you cannot control the section of the House after a vote is reconsidered.

Mr. SEMMENS. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of the reconsideration is to have it amended to meet the objections that have been raised against the bill. Personally I have no interest in it, but I believe it would be all right with the proposed amendments.

Mr. McALEER. Mr. Speaker, when this bill was before the Committee on Municipal Corporations a promise was made there which does not seem to have been kept. The promise was made to strike "oiling" from the bill so that sprinkling only would be incorporated in the bill. That has not been done.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. LOWERS. Mr. Speaker. I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. LOWERS. In answer to a summons by the investigating committee on the matter of lobbying, I was in the House caucus room, and during that time of my absence from the room the House defeated a bill of mine that had been recalled from the Governor, without giving me an opportunity of being heard on it. In as much as it was not my fault that I was absent from the room at the time, I move you that House Bill No. 1214 be placed back on the Calendar.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that the motion is out of order.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken.

Mr. LOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill was defeated on final passage be reconsidered.

The SPEAKER. The motion of the gentleman is clearly out of order, as such a motion can only be made by a member who has voted on the winning side.

Ordered. That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed the same without amendment.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. CONNIFF. Mr. Speaker. I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question.

Mr. CONNIFF. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege at this time for the following reason: In publishing an account of the investigation of lobbyists recently directed by resolution of this House of Representatives, a publication known as the Times-Leader of Wilkes-Barre in my county, the county of Luzerne, took the liberty, or rather the license in its issue of Friday, June 20th of recording me as opposed to the adoption of the resolution and as having voted in the negative upon the consideration of the same. As a matter of fact when the said resolution was under consideration and voted upon I was absent from this House while acting as a member of the committee of the House appointed to investigate certain charges preferred against Judges Robert E. Umbel and J. Q. Van Swearingen of Fayette County, at Uniontown, Pennsylvania. Moreover, the said Times-Leader, in an apparent anxiety to discredit me before my constituents, printed in large display letters the words "Conniff on the negative" for no other reason that I can suggest than to satisfy the enmity toward me of one of the subordinates in the office of this newspaper. The publication has some circulation among my constituents and, therefore, I feel it obligatory upon me to rise to this question of personal privilege in order to contradict the fabrication invented and displayed to harm me politically and otherwise. If I had been present in the House at the time, I certainly would have voted in favor of the resolution.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman's statement will be entered upon the record, and his absence at the time in question is a matter of record in this House.

Whereas Proceeding in anticipation of receiving its pro rata share of said amount from the Commissioner of Jefferson county the Punxsutawney Fair Land Association of Punxsutawney Jefferson county held in the year one thousand nine hundred twelve in the manner prescribed by law an agricultural exhibition and offered and paid large sums of money as premiums on agriculture exhibits and

Whereas Through inadvertance the said association failed to file its sworn statement with the commissioners of said county within the time required by law and thereby was prevented from receiving said pro rata share and

Whereas The amount still remaining unpaid of said sum of one thousand dollars is two hundred sixty-five dollars and ninety-five cents which is less than the amount actually paid out by said association as aforesaid as premiums on agricultural exhibits during said agricultural exhibition held in the year one thousand nine hundred twelve therefore

The preamble was read as follows:

Whereas The Confederate forces under General Robert E. Lee in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three made a raid into the State of Pennsylvania and the skirmishers of his army reached a point within three miles of the city of Harrisburg and were driven back which skirmish was the highwater mark of the war of the Rebellion and

Whereas Hastily constructed intrenchments were thrown up on a bluff on the opposite side of the Susquehanna river from the city of Harrisburg in Cumberland county called Fort Washington and troops were rushed there to repel the invaders and save the capital city of the State from possible capture and destruction which happily was accomplished and the invasion culminated in the battle of Gettysburg a few weeks later and

Whereas After the flight of nearly fifty years these intrenchments are practically intact and are a silent reminder of the cannon that once crowned them and the brave men who rallied to the defense of the capitol of the State when it was in grave peril and

Whereas To the end that the land upon which this fort was located may be preserved for all times as a historic spot and destined in the years to come a place in the annals of this Commonwealth Therefore

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended.

REPORT OF INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent at this time to make a report of the Special Committee.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears no objection and the report will be read.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, the report is rather lengthy and the conclusion is that the facts shall be submitted to the Attorney General for an opinion, and if the House is willing, I would move the adoption of the report and its reference to the Attorney General in accordance with the recommendation of the Committee.

The SPEAKER. What was the investigation?

Mr. HUMES. It is the report on Senate Bill No. 819 of the Committee consisting of Mr. McNichol, Mr. Whitaker and myself to investigate alleged irregularities in the passage of a bill.

The SPEAKER. The regular procedure is to read the report.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I will withdraw my motion if the House desire it. I thought there was an evident inclination not to read it.

The SPEAKER. The motion was not seconded so far as the Chair is aware.

Mr. McNichol. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, while I have no hesitancy in taking the suggestion of the gentleman from Crawford or the gentleman from Philadelphia, who signed the report with him, yet I do not like to go upon record in the support of carrying out the recommendation of a committee, without knowing the facts. I do not think that is hardly fair to the House, and as it is only four pages, if the reading Clerk is too tired, I will read it myself.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, if it is the desire of the House to have the report read, with the consent of the gentleman who seconded the motion, I will withdraw it.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is of the opinion that if any member objects to the adoption of a motion without its being read, that the motion to do so ought not to be considered. The Clerk will read the report.

The Clerk then read the report as follows:

Harrisburg, June 24, 1913.

To the Honorables, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: Your committee appointed to investigate the matter of the regularity of the Proceedings incident to the passage of Senate Bill No. 819 which was approved by his Excellency, the Governor, on April 15, 1913, and being act bearing serial number 53 in the Pamphlet Laws of 1913, has the honor to submit the following findings of fact for the consideration of the House, and for such action as your honorable body shall see fit to take. Your committee called no witnesses, but bases its findings on the records of the House and Senate and voluntary statements of Senator Crow and William P. Gallagher.

It has not been the purpose or desire of your Committee to charge fraud against any individual, but only to ascertain the true facts relative to the procedure in the passage of the bill in question, and we feel warranted in suggesting to the House the importance of improving the present system of messaging bills from one branch of the General Assembly to the other, in order that such questions as are herein involved may be avoided. We believe that every bill should be duly attested or signed by the presiding officer of the branch passing it before it is messaged to the other branch.

Findings of Fact.

First—That the Senate Bill No. 819, was prepared at the Legislative Reference Bureau by direction of Willson P. Gallagher, Reading Clerk of the Senate, who informs your Committee that Senator Crow introduced the same in the Senate on March 31, 1913, in the name of and with the knowledge of Senator Catlin. Mr. Gallagher says that before the bill was introduced he inserted the words "or as soon thereafter as possible" in one of the triplicate copies but did not insert it in the copies which went to the printer and the newspaper men.

Second—That said bill was upon its introduction referred to the Committee on Judiciary Special, and was the same day reported back from that Committee by Mr. Crow having endorsed thereon the words "As Committed." Senator Crow says that the bill as introduced and reported contained the words "or as soon thereafter as possible" written in lead pencil.

Third—That thereupon the said bill was printed for the Senate file with Printer's No. 262, File Folio 1359.

Fourth—That said bill passed first reading in the Senate on March 31, 1913, passed second reading on April 1, 1913, and third reading and finally on April 2, 1913, whereupon it was messaged to the House of Representatives.

Fifth—That on each of the three readings in the Senate it appeared upon the calendar as Senate Bill No. 819, File Folio 1359, and when it reached the House it was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means, and on April 3, it was reported as committed.

Sixth—That it was on the first reading calendar of the House of Representatives on April 7 on page 14, and the Folio number on said calendar was 1359, on April 7, it passed first reading, on April 10 it appeared on page 13 of the second reading calendar and passed second reading without amendment, and said bill appeared on page 48 of the calendar on April 14, and on that date passed third reading and finally. In each instance where it appeared upon the House calendar it was designated by File Folio 1359.

Seventh—That Senate Bill No. 819, File Folio 1359 carried Printer's No. 262, and Senate Bill No. 819, File Folio 1821 carried Printer's No. 305.

Eighth—That Senate Bill No. 430 File Folio 1801, Printer's No. 302 and Senate Bill No. 77 File Folio 1809, Printer's No. 303 were both reprints of Senate Bills that were amended in the House of Representatives on April 3 and printed either on or subsequent to that date and Senate Bill No. 459, File Folio 1811, Printer's No. 304 was a bill reported out of the Committee on Elections as amended on April 2, and sent to the printer either on or subsequent to that date.

Ninth—That the File Folio 1821 of the copy of this bill bearing Printer's No. 305 is the Folio number which should appear on the bill given that Printer's number.

Tenth—That on April 3 two pages of amendments were inserted in bill bearing Printer's No. 302, and eight pages of amendments were contained in the bill bearing Printer's No. 304 on April 2.

Eleventh—That bills are given a printer's number in the order in which they are received at the printers, and the bills bearing Printer's No. 302, and 303 would therefore have been received by the printer either on or subsequent to April 3, the date when amendments were inserted by the House of Representatives in bills bearing Printer's No. 302 and 303.

Twelfth—That Senate Bill No. 819, File Folio 1821, but the latter contains after the word "April," in line eight the words "or as soon thereafter as possible," which said words were not contained in the bill at File Folio 1359. That a copy of each bill is hereto attached and made a part of this report.

Thirteenth—That the bill certified to the Governor was the one bearing Printer's No. 305, File Folio 1821, and that the same was certified to the Secretary of the Commonwealth by Harmon M. Kephart, Chief Clerk of the Senate, on April 15, 1913, and was received at the Governor's Office at 8.30 P. M. on April 15, and was approved by him and returned to the Secretary of the Commonwealth the same evening.

Fourteenth—That the receipts in the hands of the printer for bills delivered to the Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate and House of Representatives show that Senate Bill No. 819, File Folio 1359 were delivered to the Senate and House on April 1, the day after the same had passed first reading in the Senate.

Fifteenth—That the printer's receipts show that Senate Bill No. 819, File Folio 1821 was included in the receipt for bills delivered to the Senate and House of Representatives and signed by the Sergeant-at-Arms of the respective bodies on April 8, and that this particular bill was checked like all other bills delivered on this day and in accordance with the established practice. On the receipts, however, the check marks appear to have been erased and the erasure is apparent on the face of the receipt. Lead pencil marks have also been drawn through the figures 305 which constitutes the printer's number of this bill on said receipt of April 8, 1913. This printer's number has been added in lead pencil to the receipt of April 3, 1913, in both receipt books.

Sixteenth—That the bill in question was considered and passed first reading in the Senate before it was printed for the use of the members in violation of Section 2, Article 3, of the Constitution.

Seventeenth—That the bill that was printed for the use of the Senate and considered by them on second and third reading and final passage was Senate Bill No. 819, File Folio 1359.

Eighteenth—It appears to the Committee from an examination of the receipts that the reprinted bill File Folio 1821, Printer's No. 305 did not reach the files of either House until April 8, 1913, although on the present face of the receipts they show April 2, 1913.

Nineteenth—That the bill considered in the Committee on Ways and Means and reported back to the House on April 3 and passed first reading on April 7, in light of this fact must have been the bill at File Folio 1359, as it was the only bill printed up to that date for the use of the members.

Twentieth—That the House calendar which was used by the members of the House on April 10 and April 14 when said bill was passed second and third reading and finally respectively referred to File Folio 1359.

Twenty-first—That on April 14, Hon. William L. Adams made a motion fixing a special order for this bill, and the Legislative Journal of that date quotes Mr. Adams as designating this bill as Senate Bill No. 819, File Folio 1821 (See Legislative Journal, page 1763). Therefore when the bill passed second and third readings in the House, both the original print (1359) and the corrected reprint (1821) were on the files on April 10 and 14 and the former one was referred to by the calendar while the latter one was referred to by Mr. Adams in his motion for the special order of the day as shown in the Legislative Journal.

Twenty-second—Basing our opinion on the facts herein set forth, your Committee believes that Senate Bill No. 819, File Folio 1359 was the bill regularly referred to Committee in the House on April 2, and reported from Committee on April 3, and either this bill or the file folio 1821 was passed on second and third reading to the House, but neither form of the bill in question was printed for the use of the members of the Senate before it was considered in that body.

Your Committee, therefore, recommends that this report be referred by the House of Representatives to the Attorney General with the request that the Attorney General furnish an opinion as to whether or not, in light of these facts, said bill as approved is a law of this Commonwealth, and what, if any rights, the House has and what proceedings, if any, would be necessary to set aside and invalidate such act.

Respectfully submitted,

E. LOWREY HUMES,
SAMUEL A. WHITE,
THOMAS F. McNICHOL.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I now renew my motion for the adoption of the report, and that it be sent to the Attorney General as recommended in the report.

NAYS—2.

Benson, Scott, S. B.,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed the same without amendment.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE.

Mr. FREY asked and received unanimous consent to report a bill from committee, as follows:

Mr. FREY, from the Committee on Insurance, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 989 (House Bill No. 2247), entitled:

An Act regulating insurance companies corporations and associations insuring employers against liability under the provisions of the Workmen's Compensation law of one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

Mr. FREY. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to have Senate Bill No. 989, just reported, read the first time.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent?

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from York.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from York be interrogated?

Mr. FREY. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire the purpose of introducing a bill relating to an act that has not passed and, as we are informed, will not pass?

Mr. FREY. Mr. Speaker, I believe that it will pass and this bill is based on the supposition that it will pass and it can then be used and will apply.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears no objection. The Clerk will read the bill.

BILL ON FIRST READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the first reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2247 (Senate No. 989) entitled:

An Act regulating insurance companies corporations and associations insuring employers against liability under the provisions of the Workmen's Compensation law of one thousand nine hundred and thirteen

And said bill having been read at length the first time, Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

Mr. SEMMENS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know when this Committee on Insurance had a meeting to consider this bill?

The SPEAKER. The Chair has no information. The Chair takes bills from committee when reported by a member of the committee.

Mr. FREY. Mr. Speaker, I think it is up to me to explain why this bill was reported from committee. It is a companion bill to a bill introduced by Mr. Shern, and he is not here to take care of it and the Chairman of the Insurance Committee is not here and I have a petition signed by a majority of the members of the Committee on Insurance, and that is the reason there was no meeting of the Insurance Committee.

Mr. SEMMENS. Mr. Speaker, several of the members of the Insurance Committee are here and they have no knowledge of the meeting.

Mr. FREY. Mr. Speaker, there was no meeting.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 1964 (Senate No. 220), entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the General Braddock Memorial Park Association of Fayette county

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—200.

Adams,	Ewing,	Letzkus,	Rockwell,
Allen,	Flynn,	Light,	Roney,

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Speaker, this bill and the bill following perhaps at this time justify a brief explanation. Some time ago two bills were introduced to repeal two acts passed by the Legislature in 1911 and one bill amending in five sections the Act of 1899 and the other authorizing the Auditor General to appoint expert examiners to inquire into and investigate into the various trust companies and depositories throughout the State and for the purpose of extending the same to the cases of escheat. After consideration of these bills, particularly the bill which amended in five sections the Act of 1899, it was decided that it would not be good policy to put forward these repealers as it would seriously affect the general body of the escheat law. The two bills which has passed the Senate were utilized for the purpose of touching the best features of the escheat Act of 1911; they providing a new system of requiring reports from the various financial institutions throughout the State. In order to make it effective, the procedure of bringing that about, under this bill or the following bill, they being twin bills and they should be explained together for the purpose of saving the time of the House, the examiner is required to report to the Auditor General where he finds any funds subject to escheat. Under the Act of 1911, before this bill was introduced, eight hundred thousand dollars of that fund, that will reach possibly two million dollars in the end, would be diverted from the State Treasury and the school fund to which all escheat money goes and would be given to private informers and escheaters. and it so happens that under the present condition of affairs wherever some three or four men had lodged information against every trust company of the State, eight hundred thousand dollars of money that should go to the education of school children of the State would have to be diverted from this proper purpose and handed over to some few individuals. These two bills were given very careful attention. They now provide, briefly, this: That all institutions shall report once a year for seven years where a beneficiary or a syndicate trust shall have been announced for a period of seven years or shall have made no payment upon that fund for seven years. What do we do? We put the burden on every trust company and we penalize them by adding a twelve per cent. penalty. In addition to that for the purpose of making this a satisfactory piece of legislation we require the banking examiner who knows the persons to report to the Auditor General so that absolute tab can be kept on all property subject to escheat. We have also made the further appropriation that in cases of purely private information that is where a man or person were given escheat there shall be in all cases a payment of five per cent. of the funds. That required a report of all those institutions and we cover all the money with the single exception of the five per cent. paid to the escheater. With the exception of the five per cent. thus paid, the money is turned into the State Treasury and then under the School Code of 1911 we turn it back to the school fund for the education of the children of the State. A few weeks ago there was some apprehension on the part of some of the members of the House regarding this proposed escheat legislation. I want to assure you that the Act of 1899 is left alone excepting so far as it is amended by these two bills. These bills are now in the position of offering this alternative—shall every penny go to the school children of the State or shall the Act of 1911 stand so that it will be utilized for the purpose of giving some four or five men some eight hundred thousand dollars. That is money that we should give to the school children of the State. I ask that these bills in their present shape be supported. They are carefully worded and carefully drawn and I hope that this Legislature will give them unanimous support.

MOTION TO PLACE BILL ON CALENDAR.

Mr. E. E. JONES. Mr. Speaker, on June 3rd the Appropriations Committee reported to the House with a negative recommendation, Senate Bill No. 100, file folio 237, known as the State Fair Bill.

I move this bill be placed upon the Calendar, notwithstanding the negative recommendation of the committee.

The SPEAKER. More than five days have expired since the report of the committee.

Mr. E. E. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I ask for information. Does the rule apply to bills reported negatively from committee?

The SPEAKER. That it what the bill does apply to.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. JOHN ROBERT JONES. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. JOHN ROBERT JONES. Mr. Speaker, June 26th has been fixed, as far as this House is concerned, as the date for final adjournment. The conference committee on the part of the House on House Bill No. 118, which is the Uniform Primary Act, has met in conference with the members representing the Senate and it had numerous meetings. Now in view of the fact that the 26th has been fixed for adjournment so far as the House is concerned, we as members of the conference committee on the part of the House think that it is proper and fitting for us to make a statement at this time as to the status of the conference committee negotiations.

The conference committee appointed to consider the amendments introduced in the State Wide Primary Bill by the Senate failed to-day to come to an agreement. There were a number of changes caused by the Senate amendments which were of importance but did not necessarily affect the fundamental principle involved in the measure. These included matters involving a change in penalties, a change in the regulations for recounting votes, a change in the voters' assistance clause, and several others. As to these the members of the House committee were ready to yield in order that the passage of a State Wide Primary might not be prevented. Upon two propositions advocated by the Senate, however, the House conferees did not agree. These were the provisions against fusion and the provision covering the creation of new parties. As to the first proposition, the Senate denied the right of fusion by two provisions. This is made clear by the Senate amendment, which is as follows: "Provided, That in no event shall any person's name be printed upon the official ballot of any party as a delegate, candidate, State committeeman or party officer, unless he is registered and enrolled as a member of said party." Under this provision a candidate being compelled to be enrolled as a member of one party in order to become a candidate of that party would necessarily be denied the right to become the candidate of another party in which he was not enrolled. The second provision denying the right of fusion is as follows:

"Should such a petition be filed to place the name of any person upon the official ballot of any party, no petition shall be filed to place his name on the ballot of any other party." The House conferees argued that the primary principle of the law under discussion was to give the body of electors forming any party the absolute right to determine candidates who shall be upon their ballot at any election. It frequently happens that the majority of the electors of each of several parties are united in the advocacy of one candidate and are convinced that that candidate will, if elected, represent their views as to the conduct of the office for which he is to be chosen. The Senate's amendment would, in such case, make it impossible for the electors of those parties to nominate the man of their choice. The answer to this objection on the part of the Senate was found in the proposition that after the primary had been held, the party committees of the several parties under certain restrictions could accept the resignation of a candidate and name in his place any candidate of their selection. It seemed an extraordinary restriction to place a primary law, the basis of which is the right of the electors of a party to select their own candidates. It gave to a few men who through their activity in politics occupy positions in the several party committees the right to place upon their party ticket a member of another party, at their will and refuse the same right to the general body of electors of that party. Your committee was convinced that any such provision would absolutely conflict with the principle that this House stood for in passing the bill, and the principle upon which a State wide primary is advocated and supported. Your committee insisted that it was the right of the party electors to select as candidates whomsoever they pleased. Your committee, therefore, refused to accept the proposition insisted upon by the Senate.

As to the second proposition, the Senate amendment provides that no party should be organized subsequent to a date fixed three (3) months before the date of the primary. It also provided a system of party formation so complex fact that the necessity for the creation of a new party practically impossible. Your conferees considered this method destructive of a free election, in view of the plain fact that the necessity for the creation of a new party ordinarily does not arise until after a primary has been held, when candidates and issues are clearly defined. The insistence of your conferees upon this point caused the Senate conferees to recede in some degree from their position. The proposal finally made by them permitted the formation of a new party within a period of thirty-five (35) days after a primary held before a general election. This period, your conferees pointed out, was insufficient, as the issues in a national campaign would not be outlined in a party platform at a national convention until at least thirty (30) to thirty-five (35) days after dates fixed for the primary, and if the primary law should pass, the issues upon which the several parties already in the field would make their campaign would possibly not be defined until a month or two months after the time fixed in the Senate amendments for the creation of a new party. Your conferees contended that any limitations which would prevent the starting of new parties, when either candidates or principles were involved, were not in accord with the principles of a free election. The joint conference committee failed to agree. The Senate committee was concerned primarily with the advancement of the interests of party organization. They desired to limit the voters who would go into a primary by compelling each of them to make affidavit as to the party of which he was a member and to have that statement recorded in a public register. They next desired to close the field to every candidate except those selected by stalwart party men who were willing to enroll under party banners, while prohibiting formation of a new party after the primary, and finally they desired to limit the choice of those voters who went into party primaries by prohibiting any two or more groups of party electors from fusing by nominating a common candidate. This power to fuse they desired to concentrate in the hands of party committees. Every amendment introduced by the Senate was colored with this same endeavor. Your conferees, on the other hand, viewed a primary law as a means to secure to the individual elector the freest opportunity for selecting at a primary candidate of his choice as a candidate of the party to which he belongs, without depriving any elector, whether a party man or not, of an opportunity of supporting a new party standing for candidates and principles of his choice if the need arises after the primary.

Mr. Speaker, the House conference committee stands at this time ready and willing to meet again with the members representing the Senate conference committee and to go into a discussion of this proposition at any time, at any time that they may see fit, in order that we may, if possible, arrive at some conclusion which will result in the passage of a uniform primary law that is fair, just and equitable.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed the same without amendment.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up from the page 19 of to-day's Calendar, Senate Bill No. 737.

Agreeably to order,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 2047 (Senate No. 737), entitled:

A supplement to an act entitled "An Act to provide for the immediate registration of all births and deaths throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by means of certificates of births and deaths and burial or removal permits requiring prompt returns to the Central Bureau of Vital Statistics at the capital of the State as required to be established by the State Board of Health and to insure the thorough organization and efficiency of the registration of vital statistics throughout the State as provided in section seven of 'An Act to establish a State Board of Health for the better protection of life and health and to prevent the spread of contagious and infectious diseases in this Commonwealth' approved June third eighteen hundred and eighty-five and making an appropriation for establishing and maintaining such a bureau and providing certain penalties" approved May first nineteen hundred and five Pamphlets Laws three hundred and thirty authorizing the statistics to be obtained and preserved by the tenth section of an act entitled "An Act creating a Department of Health and defining its powers and duties" approved April twenty-seventh one thousand nine hundred and five Pamphlet Laws three hundred and twelve or by any subsequent law or laws to be obtained collected compiled and preserved by and in said Central Bureau of Vital Statistics and fixing the salary of the State Registrar of Vital Statistics

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to state to the House that this bill that relates to a branch of the Health Department of the State known as the Vital Statistics Department. The Registrar at the present time draws a salary from two different acts, placing him in the position of holding a dual position. This bill consolidates that and places the Bureau of Vital Statistics under the care of the Registrar, and it will be known as one position. Under the present arrangement the salaries provided in the two different acts and the total amounts to thirty-five hundred dollars. This bill concentrates and centralizes all that work under one department and makes the Registrar the head of that one department and it disposes of the possibility of the contention of his holding a dual office. I hope the House will vote in favor of this measure.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Benson,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed the same without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. Bill No. 2126 (Senate No. 1348), entitled:

An Act authorizing counties within this Commonwealth requiring the water supply for their almshouses hospitals or jails to condemn property and rights inside of their limits for the purpose of obtaining such water supply and outside

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. E. G. M. KUHNS. Mr. Speaker, this is a bill concerning matters of which we in Lehigh have had experience. This gives the power to the County Commissioner to condemn springs for water supplies for county homes. We in Lehigh cleaned out our own spring about one hundred and fifty yards away from the institution, and after that was done prosecution was brought against the County Commissioners for holding up the flow of the spring. Now this is to save time, money and expense throughout the Commonwealth in cases of this kind and I hope the House will vote for the bill.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. REX. Mr. Speaker, I wish to say a few words to the House in regard to this bill. It is an enabling act, a companion bill to Senate Bill No. 13, known as the Clark-Rex Commission Government Bill. It applies to boroughs of 100,000 or over and provides, if they so elect, that they can go into third class cities, and it is entirely optional with them to do so. That is all there is to the bill and I hope the House will vote for it.

Shall the bill pass finally?

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with the information that the House has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 2180 (Senate No. 785), as follows:

An Act providing for the erection of a dam at the outlet of Pymatuning swamp and the establishment of a reservoir to conserve the waters thereof providing for the taking of land and materials necessary thereto vesting certain powers and duties in the Water Supply Commission and making an appropriation.

Whereas By an act approved the fourteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred eleven entitled "An Act providing for a survey of Pymatuning Swamp and an examination into the feasibility of constructing a reservoir therein to conserve the waters draining into said swamp and making an appropriation therefor" the Water Supply Commission was directed to survey Pymatuning Swamp in Crawford county and the lands contiguous or adjacent thereto and to examine into the feasibility of constructing a dam or dams across the outlet or outlets of said swamp whereby the waters entering the same might be conserved and the flow of water regulated in the Shenango and Beaver Rivers and

Whereas In pursuance of said act the Water Supply Commission caused said survey to be made and has presented its report thereon and

Whereas In said report the Water Supply Commission states that the project is a feasible one that a portion of said Pymatuning Swamp can be converted into a storage reservoir by constructing a dam across the valley of the Shenango River that the low water flow in the Shenango River would thereby be increased about two hundred seventy-five million gallons per diem that the reservoir would eliminate any considerable contribution to floods from the territory above the dam that the proposed reservoir would improve the sanitary conditions of the Shenango and Beaver Rivers and of the Swamp that approximately two thousand primary horse power would be added to existing water power in the Beaver River that the construction of the dam and reservoir would cause a benefit along the Shenango and Beaver valleys more than commensurate with the cost of the project that the industrial development would be increased and that the communities in the vicinity of the reservoir would be benefited through improved highways the creation of an attractive lake increased water transportation and better sanitary conditions therefor

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the Water Supply Commission of Pennsylvania is hereby authorized and directed to cause a dam to be constructed across the outlet to Pymatuning Swamp in Crawford county for the purpose of establishing a reservoir and of conserving the water entering said swamp and the purpose of regulating the flow of water in the Shenango and Beaver Rivers The dam shall be constructed and the reservoir established in accordance with plans and specifications which shall be prepared by or under the direction of the Commission and shall be so constructed and established as to conserve said waters in a safe and practical manner and to regulate the flow therefrom so as to maintain throughout the year as regular a flow of water as possible in said rivers

Section 2 In carrying out said plans the Commission may acquire in the name of this Commonwealth by purchase condemnation or otherwise such lands and materials as may be needed in carrying out the provisions of this act

Section 3 In acquiring any of said lands or materials if the Commission cannot agree with the owners thereof or if the owner cannot be found or is not sui juris the Commission may file its petition in the Court of Common Pleas of the county wherein the lands or materials are situated praying for the appointment of viewers to ascertain the fair value of such land or material Thereupon the court shall appoint from among the members of the board of views of the county three viewers who by personal inspection and otherwise of the lands or materials proposed to be acquired shall ascertain and fix the fair value thereof The court shall fix a time not less than ten days nor more than twenty days thereafter for the viewers to meet either upon said lands or otherwise Notice of the time and place of meeting of such viewers shall be given where practicable by personal service upon the owner or by such other service as the court may direct When the viewers shall have completed their labors they shall file their report in writing in the said court If no exceptions shall be filed thereto within thirty days from the filing of the report or if no appeal therefrom be filed within said time demanding a trial by jury the said report shall be confirmed absolutely And final judgment on any appeal from the ward of viewers an appeal may be had to either the supreme court or superior court as the case may require If upon any appeal the award of the viewers is not increased or modified in favor of the appellant the entire cost of the proceedings subsequent to such award shall be paid by the appellant In so far as practicable the Commission may include in one petition proceedings for the condemnation of all land in one county proposed to be acquired

In any proceedings under this section the court may appoint such guardians or committees or trustees as the case may require and may in all cases prescribe the form and manner of service of any notice required in any proceeding under this act

Section 4 When the entire cost of said lands and materials including expenses and the cost of said dam and reservoir shall have been ascertained and fixed as nearly as may be the Commission may take possession of said lands or materials in the name of this Commonwealth after giving sixty days notice thereof by publication in the counties wherein said lands or materials are located No part of said lands or materials shall be taken over by the Commission in the name of the Commonwealth until by agreement with the owner or by proceedings in condemnation as provided for in this act the entire cost of all said lands and materials shall be ascertained and fixed as nearly as may be

Section 5 The Commission may agree with any person partnership association or corporation for the removal relocation elevating lowering or otherwise changing of any railroad railway telegraph line telephone line electric light heat or power line gas line road highway street or bridge or any part thereof If such agreement cannot be made then such removal re-location elevation lowering or changing may be done by the Commission and the damages if any sustained thereby shall be fixed as in said condemnation proceedings

Section 6 No land shall be purchased by the Commission until the titles thereto have been approved by the Attorney General

Section 7 When the said dam is completed and said reservoir established it shall be maintained and operated at the expense of this Commonwealth under the direction of the Water Supply Commission

Section 8 The sum of four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to the Water Supply Commission of Pennsylvania for the purchase of the said lands and otherwise for carrying out the purposes of this act Payment of moneys shall be on order of the chairman of the Commission countersigned by the secretary and accompanied by itemized and verified vouchers and upon warrant of the Auditor General No land shall be acquired under the provisions of this act until there shall be filed with the Commission satisfactory waivers of all damage from owners of lands in the State of Ohio to be submerged or which may possibly be submerged through the operation of said dam and reservoir

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to insert an amendment.

The Speaker. The amendment will be read for information.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Section 8, by adding after the last word of the section the following:

"Provided, however, that no moneys hereby appropriated shall be available until satisfactory proof shall have been filed with the Auditor General, that an amount equal to said appropriation has been contributed and placed at the disposal of the Water Supply Commissioners by persons, partnerships and corporations that will derive benefit from the work hereby authorized."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendment. The Chair hears objection.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House go into Committee of the Whole for the purpose of special amendment.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I want to call the attention of the House to one or two facts in connection with this bill. This is a bill which would make a lake out of some twenty-thousand acres of land in the County which I have the honor of representing. This matter was investigated by the Water Supply Commission pursuant to an act passed by the last session of the legislature and the Water Supply Commission in its report says this:

"The Commission is of the opinion that if the Paymatuning Reservoir is built those interests which are directly benefited should bear their proportion of the expense. There are numerous prosperous cities, boroughs, three counties with large resources, many extensive industrial corporations, public service companies and water users, all of which it is believed would share in the cost of maintaining this projected reservoir, while the State should have supervision of its construction and operation."

Based upon the report of which this is a part, this bill is presented to this legislature and unless you are familiar with this report you do not realize all that is back of this bill. The purpose of this bill is to commit the State of Pennsylvania to a project which will entail an expenditure admitted by the Water Supply Commission to be more than one and a half million dollars and I want to predict to-night it will be nearer three million dollars before it is completed if it is undertaken. So I say that when these people come to this legislature and say we are going to take as a reservoir approximately 20,000 acres of land in the county I represent and that they are in the end going to ask this State for at least a million and a half dollars and as I say it will be more than two millions and probably three million dollars before it is competed, this House should say to the people interested: "If you are going to follow the action of the Commission and follow its recommendations you should comply with all the stipulations incorporated in that recommendation and one of those recommendations is that the people to be benefited should contribute." If the State of Pennsylvania has this amount of money to spend in what is largely a private enterprise, which for all time, from the figures of the Water Supply Commission, will cost approximately $15,000.00 a year for maintenance alone. If we are going to spend in the end more than one million dollars, and probably more than two million dollars on this project, it is only fair for us to say at the inception of the project, the people who are demanding this should show their good faith and show that they are sincere when they say it is a matter of importance to them and should contribute an amount equal at least to what the State is contributing in its initial appropriation, and I say if we are true to the interests of the State and if we undertake to guard its resources and protect its interests it is our duty in following one part of the recommendation of the Water Supply Commission, that we follow all of it and put this amendment into the bill in order that the good faith of the people back of this movement may be tested when it comes to the entering upon the work that is provided for by this act, and I trust that the House will go into Committee of the Whole at this time and incorporate this amendment into this bill.

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Crawford.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Crawford permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman if he is not opposed to the whole proposition to create this lake and build this dam?

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I would be faithless to the people that I have undertaken to represent, if I was not opposed to it; but before it comes to the question of supporting this bill as a bill I owe a duty to the Commonwealth and that duty is performed by the incorporation of this amendment into the bill to carry out the recommendations of the Water Supply Commission.

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I trust that this amendment will not prevail. If the members will turn to the report of the Water Supply Commission on this proposition, page 18, you will find that the estimated expenses of the project are itemized and are less than one million six hundred thousand dollars. I do not hesitate to say that the Gentleman from Crawford has no proper foundation for the statement he has made in the House that this work will cost three million dollars before it is completed. If I were to name to this House at this moment the material thing which is not necessary for the happiness, the well being, the health and the material or industrial prosperity of the Beaver and Shenango Valleys, I would say that it is the conservation proposition embraced in this bill, and I do not hesitate to say that is a proper subject for this State to assume the whole cost of it and to foot the whole bill. But even if it were true, as contended by the gentleman from Crawford, that the people along the Shenango and Beaver Valleys should pay part of the cost of this improvement, I would say that it is proper for the State at this time to appropriate the money named in this bill for the initial work and then if later it is determined that the people effected by the reservoir should pay part of the cost of finishing the work such a provision as that suggested by the gentleman from Crawford could be incorporated in a subsequent bill. I trust that on account of the importance, the vital importance of the work to the people of the Shenango and Beaver Valley and the importance of immediately beginning this work, that this motion will not prevail.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Beaver.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Beaver permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, certainly.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, is it not a fact that the Water Supply Commission in their report recommended that the beneficiaries of this project should contribute and pay their share of the expenses?

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, it is possible that that is in the report somewhere.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, you have the report there.

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I have the report here.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I would suggest that the gentleman refer to page 17 of the report and familiarize himself with the project that he is now defending.

In reply to a remark made by the gentleman from Beaver, it strikes me that if the State is ever going to receive any aid from the beneficiaries of this project it must be now, for after $400,000.00, which is only the initial step, has been expended on this project the State will find itself committed and will have such an investment there that the people who are interested can simply say to the State: "This is your project; you have started it on your own initiative and you cannot ask us now to contribute one dollar to the completion of it;" and if the State is ever going to exact any aid from the people to be benefited by this project it must do it here and now.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, while I quite appreciate the recommendation of the Water Supply Commission which made an investigation here, which on first blush should appear very fair to the members of this House without further explanation, I desire to say just a word as to these people who are located along the route of the Shenango and Beaver Rivers. It is well known that in flood seasons the large plants are put out of commission on account of the excess of water which comes down those streams. In the dry season they are practically at times without a sufficient supply of water or the water is in such condition as that it is next to impossible to use it. The purpose of this dam would be this: To conserve in this basin which would be formed over the large scope of territory which has been suggested by the gentleman from Crawford, to conserve and hold back in flood season, and thereby reduce the height of the flood, a sufficient water which when let out on an easy stage would continuously give a running supply to those mills for a long, long time, in fact, for the season round. Now the condition all along rivers of such character as those, as every member who wills to think and liken it to his locality, is that in the high water season you are out of commission because of too much water and in low water season you are out of commission because there is no water there to run your plant, or the water is in such condition, from acids which have come in above, as that you cannot use it in your boilers. Now further than that, as a result of those conditions along such stream you find a limited number of manufactories, where if there was water held back in the flood season and distributed over the dry season so that those manufactories could be supplied the year around, instead of one spotted here and there along the pools that nature has made, you will find them all along your entire river front. This dam is for this purpose among others. Further than that Mr. Speaker, a short time ago a bill was passed in this session, No. 1065, which provided for a Lake Erie and Ohio River Ship Canal, a ship canal which the members of this House know is intended to give cheaper transportation off the ore from the Great Lake Region to the Ohio River, and the mills along that river and up the Monongahela and Allegheny and up the Beaver River. According to the provisions of that bill, which is one of the big undertakings of this State, the bill now having passed the Senate, and reposing in the hands of His Excellency, the Governor, where it is hoped by those in the Western part of the State that it may receive favorable consideration. The ship canal would be fed, if you please, along the course of that canal by water which had been held in reserve. Another of the primary purposes that would be beneficial to this water way is the Pymatuning Swamp. The canal would probably occupy the present course of the Beaver River from there to the mouth of the river, thereby this dam would become a feeder for that canal, that is one of the things which the Commission is looking to in asking that this dam be built, that it be built as a feeder for the ship canal. If I were to attempt to cover all the points of merit that are in this bill it would take some time. Suffice it to say that this Pyramatuning dam provided for in this bill is the real basic principle upon which that water-way depends, and one of the principal factors upon which all of those manufacturing interests along the Shenango and Beaver rivers from this swamp to the mouth of the Beaver river depend. This when completed means to the western end of the State what the improvement of the docks and rivers mean to Philadelphia. We all know what that means and at no time has the State limited the means which have been set aside for improvement there. This is a new improvement. The whole thing has been laid out, and the groundwork prepared and the Ohio legislature in its last session passed an enabling act allowing this entire work. The legislature of West Virginia two years ago passed enabling acts which would allow them to come in and contribute to this project. All three states are vitally interested in this matter, and upon this dam proposition for the conservation of water rests the whole question and I trust that without further amendments this House will see fit to support the bill. One word more: It would be absolutely unfair to those people who have put up with the hardships of high and low water that when this improvement is presented that they should be compelled to contribute to it. It is unfair to those, Mr. Speaker, whose earnings have been swept away by the floods and who have paid for the losses thrust upon them. Not only that, Mr. Speaker, it will be a revenue, ten-fold, yea, a hundred fold in time, for the reason that new manufacturers will locate right along beside it and will to-day start on a better basis than those who have been there. I trust the House will not allow this amendment to be injected in the bill.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ALLEN. Yes, sir.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire as to whether or not the State of Ohio that has passed this marvelous enabling legislation has furnished any money, or made an appropriation to assist in the work?

Mr. ALLEN. The State of Ohio has not up to this time made an arrangement for the raising of money, but has simply passed one act which allows the ship-canal purposed in the bill which has passed this House, and which was suggested a moment ago to do business in the State of Ohio. I will read the title of that bill:

"An Act to amend section 2503 of the General Code relating to the power of counties to appropriate money or issue bonds to aid in the construction by public authorities and control of canals or waterways suitable for steamships, steamboats, barges or other vessels." The proposition laid down in that bill is exactly the same as proposed to be covered by the Legislature of the State of Pennsylvania and that allowing counties and sections of the State which will be benefited to contribute. All the legislation which has been passed up to this time by the State of Pennsylvania, contemplate assistance from West Virginia and Ohio, both of whom have taken the initiative so far as allowing contributions by those sections benefitted is concerned. Under the bills already passed by the Ohio Legislature and which are already laws providing that counties contribute, and under the provisions of bills which will be passed if not in this session, in some succeeding session, they recognize the foreign corporations or companies which would be a company from the State of Pennsylvania, which would have absolute control of this property. The provisions of all legislation up to this time in this State lead to this end that before a single dollar can be expended all of the contributions necessary to carry out the entire work must be pledged by those communities benefitted. It also provides that such toll as will be collected from the vessels will be used in paying off in turn all of the money which is pledged. The result in due time will be that the State of Pennsylvania owns the property absolutely. And with what expenditure. With such expenditure as it takes to make this conservation of water power and water, and with such expenditure as it will take to do the preliminary work. I trust this amendment will be voted down.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman how many acres of this land taken for this reservoir are in the State of Ohio?

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I don't know, I have not seen the survey.

Mr. HUMES. Isn't it a fact that several thousand acres of land will be in the State of Ohio?

Mr. ALLEN. I don't know. It may run into that.

Mr. HUMES. I would like to inquire what authority over that territory the State of Pennsylvania would have or the land necessary to extend the reservoir into Ohio?

Mr. ALLEN. By an enactment of the Legislature of the State of Ohio, to-wit, the ship canal, a bill enacted and already upon the Statute books.

Mr. HUMES. I would like to inquire if it is not a fact that a considerable area of this reservoir would be under the control of the State of Ohio?

Mr. ALLEN. Not one foot, much less a large area.

Mr. HUMES. I do not like to disagree with the gentleman from Allegheny, but if he will look into this question, he will find that no legislation has been enacted that gives to the State of Pennsylvania control over the portion of the reservoir that in the State of Ohio.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I beg to correct the gentleman's idea. If he means State, I agree with him. But if he means ship canal, I disagree with him for the reason I have already stated. The purpose of the legislation is for the condemnation of such property as may be necessary for the ship canal and for the erection of locks and turn outs and basins for the purpose of conserving water.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared that the nays appeared to have it.

Whereupon, a division was called for, and 29 gentlemen having voted in the affirmative and 101 in the negative,

The motion was not agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE GOVERNOR.

APPROVAL OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1625.

Executive Mansion, Harrisburg, June 19, 1913.
To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:—I have the honor to advise you that I have this day approved and signed House Bill No. 1625, entitled "An Act relating to damages in case of taking of property for use as a public wharf pier or bulkhead."

(Signed,) JOHN K. TENER.

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 556.

Executive Mansion, Harrisburg, June 19, 1913.
To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:—I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 556, entitled:

"An Act providing for the compensation by the proper county of licensed physicians for certain reports and certificates required to be furnished to the State Department of Health and fixing the duties of the respective county treasurers and of the Commissioner of Health"

By this bill it is proposed to pay physician out of the funds of the respective counties for making certain reports now required by law to be made by licensed practitioners of medicine to local health officers, with relation to certain reportable diseases, and with relation to births and deaths.

In my opinion it is not unreasonable to require physicians to furnish, without compensation, these certificates and reports for the protection of the health and lives of the people of the Commonwealth. I therefore withhold my approval from this bill.

(Signed,) JOHN K. TENER.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the communication will lie upon the table. The Chair hears none and it is so ordered.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Speaker, I move that the rules be suspended for the purpose of making a motion to reconsider a bill which was defeated on June 11th.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. ADAMS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which Senate Bill No. 322, file folio of the Senate 827, House Bill 1810, entitled:

An Act to extend the time for commencing and the time for opening and completing of certain railroads and railways in this Commonwealth failed on final passage on June 11, 1913, be reconsidered.

Mr. ARON. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Speaker, when this bill was before this House on June 11th it received sixteen votes, due, I think to a misunderstanding of the bill. Due to the alertness of members of the House who felt that this bill extended the charters of railroads in the western part of the State, the House was prepared to defeat the bill and one hundred and twenty-three votes were registered against it. The bill was introduced for the purpose of extending the charter of the Delaware Tunnel Railroad Company which has projected the building of a tunnel under the Delaware river and the charter to which company was issued November 19th, 1908, so that unless this Legislature extends the time of that company, by the time the next Legislature convenes the charter of the company will have expired. Now, Mr. Speaker, the delay in pushing forward this great work in connecting the State of Pennsylvania with the State of New Jersey by an under river tunnel has been occasioned by the dilatory tactics of Camden's councils who have held up this stupendous enterprise. Mr. Speaker, in view of the fact that the corporations which the House thought it would affect received their charters before 1903 and as this bill is drawn it will affect only those charters issued after 1903, this bill, Mr. Speaker, I do not believe affects any other company than the Delaware River Tunnel Company. I believe that this House, understanding all the facts, would desire the connection of the State of Pennsylvania with the State of New Jersey by an under-river tunnel.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Speaker, in view of this explanation, I would ask the House now that this bill affects no other company than the one mentioned and does not affect those which the gentlemen thought it would, that it receive unanimous support.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. CARSON. Mr. Speaker, I offer the following motion. The SPEAKER. The motion will be read by the Clerk. The motion was read by the Clerk as follows:

Moved by Mr. Carson, seconded by Mr. Latshaw, that the vote by which House Bill No. 2234, (Senate Bill 1822), calendar No. 6, on today's calendar, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Punxsutawney Fair Land Association of Punxsutawney Jefferson county be reconsidered.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, this is an appropriation of $265.05 which was provided for by this act for the payment of premiums in the Agricultural associations. Inadvertantly the secretary of this association failed to file his papers at the proper time, as required by the act of assembly, and the money is tied up and cannot be secured except by this bill. I trust that the members will give this due consideration. Nobody will be particularly benefitted if it does not pass and the money will revert to the treasury.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The Speaker declared the nays appeared to have it.

Whereupon,

A division was called for and 58 gentlemen voting in the affirmative and 51 in the negative, the motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on second reading.

The Speaker declared the nays appeared to have it.

Whereupon,

A division was called for, and 54 gentlemen voting in the affirmative and 51 in the negative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the bill was agreed to on second reading.

On the question

Will the House agree to transcribe the bill for third reading?

It was agreed to.

Mr. CARSON. Mr. Speaker, I move we adjourn.

Mr. LIGHT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question.

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER. There was a concurrent resolution introduced by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Bigger, recalling a bill from the Governor, and it has been sent to the Senate for concurrence. It is important that this should be acted upon tonight.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, is there any reason why we should not adjourn?

The SPEAKER. For the reason I have just given as to the concurrent resolution of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Bigger.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

SENATE.

WEDNESDAY, June 25, 1913.

The Senate met at 10 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor John M. Reynolds) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. A. C. James, offered the following prayer:

"What is man that Thou art mindful of him, or the son of man that Thou visiteth him." "Thou art the Giver of every good and perfect gift." We come to Thee this day sensible of the great debt of gratitude that we owe Thee. May our life this day then be a measure of that gratitude; may the deeds that we do be an expression of our thankfulness; may the words that we speak be an evidence of Thy indwelling spirit; may the very thoughts we think be as a message from Thine own great heart; may Thy kindly Providence lead us through this another day. Help us to listen to the counsel of the Great Counsellor. Lead us into the paths of righteousness. We ask it in our Redeemer's name. Amen.

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. McILHENNY, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

Be it resolved by the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, that we the Senate hereby address His Excellency the Governor of Pennsylvania and request him to remove from the office of County Commissioner of Greene County Pennsylvania, Timothy J. PETITION OF DISTRICT ATTORNEY OF GREENE COUNTY FOR REMOVAL OF CERTAIN OFFICIALS OF GREENE COUNTY.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

The petition of David R. Huss, District Attorney of and for Greene County, respectfully represents:

The Grand Jury inquiring in and for the County of Greene, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, on the seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirteen, reported to the Court of Quarter Sessions of said County a report and presentment which was filed at said time, a copy of which is hereto attached and made a part of this petition.

In said report and presentment the said Grand Jury found:

(1) That Timothy J. Ross, Lisbon Scott and Jesse McNeely are the duly elected Commissioners of said County, and have been acting as such since the first Monday of January, one thousand nine hundred twelve

(2) That by reason of their official position they have, since said first Monday of January been in full charge of the Court House and the Jail belonging to said County;

(3) That on or about February twenty-fifth, one thousand nine hundred thirteen, the said Timothy J. Ross and others unlawfully conspired to have the said Jesse McNeely commit fornication and adultery with a certain woman named Mary Roat, in the basement of the Jail, a public County building in said County under the control of the said County Commissioners;

(4) That the said Timothy J. Ross and Lisbon Scott, with others, did aid and abet in the commission of the said fornication and adultery

(5) That said Timothy J. Ross did aid and abet the said Mary Roat in the commission of the said fornication and adultery in said place and on said date;

(6) The said Grand Jury in its said report and presentment recommend to the said Court of Quarter Sessions that the aforesaid Timothy J. Ross, Lisbon Scott and Jesse McNeely be removed and ousted from office on account of gross incompetency by reason of their aforesaid conduct in permitting and allowing the aforesaid occurrence in the property under their charge, which conduct in brief is against public morality and public decency in public buildings of the County.

Your petition further suggests to your Honorable Body that according to the provisions of section four of article six of the Constitution of this Commonwealth all officers elected by the people, except Governor, Lieutenant Governor, members of the General Assembly and Judges of the courts of record learned in the law, shall be removed by the Governor for reasonable cause, after due notice and full hearing on the address of two-thirds of the Senate.

Your petition, therefore, in the faithful performance of the duties of his office and of the obligation of the oath taken by him, and in accordance with the recommendations of the said Grand Jury as contained in said report and presentment, respectively prays your Honorable Body that you address His Excellency, the Governor of this Commonwealth in accordance with the said section of the Constitution of this Commonwealth, and request him that after due notice to the said accused and after full hearing they be removed from the respective office of County Commissioner which they now hold.

And your petitioner will ever pray.

(N. P. Seal) My commission expires Jan. 31, 1915
In the Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace of Greene County, Pennsylvania.

In re Petition or Suggestion of David R. Huss, District Attorney for Grand Jury inquiry as to alleged bawdy practices and unlawful uses of Court House, &c. No. 10 September Sessions, 1913.

In the Honorable the Judges of the Quarter Sessions of and for Greene County, Pennsylvania:

David R. Huss, district attorney of and for Greene County respectfully represents:

(1) That on June 2, 1913, John H. Syphers, made his return under oath as constable of the South Ward of Waynesburg Borough in said County to the Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, etc., of said County setting out as answer to the twenty-ninth inquiry in said return which reads as follows: "Other violations of law affecting the public welfare not hereinabove specified" the following answer: "I am reliably informed and therefore believe and aver 'there are some violations of law which are matters of public notoriety and adversely affect the public welfare and tend to debauch the public morals and which have not previously been called to the Court's attention or returned, to wit: Within the past four or five months the basement of the Greene County Court house, a Public County building of Greene County, Pa., in charge of the Commonwealth of said County and in my bailwick has been used and allowed to be used by the said Commissioners or some of them as a bawdy place and place for practice of unlawful fornication and adultery with lewd women by certain persons as a place where money has been paid for such purposes and to certain of the parties concerned in order that the said matters and violations of the law be concealed."

2. That it has further been publicly asserted and is and has been common talk upon the streets and in business houses in said Borough of Waynesburg and commonly talked of throughout a great part of the County that the aforesaid matters mentioned in said constable's return as above set out are true and that said matters so returned as aforesaid have been so talked of and publicly asserted for three months or more last past.

3. That T. J. Ross one of the County Commissioners of said County has publicly asserted in the presence of the Burgess of said Borough and a Justice of the Peace and Constable of said Borough that there has been unlawful bawdy practices committed in said Court House within the last three or four months.

4. That the District Attorney of Greene County has no power to summon witnesses before the grand jury or to investigate the said charges by placing witnesses in possession of information in regard to said matters under oath nor has he legal authority to submit the matters to the Grand Jury for their investigation.

5. That the said David R. Huss, District Attorney believes that above matters are of public notoriety and are of such a nature if true, as to evilly effect and influence the whole community and county at large and are flagrant vices and that they tend to debauch and corrupt the morals of the public and to lessen the respect for and faith in the public officers having charge of the public buildings of said County and would be a public evil, and said District Attorney recognizing his inability to satisfactorily and thoroughly investigate the said public matters he deems it his duty to submit this suggestion to the Court in order that the Court if convinced that the matter is of public notoriety and import and evilly affects the public and community at large, may make such order in the premises with reference to submitting the matter to the grand jury as well as any and all other matters connected therewith and arising therefrom as it shall deem best and proper, both under the circumstances and the law.

DAVID R. HUSS,
District Attorney.

Greene County, ss:

David R. Huss being duly sworn says the matters stated in above petition of his own knowledge are true and as stated upon information from others he believes them to be true.

In re report and presentment of Grand Jury pursuant to order of Court dated June 3, 1913, and special instruction of the court delivered to Grand Jury pursuant to said order. No. 10 September Sessions, 1913.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania ss:
County of Greene

To the Honorable James Inghram, President of said Court:

The Grand Inquest of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, now inquiring in and for the body of the County of Greene, upon their oaths and solemn affirmations respectively do present: That in the investigation of the charges of bawdy and lewd practices in the basement of the Court House or jail of the said County and charges or immoral conduct and offenses against public morality and decency, &c., referred to in the petition of the District Attorney of said County and as ordered and directed by this Court on June 3, 1913, and pursuant to the charge and special instructions of your Honor into the aforesaid matters contained in said petition directing this inquiry did fully investigate and inquire of the said matters so set forth in said petition and growing out of and connected with the same due respectively report:

That we began the examination of witnesses Tuesday afternoon and also examined witnesses on Thursday and Friday last, and we called and examined some 25 or 30 witnesses, covering every person who was within the jurisdiction of this Court who had any connection with the aforesaid matters and every person suggested to us by any one who knew or was likely to know anything about the subject or anything connected therewith.

We take occasion here to say that in this investigation we were aided but little if any by outside citizens other than those subpoenaed by the District Attorney.

We do further find, report and present that Timothy J. Ross, Lisbon Scott and Jesse McNeely are the duly elected Commissioners of said County and have been acting as such since the first Monday of January, 1912, and that George White is the duly elected janitor of the Court House and county buildings in the Borough of Waynesburg, said County and has been acting as such for over a year past.

That the aforesaid parties by reason of their official positions have now and have had for some time over a year past have charge of the Court House and jail and all other property belonging to the said County in said Borough. That Charles N. Huffman is the duly elected clerk of and for the said Commissioners and has been acting as such since the first Monday of January 1912. That Charles H. King is the duly elected solicitor of the aforesaid County of and for the County Commissioners and has been acting as such for over a month past. And that Ellsworth Cladden is now and has been for several years past the Night Policeman in and for the Borough of Waynesburg in said County in which Borough are situate the Court House and jail of said County. We do further find that Jesse McNeely has been ignored to a certain extent in the conduct and transaction of some of the important business affairs of the said County by the other members of the Board of Commissioners.

That we do further find report and present that through the solicitations and actions and aid and assistance of said Timothy J. Ross, Lisbon Scott, Charles N. Huffman and George White — the said Charles N. Huffman willfully did solicit, procure and counsel and aid in the said Jesse McNeely to commit adultery with Mary Roach, alias Roat, alias Blood, on the 25th day of February at about 7:30 o'clock P. M. in the basement of the jail, a public County building in the County of Greene, in the presence of the said Timothy J. Ross, Lisbon Scott, Charles N. Huffman, Ellsworth Gladden, George White, Charles H. King and Mary Roach, alias Roat, alias Blood.

Further that the said George White sometime before the aforesaid occurrence took place in said basement procured a blanket from the stable of the said Timothy J. Ross, and placed it in the aforesaid basement and thereupon the said Charles N. Huffman telephoned to the aforesaid Mary Roach, alias Roat, alias Blood, pursuant to which she came to the basement of the said jail and was admitted by the said Huffman who thereupon informed the said McNeely who immediately went with him into the basement to meet said woman. That further that the said Ross, Huffman, King, Scott, White and Gladden had been assembled inside of the basement on some agreement or arrangement for about a half hour prior to the coming of said McNeely.

We do further find, report and present that the said Mary Roach, alias Roat alias Blood was the wife of Abraham Roach alias Roat at the time of the aforesaid occurrence and that he the said Roach, alias Roat, shortly after the aforesaid occurrence in the month of February last and in said county did knowingly accept, receive and appropriate money without consideration, from the proceeds of the earnings of his said wife, a woman then and there engaged in prostitution.

We do further find, report and present that the said Mary Roach in the aforesaid basement on the 25th day of February 1913 did commit the crime of adultery with said Jesse McNeely by then and there having unlawful carnal knowledge of the body of the said Jesse McNeely. He the said McNeely not then and there being the lawful husband of the said Mary Roach. She the said Mary Roach being then and there a married woman and having a lawful husband alive.

We do further find, report and present that said Timothy J. Ross, Charles N. Huffman and George White did unlawfully willfully and maliciously, counsel, aid assist and abet the aforesaid Mary Roach, alias Roat, alias Blood to commit the adultery aforesaid, at the time and place aforesaid, and so assisted before the same was committed.

We do further find, report and present that the said Jesse McNeely on the 25th day of February, 1913, and in said basement did commit the crime of adultery with one Mary Roach, by then and there having unlawful carnal knowledge of the body of her the said Mary Roach. She the said Mary Roach not then and there being the lawful wife of the said McNeely. The said McNeely being then and there a married man and having a lawful wife alive.

We do further find, report and present that the said Timothy J. Ross, Lisbon Scott, Charles N. Huffman, George White did unlawfully, maliciously and willfully counsel, aid and abet the said Jesse McNeely to commit the aforesaid adultery at the time and in the manner and at the place aforesaid and so aided before the same was committed.

We do further find, report and present that Charles N. Huffman and George White and Timothy J. Ross did unlawfully and maliciously conspire, combine and agree together on the 25th day of February 1913 to cause and procure said Jesse McNeely a married man to have unlawful carnal intercourse with said Mary Roach, alias Roat, alias Blood in the aforesaid basement. And also did cause and procure said Mary Roach, a married woman to have unlawful carnal intercourse with said Jesse McNeely at the same time, and in pursuance to the aforesaid unlawful agreement and conspiracy. And the said Huffman and White pursuant to said unlawful agreement caused and procured said Jesse McNeely to commit said crime of adultery which was committed on the 25th day of February, 1913, in the aforesaid basement.

And we do further find that every person who was in the basement of the jail at and during the time of the occurrence aforesaid was there in violation of the law under the circumstances. And that therefore their actions and conduct that night is emphatically condemned and we find that they are grossly incompetent to conduct the affairs of the County and to attend to its business and take care of the county property in their charge.

We do further find that there was no evidence of drunkenness by any parties involved in the above occurrences, but after an inspection was made by us of the basement of the jail where such occurrences happened we find the place is strewn with empty whiskey bottles, &c., and that therefore there must have been drinking by some of the parties concerned that night, or that considerable drinking in said basement has been done since by one or more persons who seem to have public access to this basement.

And we do further find that after the above occurrences two hundred and fifty dollars was paid by said McNeely to said King to be paid to the aforesaid Abraham Roach, alias Roat, or some one for him and that same was left in the office of Chas. W. Waychoff for said Roat. And that said Roat signed a receipt for said money and by said receipt agreed to make no prosecution in the aforesaid matters and that Roat afterwards spent fifty dollars of the said money in paying a lawful bill to a merchant in Waynesburg.

Further that the whereabouts of said Roat and his wife are unknown.

We do therefore recommend to your Honorable Court as follows: That the aforesaid parties, to-wit, Timothy J. Ross, Lisbon Scott and Jesse McNeely be removed and ousted from office on account of gross incompetency by reason of their aforesaid conduct in permitting and allowing the aforesaid occurrences in the property under their charge, which conduct in brief, is against public morality and public decency in public buildings of the County.

Also that George White be removed and ousted from the janitorship for the same reason.

Further that Charles N. Huffman be removed and ousted from office for the same reason, for being a party to the occurrences in the manner aforesaid.

And further we do recommend to the Court that unless the said parties aforesaid recommended to be removed are removed from the offices and positions held by them as aforesaid within thirty days from the presentation of this report that then the said Court instruct and direct the District Attorney to prepare and submit to the grand jury bills of indictment charging the following offenses.

(1) Bill of indictment charging that the said Mary Roat in the aforesaid basement on February 25th, 1913, did commit the crime of adultery with the said James McNeely in the manner and form aforesaid.

(2) Bill of indictment charging that said Timothy J. Ross, Charles H. Huffman and George White did unlawfully, willfully and maliciously counsel, aid and assist and abet the aforesaid Mary Roach to commit adultery with the said McNeely as aforesaid and at the time and place aforesaid and so assisted and abetted before same was committed.

(3) Bill of indictment charging that the said Jesse McNeely on the 25th day of February, 1913, and in the said basement did commit the crime of adultery with said Mary Roach in the manner and form aforesaid.

(4) Bill of indictment charging that the said Timothy J. Ross Lisbon Scott, Charles N. Huffman and George White did unlawfully, maliciously and willfully counsel, aid and abet the said Jesse McNeely to commit the aforesaid adultery at the time and place and in the manner aforesaid, and so aided and abetted before same was committed.

(5) Bill of indictment charging that the said Timothy J. Ross, Charles N. Huffman and George White did willfully, unlawfully and maliciously conspire, combine and agree together on February 25th, 1913, to cause and procure said Jesse McNeely a married man to have unlawful carnal intercourse with the said Mary Roat alias Roach in the aforesaid basement. She the said Mary Roach not then and there being the lawful wife of the said McNeely and he the said McNeely having then and there a lawful wife alive. Also charging that said Ross, Huffman and White did cause and procure the said Mary Roach at the time and place aforesaid to have unlawful carnal intercourse with said Jesse McNeely. And also that pursuant to the aforesaid unlawful agreement and conspiracy the said Huffman and White caused and procured said Jesse McNeely to commit said crime of adultery which said McNeely committed on the February 25th 1913 in said basement in the manner and form as aforesaid.

(6) Bill of indictment charging that the said Abraham Roach, alias Roat some time in the month of February, 1913, and in said County of Greene did unlawfully willfully accept, receive and appropriate certain monies without consideration from the proceeds of the earnings of his wife the said Mary Roach, in the aforesaid matter a woman then and there engaged in prostitution.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote??

Mr. MOORE. Mr. President, I voted "No."

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. President, this is a bill it seems to me which ought to be pretty thoroughly considered by the members of the Senate before making up their minds to oppose it simply because it makes a change in the existing laws. It is not a drastic bill and certainly is a step in the right direction. This bill provides that applicants for marriage licenses shall answer certain questions, which it certainly seems to me in view of the provisions which the State makes for taking care of feeble-minded, imbeciles and defectives, that the State has the right to make inquiry regarding. The bill is not drastic and not unreasonable, and while it may be said that the people who desire to get married and are refused a license in Pennsylvania under the provisions of this law may go into other states, it certainly is a step in the right direction as far as Pennsylvania is concerned, and other states will soon adopt the same principle. It is simply a signal on the part of the State of Pennsylvania that the State intends to make inquiry and to make laws along lines which have long been agitated and soon be realized and I think it is a very important measure and ought to pass.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Providing for the appointment of a joint committee of the Senate and House of Representatives to investigate the manner in which life insurance companies authorized to conduct business within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and issuing infantile and industrial policies upon which the premium is payable either weekly or monthly transact their business within this Commonwealth with full power and authority to administer oaths and compel the attendance of persons and

MOTION TO CONSIDER.

BILL ON THIRD READING POSTPONED FOR THE PRESENT.

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resume the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1262 (House Bill No. 117), on third reading postponed for the present, entitled:

An Act to regulate nominations and elections for certain public offices providing non-partisan nominations and elections for said offices abolishing existing methods of nomination in certain cases and the use of party or political names or appellations at elections with respect to said offices imposing certain duties upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth Auditor General State Treasurer county commissioners county treasurer election officers and clerks and the clerks or secretaries of cities boroughs townships and school districts vesting the courts of common pleas with certain powers duties and jurisdiction providing for the payment by the several counties and their reimbursement by the State of certain expenses incident to such nomination and election and providing penalties for the violation of the provisions hereof and the punishment of certain offenses

Mr. SENSENICH. Mr. President, I second the motion. On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. McNICHOLS. Mr. President, I trust that the consideration of this bill will be postponed for the present, because it is now a subject matter in the committee of conference between the House and the Senate in conjunction with the State wide primary bill, and the amendments for the bill as satisfactory to the Conference Committee have already been constructed and the Conference Committee has just fixed a postponed meeting to take place at sometime between now and four o'clock, and I think at that time there will be something of a definite character to report—either agreement or disagreement. This is one of the essential contentions in the committee and I think if there is an agreement it will carry also with it some of the most important features of this bill.

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, I made this motion with the understanding that the Conference Committee could not agree, and since the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. McNichol, has stated that they will have another meeting at four o'clock I will withdraw my motion.

Mr. SENSENICH. Mr. President, I agree that the motion be withdrawn.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1410 (House No. 800), entitled:

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0.

Two-thirds of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1414 (House No. 1568), entitled:

An Act to provide for an additional law judge of the several courts of Eleventh Judicial District

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McILHENNY. Mr. President, This is a bill to provide for an additional law judge in Luzerne county, and although I am not from Luzerne County, as Senators we are elected to serve the whole State, and if a bill in any part of the State is not a good bill it is our duty to oppose it. There has been too much politics in this particular bill, and as I understand it men in the delegation from Luzerne County are not unanimous in believing that this bill should pass. As I understand the situation in Luzerne County, there are four common pleas judges three of whom are Democrats, and two vote always one way and two the other way, and this bill is designed to give the balance of power to one judge. And as matter of fact he was here last night and yesterday afternoon lobbying for this bill and if there is a thing I am jealous of it is the integrity of our judiciary, and when a judge comes from a county to try to influence legislation here to establish an additional law judge it is time to call a halt on this particular question there is too much politics in this particular question and I hope that this bill will not carry.

Mr. HALL. Mr. President, I think it comes with very poor grace for a man from Philadelphia to oppose a large county like Luzerne county having an additional judge. They have all the judges they want and we passed what they wanted. This judge is actually needed. This is one county in which the judges work all the time. As to the politics I know nothing about it, but this bill ought to pass.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

RECONSIDERATION OF HOUSE BILL NO. 888.

Mr. HOKE. Mr. President, I move that the vote by which Senate Bill No. 980 (House Bill No. 888), entitled:

An Act designating the lilac as the floral emblem or State flower for this Commonwealth in observance of the same was defeated on final passage be reconsidered.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. HOKE. Mr. President, I voted "no."

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, I voted "no."

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McNICHOLS. Mr. President, I confess I have not read this bill but from the title I should judge that the object of the sponsor of the bill would be to fix the emblem of the State of Pennsylvania naming a certain flower. What I now except to is the observance of a date and it strikes me that for the business interests in the business world of the State of Pennsylvania we have pretty nearly enough holidays, and if the object of this bill is to create another holiday and thereby take another business day from work, I am opposed to the bill. I have no serious objection to selecting a certain flower as the emblem of this State. I do seriously object to creating a holiday and observing a holiday in the State of Pennsylvania and judging from this bill that is the object of the measure.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, the bill does not make a holiday. It simply designates the flower as the emblem of the State of Pennsylvania and Mr. McNichols' friend or neighbor introduced this bill in the House, and I think he would be conferring a great favor on his neighbor if he would allow this bill to go through, and I hope the Senators will vote for the bill. I think this is the only bill that our friend has introduced over in the House this year. I would like to have it go through.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE.

Mr. CROW. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. CROW, from the Committee on Corporations, reported, as committed, the following resolution:

In the House of Representatives, June 10 1913.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the General Assembly adjourn sine die on Thursday, June 26, 1913, at twelve o'clock noon.

Mr. CROW. Mr. President, I move that the rules be suspended and that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the resolution.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. McNICHOLS. Mr. President, the adoption of this resolution permits the Legislature to adjourn tomorrow at noon, and if my recollection serves me right I believe there are considerable committees on conference out that have not made reports yet, in which I presume, in company with a great number of this body, I would like to be recorded. I don't know whether those committees have agreed neither do I know whether they have agreed to disagree, and I believe before we agree to this resolution that those committees should indicate their report. I am very much opposed to adopting this resolution at this particular moment. I think later in the day possibly—the Senate is going to recess until evening—that the Senate will be in better position to vote on this resolution. I hope now the resolution will not carry until such a time as the members of the Senate receive reports from some of the committees of conference.

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, we have been here six months waiting on reports of these committees—waiting on this legislation, and I think it is about time to draw the cord. Therefore I am in favor of the resolution.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

Mr. McILHENNY, from the Committee on Judiciary General, re-reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1325 (House Bill No. 969) entitled:

BILL ON THIRD READING POSTPONED FOR THE PRESENT.

Mr. FARLEY. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resume the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1568 (House Bill No. 1349) on third reading postponed for the present, entitled:

An Act to regulate the temperature of milk and cream intended to be shipped sold or offered for sale

Mr. HEACOCK. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1568 (House Bill No. 1349) entitled:

An Act to regulate the temperature of milk and cream intended to be shipped sold or offered for sale

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. HEACOCK. Mr. President, Before the vote on this bill is taken I feel as though there ought to be an explanation made about it. The bill is in the interest of the farmers. At present the milk is shipped to Philadelphia on the train, and if it rises there above the temperature of sixty it is dumped in a sewer. The farmers can readily cool their milk to sixty and deliver it to the carrier, and it is up to the carrier to keep it at this temperature. It is placing the responsibility on the carrier and not on the farmer.

Mr. NULTY. Mr. President, Two members in the House said in reference to this bill that last summer in the outlying districts of Delaware County and Bucks County they had taken the temperature of two hundred and forty-five springs. There seems to be a misunderstanding in regard to this bill as to the farmers and carriers of milk. To-day in the city of Philadelphia, if the milk is over sixty, the milk is dumped and destroyed. Now where the hardship will come on the carrier to-day if the temperature is reduced to fifty-five, after taking these temperatures the men after cooling the milk in the springs or their pumps, in which their tests have been taken, they can carry it for four hours the hottest day in summer and the milk is at sixty. But I find the milk dealers and the farmers throughout the district that I represent are afraid that the Board of Health will do what they are trying to do at the present time and have this milk reduced to fifty-five, and if they are compelled to reduce it to fifty-five you can see that the hardship will rest on the carrier. At the present time they propose to reduce it not only to fifty-five, but they claim they are going to try to put it to fifty, so that there is not a farmer within fifteen or eighteen miles of the City of Philadelphia who could land his milk in Philadelphia at that temperature. That seems to be the understanding here and it is a misunderstanding. That is as far as I understand the bill. Probably seventy-five milk men in the town which I came from called upon me and even called me on the telephone, and they want this bill for their protection, not only for themselves but for the farmers, and I hope the Senators will realize that it is just as much a benefit to the carriers. If they reduce the temperature to fifty-five it would be much harder on the carrier to get it to the city.

Mr. HEACOCK. Mr. President, I ought to have said that the carriers of milk, the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad and the Pennsylvania Railroad both carry their milk in refrigerator cars, so it is no hardship for the carriers to carry the milk.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, There are two sides of this question.

We must take into consideration not only the farmers but the carriers. I represent a strong milk district, and I certainly look after the interests of the farmers as well as I possibly can, but as far as the transportation of milk by the railroads is concerned, that is a very easy matter, because the railroads are equipped with refrigerator cars, wherein they can carry the milk at the temperature at which we have specified, but take into consideration the traction companies and transit companies of the State who are to-day carrying thousands and thousands and hundreds of thousands of pounds of milk every day, and these companies, the traction companies, are not prepared, are not equipped like the railroad companies are to carry milk. I hold in my hand a letter from the President of one of the largest traction systems in the State of Pennsylvania, and he tells me that they carry a great deal of milk now on short hauls, hauls of possibly twenty thirty or forty miles, on their lines and they have no refrigerator cars but he said that if any legislation of this kind is passed that will impose upon them the burden of paying for the milk which exceeds sixty degrees when it arrives at its destination, then they will simply abandon the carrying of milk, that it will not pay, as it does not pay them now, and they would not go to the expense of equipping their system of transportation with refrigerator cars; and if that is the case, if the transit and traction companies of this State will take off their cars or will abandon the carrying of milk, where will the farmers be then? He will be in a condition where it is impossible to get his milk on the market so we must seriously consider this matter before passing legislation of this kind. As far as the railroad companies are concerned, it is a very easy matter but is a very difficult matter for traction companies of this State to carry milk if a law of this kind is enacted.

Mr. NULTY. Mr. President, In answer to the Senator from Lehigh, that is just what we are trying to get. If the city of Philadelphia would compel their milk to come in at fifty-five they would probably go out in the other municipalities in the State and say "Look what Philadelphia is doing, they bring their milk in at fifty-five. You must comply with that law in this locality." We are not changing the present system at this time and it is sixty degrees now. The bill does not change it, it is only to prevent these authorities from compelling the milk to come in at fifty-five where we have it now at sixty. And then in these springs where they have taken the temperature, about two hundred and forty-five springs throughout the district which is around Philadelphia, they cool their milk in the springs or at their pumps, and consequently we are not finding any fault with the carrying companies, but is to the benefit of the trolley companies who are carrying it to-day and who do not have these refrigerator cars to help them. This bill helps them. It does not change the temperature of the milk.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Nulty.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Nulty, allow himself to be interrogated?

Mr. NULTY. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, if this bill becomes a law will not this shift the burden on the transportation companies?

Mr. NULTY. Mr. President, it is on the transportation companies now.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, It is not.

Mr. NULTY. Mr. President, it is on the transportation companies.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I do not so understand it. The Senator from Philadelphia says that thousands and thousands of quarts of milk go on the dump in Philadelphia. If the burden is on the transportation companies to-day, why don't they fall back on the transportation companies.

Mr. NULTY. Mr. President, we are not changing the temperature of the milk. Is it right to have twenty-six thousand quarts of milk dumped into the sewers.

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, we have heard the remarks that have just been made about springs and pumps. I would like to know what they have to do with milk. We have had considerable legislative proposed this session that would in my opinion necessitate on the part of the farmer the keeping of a chemical laboratory in the cellar. And now it is proposed that he have a refrigerator and a thermometer, in order that the milk taken from the cows may be cooled to sixty degrees and kept there until it gets into the hands or the possession of the consumer. If this bill were a bill limiting or fixing an obligation on the carriers, known as common carriers of milk, it would be all right for that. I am not even willing to go that far. But there is a great deal of milk delivered that is not put upon the car of a trolley company or the cars of a steam railroad. There are a great many farmers who deliver their milk themselves to their customers. Now this bill may have been intended to have been drawn so that its operations would be confined to the trolley companies or the steam railroads, but unfortunately it is not. I think it would be well for us to know what the bill contains. It is brief and with the permission of the Senate I will read a few lines:

"That all milk intended to be used as human food or drink in its fluid state and to be shipped sold or offered for sale which has been cooled to a temperature of sixty degrees Fahrenheit within one hour after being drawn from the cow and not allowed to again rise above that temperature before delivery to consumer." In the last part of the bill there is a limitation, however, that limits the responsibility on the producer or shipper when he has delivered it to the carrier or dealer, but suppose he does not deliver to the carrier or dealer, but delivers direct to the consumer. I know there is an act already upon the statute books, and I think that is sufficient to meet the demands of those who believe that milk should be cooled to a certain degree before it is consumed, but as I look at this bill it is unnecessary and inflicts a hardship upon the producer when he is obliged to deliver it to their customer direct.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—17.

The Chair cleared his table and laid before the Senate communication from the House of Representatives, informing the Senate that the House insists on its non-concurrence in the amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 1408, entitled:

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate insists upon its amendments to the foregoing bill non-concurred in by the House of Representatives and that a committee of conference be appointed to confer with a similar committee of the House (if the House shall appoint such committee) to consider the differences existing between the two houses in relation to said bill.

MOTION TO CONSIDER BILL ON THIRD READING POSTPONED FOR THE PRESENT.

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resume consideration of Senate Bill No. 1262 (House Bill No. 117), on third reading postponed for the present, entitled:

An Act to regulate nominations and elections for certain public offices providing for non-partisan nominations and elections for said offices abolishing methods of nomination in certain cases and the use of party or political names or appellations at elections with respect to said offices imposing certain duties upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth Auditor General State Treasurer county commissioners county treasurer election officers and clerks and the clerks or secretaries of cities boroughs townships and school districts providing for the payment by the several counties and their reimbursement by the State of certain expenses incident to such nominations and elections and providing penalties for the violation of the provisions hereof and the punishment of certain offenses

Mr. NULTY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, I desire to state that the conference committee appointed to consider the differences existing between the House and the Senate is to meet at 9.45 o'clock this evening. The Senate committee has been waiting from 1.45 this afternoon for a message from the House committee to attend the meeting. We sent them notice about twenty minutes ago fixing the hour of 9.45. That is only about an hour off and I think that if the Senator will permit this to go over say until 10.30 and fix it as a special order at that time, that the committee will have something to report either of a substantial character or asking to be discharged from consideration of that bill.

Mr. JARRETT. Mr. President, I withdraw the motion I have made and I make the further motion to make this bill a special order for 10.30 this evening.

Mr. MILLS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

MOTION TO CONSIDER BILL ON THIRD READING.

Mr. CROW. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1896 (House Bill No. 1588), being a special order of business for 8.30 this evening.

Mr. KLINE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. CROW. Mr. President, inasmuch as the subject matter of this bill is the same as that contained in a bill now under consideration in conference committee, and at the request of some of the members of the Senate who have not had an opportunity to read the bill, I would ask if there are no objections that the bill go over until 10.45.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL RECOMMENDED.

Mr. KURTZ. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1919 (House Bill No. 1553), entitled:

An Act to protect the lives of persons employed in or about mines factories or other places and buildings in which stationery engines and boilers are installed by requiring every such boiler to be equipped with an automatic feed water regulator making it the duty of the Chief Factory Inspector to see that this act is enforced and providing a penalty for violation thereof be recommended to the Committee on Judiciary Special.

Mr. CROW. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL NO. 1414 (HOUSE BILL NO. 1568).

Mr. CROW. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 1414 (House Bill No. 1568), entitled:

An Act to provide for an additional law judge of the several courts of the eleventh judicial district was defeated on final passage.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. CROW. Mr. President, I voted "no."

Mr. KURTZ. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. KURTZ. Mr. President, I voted "no."

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring.

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McILHENNY. Mr. President, I had a few words to say on this bill this morning and I can only add since that time that at the vote this morning the other Senator from Luzerne voted "no" on this bill, and if the court is congested in Luzerne County it would be better for the Judge to stay there than to come here and lobby for this bill.

And the question recurring.

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—29.

Alexander,	DeWitt,	Huffman,	Morgan,
Beldeman,	Endsley,	Hunter,	Salus,
Buckman,	Farley,	Jones,	Sheatz,
Clark,	Gerberich,	Kurtz,	Snyder,

NAYS—13.

Catlin,	Hoke,	Magee,	Moore,
Gyger,	Jarrett,	McIlhenney,	Nulty,
Heacock,	Judson,	Miller,	Sensenich,
Hilton,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

Mr. CROW. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess until 9.45 o'clock.

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That the time of final adjournment of the General Assembly be extended to Friday, June 27, 1913.

On the question,

Will the Senate concur in the same?

Mr. CROW. Mr. President, I think a word of explanation is possibly in order at this time. It has been discovered that on account of the tie up in the printing office it was absolutely out of the question for the Legislature to adjourn at 12 o'clock tomorrow. The Speaker has refused to consent to the turning back of the clock and if the time is kept as is fixed at the present time it will involve the defeat of certain very important legislation. The resolution coming from the House came over with full knowledge and information of the facts.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate concur in the resolution?

A division was called for.

Whereupon, twenty-four Senators voted in the affirmative and seven in the negative.

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

The House met at 12.00 o'clock noon.

The SPEAKER (George E. Alter) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. J. E. Wright, offered the following prayer:

O God, as we come toward the close of this legislative session, we recall with profound gratitude Thy love and guardianship, Thy kindly protection and care. We have come and gone through these successive weeks, we have slept and awakened, we have worked and rested. We have enjoyed success, we have looked in the face of disappointment and failure and in it all, and through it all, we have had the loving ministrations of the Father in Heaven. Thou hast not forgotten us for an instant and we humbly and reverently bow before Thee and give to Thee our thanks. May the work which we have done and which has been worthy and good have a permanent place in Thy purpose, and may it be honored and used and made abundantly helpful. May that which has been mistaken and foolish be graciously forgiven and wisely overruled and may it also in some unknown way have a place in the scheme of Thy Providence. And as Thou has kept us hitherto, wilt Thou keep us to the end. May nothing be said or done in these closing days of this session which shall fail to approve itself to the Lord who loves us and who evermore uses us And Thy name shall have the praise of it forever. Amen.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the proceedings of the Journal of yesterday.

The Clerk proceeded to read the proceedings of the Journal of yesterday, when, on motion of Mr. Burnett, the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal approved.

Mr. HOBBS. Mr. Speaker, would the consideration of the resolution introduced by me on Monday night be in order at this time?

The SPEAKER. The resolution of the gentleman from Lackawanna does not seem to have been printed.

Mr. HOBBS. Perhaps it will not be printed.

The SPEAKER. It should have been printed immediately.

Mr. HOBBS. Mr. Speaker, under the circumstances, could we act upon that by unanimous consent?

The SPEAKER. Certainly.

Mr. HOBBS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that we act upon that resolution of Monday night.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent that the resolution introduced by the gentleman from Lackawanna on Monday evening of this week, be considered at this time? The Chair hears objections.

Unfortunately the House is very much at the mercy of the printer in this as in all matters.

Mr. BERGEY. Mr. Speaker, the resolution introduced by me on Monday night has not been printed and I think sufficient time has elapsed to have that resolution placed upon the Calendar.

The SPEAKER. What is the number of the resolution?

Mr. BERGEY. Mr. Speaker, it is not upon the Calendar.

The SPEAKER. What was the subject of the resolution?

Mr. BERGEY. The position of the House regarding legislation now pending.

I want to serve notice now that I will call it up at the next resolution time.

BILL STRICKEN FROM CALENDAR.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of the bill is absolutely killed by the amendments and I move that it be stricken from the Calendar.

Mr. KITTS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. ALLEN. The reason I make this motion at this time is that it will simply prevent the printer from taking up the time to print this bill. The purpose of the bill was to make a distinction between races in public places, but as that word has been cut out the bill is useless for the purpose intended. The printer might push this ahead of other bills that should be printed.

Mr. SPEISER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Allegheny has evidently overlooked the fact that the word "creed" is still in the bill.

Mr. ALLEN. So far as creed is concerned, there is no distinction made in this country.

Mr. SPEISER. Mr. Speaker, I might say in reply to that that there is a distinction made in public places and in newspapers and periodicals. It is to prohibit these scandalous publications that this bill was introduced. The gentleman from Allegheny asked to have the word "race" stricken out and we agreed on that. We felt by leaving the word "creed" in the bill that it would cover the purposes. I hope the House will vote the motion down.

Mr. NEELY. Mr. Speaker, I offered these amendments at the request of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Speiser. I am not at all satisfied with the bill in its present form even with the amendments, and I would be far better satisfied if it should be stricken from the Calendar.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the Chair to be in doubt.

Whereupon,

A division was called for, and 67 gentlemen voting in the affirmative and 42 in the negative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the bill dropped from the Calendar.

NAYS—1.

Hemminger,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed the same without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 2200 (Senate No. 1279), entitled:

A supplement to an act entitled "An Act creating the Water Supply Commission of Pennsylvania defining its duties fixing the scope of its authority and powers and making an appropriation for the payment of the salaries and expenses connected therewith" approved the fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred five and providing penalties for violations of this act

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass?

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, if the member of the House having charge of this bill is present, I would like to know what the purpose of the bill is, and what it pretends to accomplish.

BILL POSTPONED.

The SPEAKER. I think Mr. Ehrhardt has charge of this bill and he is not present. If there is no objection, the bill will pass its order for the present.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 2064 (Senate No. 1345), entitled:

A supplement to an act entitled "An Act to amend section one of an act entitled 'An Act relating to the descent and distribution of the estates of intestates' passed and approved April eighth one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three defining and declaring the interest that shall descend to and vest in the surviving husband or wife of such intestate" approved April first Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and nine

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass?

Mr. HERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the sponsor of this bill in the House explain it.

Mr. HEIDINGER. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of this bill is simply to permit the widow of a decedent who would be entitled under the Act of 1909 to five thousand dollar bond to take the homestead, if it should be worth more than five thousand dollars, by paying the excess over the five thousand dollars in cash. She is not entitled to do that at present. This bill will simply permit that and that is the purpose of the bill.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed the same without amendment.

Mr. PIPER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up House Bill No. 2197 (Senate Bill No. 1462), file folio 4155, on page 12 of to-day's Calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 2197 (Senate No. 1462), entitled:

An Act requiring each car of street passenger railway companies to be equipped with a jack or similar device and providing a penalty

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. WILDMAN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend as follows:

In the title of the act after the word "requiring," strike out "each car of" and after the word "railway," strike out the word "companies" and insert in lieu thereof the word "cars"

In section 1 line 4 strike out "each" and in line 4 strike out "car operated by a" and in line 4 after the word "railway" strike out the word "company" and insert in lieu thereof the words "cars operated." In line 7 after the word "ground" insert the following: "Provided that where the headway of cars is less than ten minutes on any line, or there are a number of lines operating in the same territory, the State Railroad Commission, or any body that may succeed it, shall prescribe how many of the cars operated on said lines shall be so equipped."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to insert the amendments as read? Is there any objection?

The Chair hears objection and consent is not granted.

Mr. WILDMAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House go into the committee of the whole for the purpose of special amendment.

Mr. DICKINSON. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read the second time for the information of the House.

The amendment was again read by the Clerk.

On the question,

Will the House agree to go into committee of the whole for the purpose of special amendment?

It was not agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass?

Mr. WILDMAN. The amendments to this bill, No. 1462, are suggested for the following reasons. As it is now drawn it provides that all cars operated by street passenger railway companies must be equipped with jacks or similar device—

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. PIPER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. PIPER. Mr. Speaker, he is now speaking on the amendments which have just been defeated and therefore his remarks are not germane to the subject.

The SPEAKER. The Chair presumes that the gentleman is pointing out the defects in the bill because these amendments were not put in. Anything that applies to the expediency of passing the bill is proper discussion.

Mr. WILDMAN (Continuing). This means that each car of subway trains operated under or street railway franchise must carry a jack. All trailers must carry jacks. There is no question as to the necessity for jacks to be carried but we believe that where there is less than eight or ten minutes' headway, the proposition could safely be left with the Railroad Commission. If the responsibility is placed on them, they would certainly make themselves safe by providing that a sufficient number of cars should be so equipped. As a matter of fact, as it now stands, the Commission has authority to order the roads to equip their cars as public safety may require and there would be no question on the part of street railways as to the propriety of the order. The Railroad Commission has never been requested to act in relation to the equipment of cars with jacks and it does seem when a body has been created by this Legislature with power to do certain things, that is certainly the channel through which the things should be done, unless it can be shown that they ignore properly drawn complaints.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I only want to say one word in relation to this bill. I believe the purpose for which it was drawn was good, but the bill is in bad shape to reach the ends without inflicting a very serious hardship upon the railway companies. As was suggested by the gentleman from Dauphin, there is no question but that under the provisions of this bill even if the train consists of three, four or five cars, that each car should be equipped with a jack. Further than that, under the provisions of the bill every car that was in service would be required to have a jack on that car even if standing in the barn. Now that sounds absurd, and in the reading of the bill it covers that point exactly in that way,—“Operated by street passenger railway companies.” Now, Mr. Speaker, it makes no difference whether the car be out on the street running or whether it be in the barn for repairs or whether it be standing out back of the barn for use now and then, under all reports that are required from street railway companies through those cities which they pay taxes, boroughs through which they pass, or State reports which they are compelled to make, all have to specify the number of cars in operation, which is not the daily number of cars running on the line, but the number of cars which they have capable of being operated and which it operates to-day or to-morrow or on emergency occasions. So that under this bill, even for a car on a street railway which was operated now and again and left in the barn for some crew and then taken out and run and there was no jack on it, the company would be liable to the fine for the crew not having taken a jack on the car. I think the bill was intended for a good purpose and that was that no car operated and in use should be without a jack or at least the leading car, the motor car or front car, however it might be defined; but leaving it open as it does, it certainly does impose a hardship which certainly should not be imposed, and I shall vote against the bill according to my views in that respect.

Mr. PIPER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ALLEN. Certainly, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. PIPER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Allegheny if it is not true that Pittsburgh at this present time carries a jack on their cars?

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, they are supposed to. A great majority of the cars are equipped with jacks, being so equipped with jacks, that is the motor cars, understand—where trailer cars are used they don't carry them on both cars but in the great majority of cases they do carry jacks. If they don't have them on the cars it is because the crew has neglected to put them on when they took the car out of the barn.

Mr. PIPER. Mr. Speaker, I rise in defense of the bill, not because I feel that the company should be first taken into consideration, but because I believe that public life should be protected. There is no reason why we should hesitate to pass an act that is going to protect public life, rather than take into consideration the best interests and hardship that that act would inflict on the company. I believe that one life in the State of Pennsylvania, if it can be saved through precaution on the part of the State forcing companies to prepare and take care of accidents, is far better than the hardship that it might impose on any company. I would probably feel that if an amendment had been offered where it would specify that a jack is only to be carried on one car, a leading car, where a trailer was behind, it might have been somewhat different here in this House to-day, but the amendment as it was offered did not in its entirety specify that particular thing. The amendment in one case had reference to striking out the word "company." We all know that if any blame is to be placed on any one operating any particular business it must be placed on the employer or the company. We cannot place it on the car. Someone must be responsible and to strike out the word "company" and insert the word "car" does not seem very feasible to my mind. I feel that if the amendment had gone in it would only have destroyed the purpose of the bill.

Insofar as the Railway Commission of the State is concerned, I believe that the passage of this bill will place in the hands of your Railway Commission more power than they have had before, because it will be an act of the Legislature and they will be in a position to support the act. I ask that the members will support this bill in the interest of the human beings of the State.

Mr. WILDMAN. Mr. Speaker, it appears to me that this bill is superfluous in its entirety. This body has created the State Railroad Commission. The State Railroad Commission is presumed to look after the interests and safety of all the people. If complaints are made to this body that cars should be provided with the safety appliances—in which I am in hearty accord—I believe and I am firmly convinced that the State Railway Commission will take up this matter immediately and enforce the rule that all cars, where there is an absolute necessity, will be furnished with jacks and I believe that the State Railroad Commission is the proper place to enforce it and not by a special act of Legislature. We have already created this body and if we rob this body of its powers, what is the use of paying them their salaries to sit in the office?

Mr. PIPER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Dauphin.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WILDMAN. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. PIPER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Dauphin how long has the State Railroad Commission of this State been in power in this State.

Mr. WILDMAN. Mr. Speaker, Several years, I think.

Mr. WILDMAN. Mr. Speaker, several years, I think. late day you would speak in their behalf when they have had several years to try to enforce laws and rules on companies through the State that they would now come at this late day?

Mr. WILDMAN. Mr. Speaker, as I understand it, the request for the jacks has never been made to the State Railroad Commission up to the present time, and I believe it is the duty of those who feel that the street cars ought to be supplied with jacks, to make the request of the Commission.

Mr. PIPER. Mr. Speaker, I would further like to interrogate the gentleman. I would like to ask whether or not the amendments that he offered here to-day were amendments offered by the Railway Commission or by the company operating cars in Dauphin County?

Mr. WILDMAN. The amendment was offered at the request of some of the street car companies.

Mr. PIPER. At the request of the street car companies?

Mr. WILDMAN. Yes.

Mr. PIPER. Do you know whether the Commission has any objection to this bill as it now stands?

Mr. WILDMAN. I don't know.

Mr. PIPER. Isn't it a fact that if this bill should pass in its present form that you will give the commission more power than they have had under any other act?

Mr. WILDMAN. Mr. Speaker, I believe that the street railway commission already has the power. I would be in hearty accord with the measure if it were not so drastic.

Mr. PIPER. Do you think the Railway Commission has had the power and not exercised it.

Mr. WILDMAN. That is because there have been no requests.

Mr. J. J. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, I want to say just a word on this bill by way of reply to the gentleman from Allegheny. In his remarks about the cars standing in the barn being compelled under this bill to have jacks on them. These cars in the barns are used during the rush hours when the stores and factories and so on are quitting work and I think they should be equipped with jacks. The company has no hesitancy in changing the registers from one car to another and I think it would be better to change the jacks and save the lives of people than to change the registers.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Mr. EHRHARDT. Mr. Speaker, this is a bill originating in the Water Supply Commission. It is for the purpose of permitting engineers and inspectors to go upon the dams, to go upon private streams and waterways for the purpose of getting such information as may be required for the purpose of preventing the recurrence of such disastrous catastrophes as that at Austin.

SENATE MESSAGE.

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented the following extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, June 24, 1913.

Resolved (If the House of Representatives concur) that House Bill No. 718, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Bloomsburg Hospital (formerly Joseph Ratti Hospital) located at Bloomsburg, Pennsylvania be returned to the Senate for the purpose of amendment.

The SPEAKER. The question is will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

The resolution was concurred in.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 2062 (Senate No. 1313), entitled:

An Act amending an act approved April twenty-ninth Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four entitled "An Act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations" as amended by an act approved May nine Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine entitled "An Act supplementary to an act approved April twenty-ninth one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four entitled 'An Act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations' amending the eleventh section thereof as far as the same applies to companies incorporated to supply the public with water giving and granting authority to the said companies incorporated for the supply of water to the public to issue capital stock to an amount not exceeding two million dollars" so as to allow the issuance of the shares of stock of any corporation other than preferred stock without any nominal or par value and fixing the bonus payable upon such stock

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, for some strange reason, there are two bills on exactly the same subject that have come before the House. On page eight of yesterday's calendar you will find an act of the same nature that was passed. "An Act providing for the formation and regulation of stock corporations having shares without nominal or par value and authorizing such corporations to issue shares, without par value upon re-organization merger or consolidation." You will find at the end of the present act that it is in the nature of an act of 1874. In other words, the two acts are for the same purpose. In my humble opinion, it would be absurd to pass this act as the act already passed is far better and I, therefore, think that this act should not be passed.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was not agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 2214 (Senate No. 1794), entitled:

An Act providing for the appointment of a commission to survey and ascertain the location of the route taken by George Washington and General Edward Braddock in their campaigns against the French in the years one thousand seven hundred fifty-three and one thousand seven hundred fifty-four and make a report thereon to the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in writing for publication authorizing the erection of certain tablets and making an appropriation for the payment of necessary assistance and expenses incurred in the field and office work of the same

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That in order to suitably mark and preserve to posterity the most historic road in America and the beginning of English history west of the Allegheny Mountains the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is hereby authorized to appoint a commission of five persons whose duty it shall be to trace out and survey that portion of the route lying within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

taken by George Washington and General Edward Braddock in their campaigns against the French in the years one thousand seven hundred fifty-three and one thousand seven hundred fifty-four from Fort Cumberland to the place of defeat at Braddock's field now Braddock Pennsylvania

Section 2 The said commission appointed under the provisions of this act shall file a report with the Governor of this State on or before the thirtieth day of December one thousand nine hundred fourteen together with such maps illustrations and other documents as may be appropriate to a proper elucidation of the subject The said commission shall note all places of historical incident and erect such suitable tablets as will preserve the spot for future reference They shall also include in their report a list of appropriate places where in their judgment suitable monuments or markers may be erected along the lines of said roads to commemorate and help preserve the location of special incidents for historical purposes The said commission shall have the free and unrestricted right to enter upon and travel through private properties without hindrance or molestation by the owners lessees or agents of the same for the purposes of examining and surveying the lines of said road as directed by this act Provided however That nothing herein shall give them the right to injure or to take any private property without the consent of the owner or owners thereof and without reasonable compensation therefor

Section 3 The said commission shall serve without pay except for traveling and other necessary expenses incurred while engaged in the field work and in the preparation of their report for transmittal to the Governor and they are hereby authorized to employ such clerical and other assistance as may be necessary both in office and field work at the expense of the State to be paid for out of the State Treasury on warrants of the Auditor General drawn on itemized vouchers duly certified by the chairman and secretary of the said commission The Secretary of Internal Affairs is hereby directed to furnish the said commission with such certified copies of drafts of surveys and other records now on file in the Department of Internal Affairs and lend such assistance with their corps of surveyors free of cost as the said commission may need in their survey and examination of the ground in preparing the necessary maps and in the preparation of their report under the provisions of this act

Section 4 These reports shall be the property of the State and shall be filed with the records in the State Library

Section 5 The sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary not more than two thousand dollars ($2,000) of which shall be used for the erection of tablets is hereby specifically appropriated for the purpose of carrying this act into effect

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed the same without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 2025 (Senate No. 883), entitled:

An Act to provide for the personal registration of electors and their enrollment as members of political parties in cities of the first and second classes of this Commonwealth to make such registration a condition of the right to vote in such cities and their said enrollment as members of a political party a condition of the right to vote at primaries in said cities and providing for the payment of witnesses fees for persons summoned before the commissioners to provide penalties for violations of its provisions and to repeal acts inconsistent herewith

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to insert amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read for information.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sections 15, page 19, by striking out lines 83 to line 89 inclusive.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent? The Chair hears objections.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House go into Committee of the Whole for the purpose of amendment.

Mr. HEIDINGER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, the importance of amending this bill will be apparent from reading the lines on page 19 of bill No. 883. There it provides for the bringing of witnesses before the Registration Commission for the purpose of either adding to or taking off names from the list. The provision is as follows:

"All witnesses summoned to appear before the Registration Commissioners shall be entitled to receive one dollar and fifty cents each per day as witness fees."

Then it proceeds, "payable by the person who serves the summons on said witness. The said witness fee must be paid to the person so summoned at the time of the service of the summons and if the person is obliged to appear before the registration commission on more than one day the said person so summoned must be paid the sum of one dollar and fifty cents per day before the day or days on which he is summoned to appear."

Now the amendment, if should prevail will read as follows:

"All witnesses summoned to appear before the Registration Commission shall be entitled to receive one dollar and fifty cents each per day as witness fee."

Or, in other words, that places these witnesses in the same position as other witnesses are now under the law. There is no question about the fixing of the amount of witness fee and that has heretofore brought about a great deal of trouble, particularly in one case in the district which is represented by Mr. Perry, where a great many were brought down improperly and no fees could be paid them. Now the law as here in this bill protects them by saying those witnesses are entitled to one dollar and a half, the same as witnesses summoned to appear in civil or criminal suits. Now, I take it that this bill as provided here goes beyond that. It does not alone protect the witness, but it protects that witness undoubtedly who is a fraud upon the assessors' list. If you will be compelled to make payment of the witness before he is summoned it will prevent citizens that see after frauds in the registration list, from bringing witnesses down before the Registration Board for the purpose of getting this put in proper condition. Now I take it, gentlemen, that going into committee of the whole is the only means of having these amendments properly entered in the bill. To object to this amendment that is now offered, as the gentleman who is opposed to unanimous consent, I take it would put this House in a most peculiar position. There is no one can say that that provision that is now written into that bill as it now is written in, is for any other purpose than for the purpose of preventing absolutely carrying out the purposes of the court of justice. No man can be expected to come down before the Registration Board and bring down twenty or thirty witnesses, for the purpose of showing that there has been a large number of fraudulent names placed upon the registration list in his division if he has to pay out of his own pocket the one dollar and fifty cents for each one of those witnesses. But the law, as I offer the amendment, will be that those witnesses will be entitled to their money and they can recover their money from the county the same, as any witness who goes before a criminal court to testify as to the commission of crime and therefore I hope the House will sustain the motion to go into the Committee of the Whole for the purpose of having these amendments inserted.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to inquire how the county would have to be responsible for the witnesses subpoenaed and how they would be bound to pay the one dollar and a half to each witness?

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, by the same inherent right that applies to all courts of justice. There is no provision in the law other than the fixing of the amount of fee that the witness is entitled to, which is the same as the witness who is brought before the criminal court, and the only way the county is responsible is because the county is responsible for the carrying out of the justness of her laws and from that theory which arises from the common law, the witness could compel payment of witness fees. But as a further answer to the gentleman from Philadelphia, I will say that if the provision is put in here, as it is now, the county will not be responsible, but the citizens who want to deprive the list of fraudulent names will be responsible and the result will be that it will be a deterrent for the honest man who wants to clean up the registration list.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Philadelphia, I wish to state my position on the matter so that the House may act intelligently upon it. The amendments which were offered mean this: That the witnesses coming to the registration board would not get a penny. It is only proper that the men without means should have the dollar and a half for their services and they are not going to sue a police officer or a server of subpoenas without means. The various organizations in the city of Philadelphia who are striving for a purification of the ballot laws should be made to pay that dollar and a half to the poor man or woman who appears before the commission. I have seen a thousand people before that board and I dare say fifteen per cent. of them could not afford to lose their day's work. I have seen the attorney of the Committee of Seventy shooing them away when they made a demand for their day's wages. That is not proper nor fair. This amendment is simply to give to the witnesses the legal rate as in criminal or civil cases. The county would not be obliged to pay anything because in a criminal case where a number of witnesses are subpoenaed they are subpoenaed by the District Attorney, a county officer, and the county must pay for the witnesses. In this case there is no criminal action. The only reason that I say at this time that this amendment should not prevail is this: That I have seen a thousand people who were subpoenaed at their homes by a paper casually left at their home because that some person next door was challenged as to his right to register, and I have seen those witnesses, clamoring for their dollar and a half to which they were entitled. In cases where the right to register is challenged, the burden of proof is upon the man challenged to show that he has a right to stay on the registry list. If he perjures himself before the commissioner, then prosecute him. The reason why our election laws have been prostituted is because of the carelessness of those who should see that the election laws are enforced. In justice to the poor man, this amendment should not prevail. That is my position in regard to this matter, but it is for the House in its wisdom to decide.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Roney.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RONEY. Yes, sir.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Prior to the act of 1906, known as the personal registration law, what was the number of votes cast at the election in your ward?

Mr. RONEY. I don't recall the number, but I remember always reading in the paper the next day with regret that my ward did not turn out as many votes as the Fourteenth, of which the gentleman from Philadelphia was the leader.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. After the personal registration law went into effect, what fraction of vote in your ward compared to that prior to the enactment of the law was cast?

Mr. RONEY. I am sure at this time I cannot say. I know that my old ward, the Third ward, was still in the rear of the fourteenth in regard to the registration.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. I desire to ask the gentleman that of these thousand witnesses that he speaks of were before the registration commission, of that list how many were from the Third ward?

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to say that of the cases contested in the Third ward fully fifty per cent. of the contests were dropped and the witnesses subpoenaed there were shooed away without their witness fees.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, the position taken by the gentleman from Philadelphia, standing as he does here as a member of the Republican delegation from Philadelphia, is not logical. What he says in reference to his ward and in reference to the ward that I now represent in this body he says truly. The Third ward and the Fourteenth ward did go up together and did go down together. We went up under the old system and down under the personal registration law. The enforcement of this law just now offered, this bill as it stands, is for the purpose of allowing the Third and Fourteenth wards to go up again, and the amendment that I have offered is for the purpose of keeping them down to what I contend to be the proper basis for any political party to be down to, that is down to the honest voters. Now, when he says about these witnesses that appeared before the registration board, I agree with him that a great number appeared before the registration commission, but when you come to take into consideration that the presence of those voters before the commission has reduced fraud in the city of Philadelphia to almost a minimum, and when you appreciate that young man who came out of obscurity in 1905 and took charge of the legal work of the Committee of Seventy and stood there as a prosecuting attorney to fight down frauds in the elections and stood for defeat after defeat and laughter after laughter and insult after insult until finally he forced his convictions on through the magistrate's office, on through the district attorney's office and defied a great political machine, he drove his shaft home and drove his convictions home and when you appreciate the fact that that man still stands fighting, you will appreciate the fact that this bill is drawn just for the one purpose of tying the hands of this young attorney on the Committee Thomas Reyburn White, from standing before the registration committee and striking fraudulent name after name from the registry list, then you will appreciate what this amendment is. Why should there be any difference so far as the witnesses that comes before the registration board, any difference from the witness who goes before the criminal courts and testifies to a crime. Why should there be any difference between the men who are compelled to come before the registration board and testify to fraudulent names contrary to the witness who must come before the civil courts and testify to an accident that befell his neighbor. They have no privilege, they cannot refuse to come unless the money is placed in their hands. They must come before the civil courts and they must come before the criminal courts, and how many cases, as the gentleman from Philadelphia knows, where he has summoned witnesses into court, as I have done and as every other lawyer has done to testify to the defense of some prisoner, when there was not the possibility of getting a penny, but they were compelled to come by the strength of the law. Mr. Speaker, if the law in its strength gives us the power to protect the liberty of one individual, why should we be deprived by the law of the right to protect the sanctity of the election laws. There is no force nor no logic in what the gentleman from Philadelphia says. But knowing as I do his great integrity, and admiring as I do his clean thoughts, and knowing as I do his clean mind, I do not believe that he has analyzed more then the surface of the provisions of this bill. If you members will turn to page 22, you will find that this is carried on in lines 6 and 7, as follows:

"Unless his witness fees as provided by this act shall be paid to him in advance

You will find it is carried still further by this law that seems to protect the law.

Now, Mr. Speaker, what does that mean? Just as plain as though it was written in letters of red, it means that the padded lists ought to be protected. Now, I say that that is bad. Not only from the standpoint of a sense of justice but it is bad from the standpoint of a political organization. I stand here, as the gentleman from Philadelphia says, representing a ward in the City of Philadelphia. I from the City of Philadelphia, stand in my party council as the representative of a ward organization in their city committee and I am held responsible for the ward and I as a leader of that organization say that I don't want such a law to help me in my fight. I find that when I have to use legislation to give me political strength, when I must use subterfuge, when I must use unfair means for legislation, I drive self-respecting and free-thinking men from my support and that means that the same thing applies to the whole Republican party; and the great trouble with the leaders in our party is to-day that they don't appreciate that by slipping a small joker like this in a bill which will give them a few thousand votes in the big cities, it drives from them the support of men who want to be Republicans: who are honest; who look on their party with pride and who want to go along with their party but they are driven away with the nonsensical force of narrow and foolish selfishness of the political leaders of that party. Don't let us, Mr. Speaker, and members of this body, sanction such a course as this bill is offering by a refusal to go into committee of the whole. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I call on this motion for the yeas and nays.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. Speaker, I have listened with considerable interest to my friend from Philadelphia, who has just concluded and I have been anxiously awaiting for him to mention the name of the man who has selected him as the megaphone, through which to speak to this House. But he has not presented that name. The gentleman from Philadelphia would have the gentlemen of this House put under the impression to believe that this is a bill to protect those men who would falsely register, when he knows that a man who falsely registers is subject to prosecution for false registration and perjury. The intent of this bill is to protect the interest of the poorer people of the communities from which they come who are harrassed year after year by being summoned into court to answer the summons of a body who has no standing as to the collection of the fees for witnesses services. We have seen in Philadelphia County election after election and the court rooms jammed with people who were called upon to answer the charge of being falsely registered. We have seen women brought who were summoned from the washtub and men who were compelled to stay away from their work and lose their day's money because they would have to come to the court room. To my personal knowledge, I know that men have lost their pay for those days to come into court and when they asked for witness fees, they could not get them. If you are interested in bringing a prosecution give him protection before you secure the services of a man to appear and he asks you for his one dollar and fifty cents compensation for the labor. I say by that law you would be able to have him secure it. That is no unreasonable demand made by the law and you should consider the service sufficient to pay him the $1.50. This is for the purpose of compelling these men who at election after election have subpoenaed men and women to come into court and when they asked for witness fees, were laughed at and the women we have seen leaving court rooms shedding tears. They may have been called there from three to four days in succession and when they got through there would be no witness fees for them and this is something that we wish to remedy. The provision is a fixed purpose and fixes the responsibility of the man or the party who would summon witnesses into a court room so that the witness may be paid for his service which is rendered and I ask you to vote down this amendment.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, the amendment I have offered does not include the collection of the witness fees. The provision left in the bill is the same as the law is now in every case. All witnesses summoned to appear before the registration board shall be in the same position in regard to witness fees.

Mr. O'NEILL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. John R. K. Scott.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. O'NEILL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know if when so many people were summoned to appear in court whether any of them were paid?

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I am not in a position to answer for all of them. I know those that were subpoenaed in cases in which I was interested, myself, were not paid. To proceed, I say the provision that is now offered on which we are satisfied to stand on this bill did not insist that there was to be in the bill a provision that the witness should receive a witness fee. The provision is left out here. Now, to remain in the bill places this witness in exactly the same position as though the witness was subpoenaed to come before a criminal court and is especially more analogous if he is subpoenaed to come before a civil court. Witnesses have been summoned to appear before a court as a witness; he looks to the complainant for the witness fee, and if the complainant is not financially responsible the witness gets no money. Would we write into law that no witness would be compelled to appear before the civil court in any damage suit until $1.50 be agreed to be paid to the witness? Would there not be a cry that this was for the purpose of protecting corporations from damage suits? We say the witness shall be entitled to $1.50 a day and we say that $1.50 a day shall be paid by the persons who summon the witness and when it is not done the subpoena has no force. You cannot compel the recognition of the subpoena. I say it is bad to do that. This calls on the witness and is what the law contemplates. The old common law provided and has been interpreted that the witness may demand his fees. But here the attempt is to write it into the act of Assembly and preventing the bringing of a witness before the registration board. I think that the remarks of my friend from Philadelphia, Mr. McNichol, do not answer our argument. It does not answer our position. I don't find either myself or the other gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Roney, are correct, who say that the witnesses who appear from lodging houses were called from the central wards, from the great City of Philadelphia, that go to testify in many cases, as many as forty to one hundred and forty, possibly, and decide that they are not fraudulent. I take that our position is logical and that we should go into the committee of the whole and I ask for the yeas and nays.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. Speaker, so far as I am concerned, without any reflection on the gentleman who has just spoken, I will state that I come from a district that within its confines has no lodging house. There is no floating population. I do know that there were a number of witnesses summoned in these cases referred to—some one hundred and fifty names of the city, to be stricken from the list and the entire number with the exception of six, were abandoned. We know and my friend from Philadelphia knows, that in a contested election case, there is a bond given for the purpose of insuring the payment of witness fees. My friend is apprehensive that there is a joker in this bill for the purpose of protecting the organization. My friend's voice is raised against this bill and in protest of an organization that he has been so long connected with and that has favored him beyond measure. He comes before this House and would have you believe that he is a convert to a new condition and is ferreting out a condition that would open the eyes of the Commonwealth. He knows that the purpose of his remarks are aimed at on the floor of this House to-day is not to give us light or to discover a condition that would work a hardship, but that he may play to some new power that he has seen arising. I submit for the consideration of this House that personally, I believe there is not a man on the floor of this House who has a greater respect for the gentleman from Philadelphia than myself. But I want to say to you gentlemen when he comes to a time of throwing away his old friends, I believe that he is making a mistake. I hope that you will not be carried away by any argument that he presents. This is a rightful bill that is here presented and we hope to carry it merely to protect the people from persecution.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I have listened with a great deal of attention to all that has been said pro and con in relation to this bill, which seems to seek and find and affect first class cities only. By the provisions of the bill, it is clearly evident that it does not affect more than first class cities, in that it does affect second class cities as they are also included in the direct purpose of the bill. I have not the honor of coming either from a first class city or a second class city but I come from the rural districts, away from the turmoil and strife of political organizations where unfair means are used for the purpose of accomplishing election results. However, it appears to me that this bill is a bill that affects every member of this House and for this reason it effects his party. There is not a party on the floor of this House but has a resting place in first or second class cities. The good of a party is easily forgotten and is not usually called into the limelight. But the things it does are the things which affect its history and its future.

And finally, Mr. Speaker, at the very last moment, there might be some organization purposes sought by this bill. I believe that to be absolutely true and I shall briefly state why. In the first place, I believe that no member of this House has had any one come to them who has been imposed on to the extent of having given up his time without pay for the purpose of purifying the elections. I do not believe that any member of the House has had a complaint from anyone who has served in that respect. I take it, Mr. Speaker, that in a matter of this kind every one, as has been stated here, can be brought before the proper authorities for the purpose of striking off names under due legal process just as in civil and criminal processes, as has been suggested. Have you heard—of course you have—of people who complained of having served in civil cases without pay? Have you heard of people who served in criminal cases without pay? Certainly. In election cases, people serve without pay where names are attempted to be stricken off, who have complained. Doubtless there have been complaints. What is the real fact?? I might be subpoenaed, Mr. Speaker, I might be subpoenaed to strike off but one name, but if on the evidence which I should give before the proper authority a name has been stricken off, who is benefited? Not the one who is examined; not the one who called the attention to the fact that the name ought to be stricken off, but your party, whether it be Republican, Washington, Democratic, Prohibition, or what-not. Your party has been benefited and the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania have been benefited for the reason that it is at least one more step toward purification. It is a duty, Mr. Speaker, that every member owes to his State. It is just the same duty that the man owes when he is drawn on a jury, to go and serve the people. Does the fact that the man goes and serves on a jury mean that he will serve without compensation. He goes and serves on the grand jury, for why? Because by his service he is doing his requirement as a citizen of the Commonwealth in protecting the interests of the Commonwealth the same as in appearing before a board for the purpose of striking off names, for the purpose of purification. In murder cases, a man may be called and the case may be dragged along two, three, four or five days or longer. And you subpoena your witness and there is no provision in this law whereby the court has to pay. Suppose a man refused to go and to serve in a case where a man's life or liberty is in jeopardy. But suppose he should in a case of this kind, it is not such a question as that. No, it is a question whether or not you consider your duty as a citizen of the Commonwealth of sufficient interest as that you should go there for the purpose of giving such evidence as you know to purify the law. Mr. Speaker, it does not affect only Philadelphia. It does not affect only first and second class cities. It affects every member of this House. It affects every one of the constituents whom you and I have the honor to represent. We have said, and our people have said, that they are for the purification of the ballot. It affects not only you, but it affects the entire Commonwealth. It affects the whole political party; it affects your neighbors; it affects everyone in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Do you seek to do your duty as a citizen. Do you bring complaint wherein you know there is absolute fraud? You must go down in your own clothes and do that which you would not be compelled to do in any civil proceeding which you would not be compelled to do to protect your interests in a criminal proceeding; you must go down in your clothes and guarantee the payment of the witness. I hope this House will take a sensible view of this matter and go into the committee of the whole and eliminate this obnoxious stuff from this bill.

Mr. J. J. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, this will take away the independence of everyone. Those poor wash-women and those witnesses subpoenaed to come before registration boards would receive no compensation unless the person giving the information would go down in his own pocket and see that they were paid. I hope the House will go into the committee of the whole and accept the amendments.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to say there is no analogy between a criminal proceeding and a complaint lodged with the registration commissioners. I desire further to state that if I believed there was any dishonest politics in this bill I would not support it, because I feel that in parties, as in individuals, when dishonesty creeps in it should be eliminated. Mr. Speaker, I consider myself in the main a party organization man, but I am only a party organization man in the sense that I reconcile the principles of my party with my own conscientious notions of what is right and just. And, Mr. Speaker, this amendment, I have read beyond the surface. I do not apologize for being ignorant of what this thing means. I think it is only a fair provision in the interest of the people who are called from their homes and their work and who should be given compensation for their lost time. Now, Mr. Speaker, I see the joker in this bill; I see the joker in the amendment proposed by the gentleman from Philadelphia which says witnesses subpoenaed shall be paid $1.50 per day. By whom are they to be paid? By the nondescript process server who serves the subpoena and who has not a five-cent piece? You are familiar with those who went around Philadelphia serving subpoenas, in my ward, in your wards and in other parts of the city. You can provide in this law for the payment of witness fees. But, Mr. Speaker, do you upvide that the person who presents this complaint shall pay the witnesses? If that were done, then you can be satisfied that the complaints would all be made in good faith. I desire, further, Mr. Speaker, to call the attention of the House to the fact that the great, efficient police department of Philadelphia do this work for nothing. There is no police officer in Philadelphia who does not know every resident along his beat, and in every election in the last two campaigns the police of Philadelphia made a personal house to house canvass. What does that mean? It means that where you have a valid objection against a man you call the officer and call the man himself. The burden under the election law is on him to prove his right to register. But what happens in the City of Philadelphia? The citizens are casually and carelessly subpoenaed to come up and testify and if the registration proves to be false the name is stricken from the list. The witness is not paid, and the poor person who comes there in obedience to the subpoena goes away without pay. Now, I desire to say in conclusion, and I apologize to the House for taking up this much time in answer to the gentleman from Allegheny I have personally had twenty complaints from people who were brought to court and paid no money and told to go home the minute they showed their faces inside the registration commission's room. Mr. Speaker, I would not stand here for a minute and plead for anything that is dishonest. It is carelessly drawn and does not meet with my approval. Those notions which I have about honest politics I always had and always will have, and when I cannot go home with a clean political conscience as well as a clean personal conscience, then I want to be done with politics. I stand responsible for anything I have said, but what I have said is in the interest of pure registration. This is an opposition directed against a measure which is supposed to be supported by a number of representative organization men, and I want to say that the attorney for the Registration Commissioner, Thomas Reyburn White, who receives a salary for being attorney, never objected to me about this bill. And if there is anything fraudulent in it, why did not he as the official spokesman for the registration commission, register his objections before this House. This opposition to-day only comes from a desire to make it appear that the Republican party stands for this joker.

Mr. BERGEY. Mr. Speaker, the unseen hand of a decaying political machine is clearly distinct in this bill. In the first place, the bill was too unclean for a member of the machine, in whose interest it was drawn, to handle. They gave it to a member of the Senate, who is a Democrat, to handle and on the face of that the Democratic organization of the City of Philadelphia is opposed to this measure and the Democratic organization of the State of Pennsylvania is opposed to this measure, and I contend that a bill which is too unclean for a decaying political machine to handle is too unclean for this House to adopt.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, one thought is suggested in reference to bringing the witnesses in, that you could subpoena the man whose name is on the list to have him assert his right to vote. The question of subpoenaing the man is not of so much importance. It is seldom that we have cause to strike off names of people who exist. It is the striking off of names of men who do not exist, where you cannot subpoena the men. That is the great evil that exists in the big cities.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Certainly, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman know that when a person whose name is objected to refuses to appear, the Registration Board strikes his name from the list.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, no; I know just to the contrary. The burden is upon the contestant and no name will be stricken from the list without having affirmative evidence before the Registration Board.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to say in answer to the gentleman from Philadelphia, and I personally was in the Registration Commissioners' room many, many times and saw it done hundreds of times, that when a person, against whom complaint is raised as to his right to register, does not appear, the burden being on him to prove his right to vote, his name is stricken from the list.

On the question recurring,

Will the House go into committee of the whole for the purpose of inserting the amendment proposed by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. John R. K. Scott?

Mr. WALNUT. Mr. Speaker, I also propose to offer an amendment to this bill in one particular and I would therefore move as a substitute for the motion to go into the committee of the whole for the purpose of special amendment, a motion to go into committee of the whole for the purpose of general amendment.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, in making my motion to go into committee of the whole I did not specify special amendment, as I have another amendment myself to offer.

The SPEAKER. The Chair assumed it was for special amendment.

The question is,

Will the House go into committee of the whole for the purpose of general amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT and Mr. S. B. SCOTT, and were as follows:

So the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion agreed to.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Tioga, Mr. Rockwell, take the Chair as Chairman of the committee of the whole?

Mr. ROCKWELL in the Chair.

Mr. ROCKWELL. The Committee of the Whole House having under consideration Senate Bill No. 883 for the purpose of amendment, the Clerk will read the amendment.

The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

Amend section 16, page by 19, by striking out lines 83 to 89 inclusive.

On the question.

Will the Committee agree to the amendment?

The CHAIRMAN declared the Chair to be in doubt, Whereupon,

A division was called for, 90 voting in the affirmative and 67 in the negative,

And the question was determined in the affirmative and the amendment was agreed to.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Chairman, I desire to offer an amendment.

The CHAIRMAN. The Clerk will read the amendment.

The amendment was read as follows:

Amend section 18, line 6, page 22, by striking out from the word "unless" down to and including the word "advance" in line 7.

On the question.

Will the Committee agree to the amendment?

The CHAIRMAN declared the Chair in doubt.

Whereupon,

A division was called for, 91 voting in the affirmative and 67 in the negative,

And the question was declared in the affirmative and the amendment was agreed to.

Mr. McCLINTOCK. Mr. Chairman, I desire to offer an amendment.

The CHAIRMAN. The Clerk will read the amendment.

The amendment was read as follows:

Amend section 5, line 10, page 3, by striking out the word "general."

On the question.

Will the Committee agree to the amendment?

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Chairman, before we go to a vote I should like to know what this amendment means.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Chairman, I rise to a point of order.

The CHAIRMAN. The gentleman will state his point.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Chairman, my point of order is that all talk or debate is out of order and that there is nothing in order but the disposition of the question at issue.

The CHAIRMAN. The point of order is well taken.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Chairman, I rise to a question of information.

The CHAIRMAN. The gentlemen will state his question.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Chairman, I rise to a point of order.

The CHAIRMAN. The gentleman will state his point.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Chairman, my point of order is that a question of information is out of order.

The CHAIRMAN. The point of order is not well taken.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Chairman, I desire to ask the sponsor of this amendment whether or not it is the purpose of this amendment to change back from the general election to the preceding election as the basis upon which registrars are to be selected, because the amendment will simply undo what this bill has tried to do. Last session we had a question raised upon this bill—

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Chairman, I rise to a point of order.

The CHAIRMAN. The gentleman will state his point.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Chairman, my point of order is that the gentleman is debating the question.

The CHAIRMAN. The point of order would appear to be well taken.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Chairman, I ask for unanimous consent to discuss this amendment.

Mr. ARTHUR. Mr. Chairman, I object.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair hears objection.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Chairman, inasmuch as many of the members have voted—

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Chairman, I object.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Chairman, I ask that the question be again put to the committee in order that they may know upon what they are voting.

The CHAIRMAN. There is nothing in order but the taking of the vote.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Chairman, I rise to a point of order.

The CHAIRMAN. There is nothing before this House but the announcing of the vote; 95 gentlemen having voted in the affirmative and 88 in the negative,

The amendment is agreed to.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Chairman, I challenge the vote as announced from the Chair on the grounds that to my knowledge there were gentlemen who voted both yea and nay.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair has no further responsibility in relation to this bill, as it has been announced.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Chairman, I call attention to the fact that the gentleman from Cumberland (which was afterwards corrected to the gentleman from Franklin) will announce to the Chair that he voted both ways and the gentleman cannot be recorded as voting both ways. To my knowledge there were more gentlemen who did the same thing. There were more gentlemen who voted than there are members on the floor of this House at this time. I insist upon my position. Further than that, if there be any merit, if there be any fairness on either side, either the proponents or the opponents of this measure, they want fairness and nothing more.

Mr. SEMMENS. Mr. Chairman, in case some gentlemen did vote both ways, it will not make any difference in the result of the vote.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Chairman, yes, sir, it would.

Mr. BURNETT. Mr. Chairman, it was stated by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Allen, that the gentleman from Cumberland had voted on both sides. I desire to state that we have voted consistently on one side. We voted no.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Chairman, I want to correct that. I ought to have said the gentleman from Franklin.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I rise for information. I would like to inquire as to whether or not the challenge made by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Allen, has been disposed of?

The CHAIRMAN. There was no record kept of the vote and there is no means of knowing how the gentleman voted.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Chairman, I suggest that the Chair announce in relation to the amendment offered by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McClintock, that the question be reconsidered.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair would announce that that motion will be in order after some other business has been transacted.

Mr. WALNUT. Mr. Chairman, I desire to offer an amendment.

The CHAIRMAN. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk then read the amendment as follows:

Amend section 7, line 51, inserting after the word "primaries" the following: "If such a statement shall be by law required as preliminary to the right to vote at such primary or primaries."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. WALNUT. Mr. Chairman, I offer that amendment in view of the fact that the bill has not yet been before the House and it is certainly not yet approved by the Governor and in view of the fact that I think that amendment simply aims to make it provisional.

The amendment was agreed to.

Mr. HEIDINGER. Mr. Chairman, I move that the vote by which the amendment offered by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McClintock, was defeated, be reconsidered.

Mr. LANIUS. Mr. Chairman, I second the motion of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Heidinger, that the vote be reconsidered.

Mr. MCCLINTOCK. Mr. Chairman, before voting on the reconsideration of this vote, I desire to explain why I offered this amendment. Under the present law the electors are appointed for four years. This bill, without my amendment, makes the preceding general election in which there is a regular change, according to the vote, every two years.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, this amendment will accomplish an improper result. The law as it is now in the bill with the word "general" in it, was put in by the Elections Committee for this reason: That at the present time, the parties at the last election when their positions on the various election precincts are now entitled at this coming contest to the registrar, and upon this are entitled not only for the present election but in the future elections basing our selection of registrars on the general election. This amendment is now presented for the purpose of depriving them of that position to which they are entitled, and there is no political party that can gain anything upon legislative enactment or anything in the standing of the community on such a proposition. We stood here and forced through a registration bill against the protest of the communities and against the better judgment of many of us who stood here and put the bill upon the statute books in 1911 and what was the result? Did we get any benefit from any such legislation? No, instead of that we were not only condemned by the self-respecting members of the Republican party but we were rightly condemned by the self-respecting party men who told us that putting the bill through, under such legislation, didn't help in party work. This amendment now is just taking exactly the same position that we took the last time. The same proposition is embodied here as in the bill that we put through in 1911 session. Now, we stand upon the situation with the nerve to say as to a party, we will meet this proposition and we don't ask that any amendment shall strike out the word "general." This amendment that has been offered by the gentleman from Philadelphia, representing as he does, a portion of the Republican party from that city, I hope, Mr. Chairman, that this motion to reconsider the vote will prevail, so that after its approval we will vote on this amendment offered by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McClintock. It is surprising with what quickness, with what great force, those friends of mine who stood side by side with me two years ago and forced on the statute books the law I speak about, how quickly they have grabbed on to the new recruit and have taken to their bosom the gentleman from West Philadelphia with his little amendment, who is not familiar with its purport, but they know full well what it means.

Mr. MCCLINTOCK. Mr. Chairman, if the gentleman from Philadelphia was sincere in his remarks, he certainly must have met with a great reformation since he advocated the registration law of 1911. At that time he advocated a bill and put it on the statute books that wiped out every division in Philadelphia that existed there previous to 1911. Now, it is a fact that we have some divisions in Philadelphia held by the Washington party and we could hold those divisions for four years under the present law, but I do not believe that the present existing law was ever fair and I condemned it and worked against it in the party platform. I said it was unfair and I say so today. I am not defending anything for political expediency. I am only advocating what I believe is fair and I believe the majority party in every division should have the naming of the registrars after every election. I believe that is fair to the citizens and to all concerned.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Chairman, what the gentleman says is to a very great extent true, that at the last session we put through a bill that took from the Keystone party their registrars and turned them over to the dominant parties, the Democratic Party and the Republican Party. And we did it because we thought it was a practical thing to do. Now, what was the result? We had three registrars left and the Keystone fellow we threw out. Instead of being a quiet, inoffensive young man, he became very active on the outside, and we found that instead of helping our party we had an army of active fellows in every division working against us. This amendment is to take from the Washington party registrar the place that he has earned by the last election and turn it over to the Keystone party. Now, what has become of the Keystone party down in Philadelphia? We don't find the Keystone people in the different divisions going around cross at the Republicans, nor do we find them passing them by on the street without seeing them. They seem to be extremely friendly and we find this condition to exist all the way up to the leaders. We find that the Keystone leaders are not quite so bitter now as they were then. For instance, I remember two years ago a couple of the Keystone men were up here and they got so obstreperous that the Speaker had to have one of them ejected from the floor of the House. The Keystone party would not be heard from were it not for the fact that on this floor representing the labor element is one of the strongest members who ever came to this House and who still calls himself a Keystoner, though as a matter of fact he is stronger in his advocating of the workmen of his community. And my friend from Philadelphia comes here, not as a Keystoner, but as he said, when he gave me his endorsement down in Philadelphia when I was a candidate for the high office of Speaker of this House, that he was an independent Republican. Now, as an independent Republican he has offered an amendment here, an amendment which will come back to haunt him. He speaks about my conduct on this floor two years ago. He speaks about my reformation. I will say to him, Mr. Speaker, that the law we put on the statute books, or helped to put on the statute books, taught me a great lesson. If you want political power, if you want political strength, you will not get it by any kind of legislative trickery. And when you go up to the crib and meet your leader and you ask him for the advancement that you feel your force and your work has earned for you, you are not going to get what you expected from those same leaders. And my young friend who comes here from Philadelphia, honest and forceful as he is, clean minded and pure hearted as he is, lovely in his home life, a most companionable young man, honest in his religion, he is today only being used and will find if he should be successful what is in store for him. When we move to reconsider his mistake, as we will, and when we defeat his amendment as we will, I hope, we are going to save him from himself. Why, Mr. Chairman, when he finds the gentlemen from the Philadelphia delegation surrounding him and protecting him from harm, he must remember that he is but a lamb and there are a few wolves around about, and he ought to take care of his hide. He won't be taken care of by those who are around him. Those we are going to leave, and we are going to press through.

Mr. PIPER. Mr. Chairman, for the second time during this session of the Legislature, I have had boquets thrown at me. I stand on the floor of this House today as I did two years ago, a member of a mongrel party. I was accused two years ago of being a mongrel on the floor of this House. Today I have the honor of receiving great appreciation from the man who called me a mongrel. I feel that while he might be a different man, he might also be a different man two years hence. Why all these changes? Two years ago there was expressed by some of the best men that stood on the floor of this House and that tried to pass such legislation as he is advocating here, that it was going to be a mistake. The result has been a mistake. I do not know whether or not I will be advocating the interests of the Keystone party next election or whether I will be compelled to come out in the back of another movement that is going to give to the people of this State what rightfully belongs to them. Is it not true that at the ending days of this session some of the best legislation that could be drawn up, some of the best measures that could be presented in the interests of the people are being passed to one side? It will become necessary, probably, for a number of us to stand behind a movement that is going to give to the people of this State what they demand, even though it may be under another party name. And if that is the case, then I stand here solidly with my friend from West Philadelphia. I do not believe that he is making any mistake in his amendment. I believe the amendment is fair, and as some of the political parties believe that to the victors belong the spoils, so representation on a board of registration should come to the men who are with the majority in their division. I only hope that the members of this House will not sustain the motion to reconsider the vote by which this amendment was passed, but that they will stand loyally by their action in the first place.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Chairman, I think the gentleman from Philadelphia has argued himself out of court. He argues that last session he made a mistake. He does not hesitate to say he made a mistake in insuring the Republican party to hold on to the registrars. If it was wrong last session to defeat the will of the majority in the various divisions of the city of Philadelphia, how, under any process of reasoning, does it become right now? Mr. Speaker, the amendment proposed by the gentleman from Philadelphia is eminently fair. Mr. Speaker, the thought expressed by the gentleman from Philadelphia is one worthy of attention. Suppose the workingmen of this State should rise in indignation at the treatment received at the hands of one branch of this Legislature and organize a workmen's rights party. Suppose in Philadelphia they should carry a majority of a division. Would they not be entitled to their representation on the board of registrars by reason of being in a majority party. Mr. Speaker, right is right and wrong is wrong and no argument and no reasoning, not all the work of the angels in Heaven could change it a single bit. If it was wrong last session it is wrong now.

But if to state the proposition in its cold naked truth that is an attempt to hold the advantage gained last session beyond the next election, and up until the next succeeding election, then vote against this amendment; but if the will of the majority is to prevail, if they were cheated at the last session, if my friend is repentant and contrite about the course he took last session, he cannot defend his position today. This amendment, as a matter of right, as a matter of fairness to the majority, should prevail.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, the position that is taken by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Roney, is absolutely wrong and illogical and a moment's reflection will see that even what he advocates cannot be met by this amendment. He says if the working people throughout the State should arise in their indignation of the treatment that they have received at this session of the legislature and they sought to rebuke the powers that were taking from them their means of doing that so far as the registrar is concerned—now let us see if we are. Next Fall's election will not be affected a particle by this amendment, whether it is general or preceding, because the parties of the next election. November election, which is a municipal election, will get their registrars based upon the vote of the last election, which was the presidential and the election that sent us here to this legislature, so this amendment affects nothing so far as the next election is concerned. Let us see now about the next election when the workingmen is to come up and rebuke the parties. Say in Philadelphia where there is not likely to be any great independent fight, where there are no local issues such as last election, there will be a great many divisions in which the local independent party will prevail, only local in its nature. Now, when the next election comes, the Fall election, which will be the election for United States Senator and the election of the Governor, when it comes to that position, where does Philadelphia base these registrars for its independent party? Not on the fight that was the general election last November. That will all be crowded out, but on the small party that is in its City, the party that has but a local issue, possibly the party composing the Committee of One Hundred, which is going to press for the selection of mere councilmen in Philadelphia. Now, along comes the working man. He puts up a fight for United States Senator or for the Governor. Where does he get his vote polled from in Philadelphia? Where does he get his advocates registered in Philadelphia? Not advocated by having a representative of his party on that Board, but a representative of the local municipal party registering on that board that has no sympathy with him, that is now in sympathy with the powers that he seeks to strike down. It would be most illogical when the gentleman from Philadelphia says that I am repentant and attempting now to undo what we did last session. I say no. What we did last session was undone by the people. They came up and defeated us. This very legislation helped whip us. And now we have one other proposition coming from the gentleman from Philadelphia Mr. McClintock, with an amendment to take from the people that victory that they fairly won. No, I am not repentant, I do not stand in the position of a repentant. I stand here with my eyes open. I do not propose to lend myself to legislation that I think is wrong, not only from principle, but from what I have taught in practice. I say that this motion to reconsider should prevail and later we should vote down this amendment.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I want to call the attention of the House to one situation, that would arise if this amendment under consideration be incorporated. We have passed through this House a non-partisan election bill for municipal elections. If that bill becomes a law there will be absolutely no partisan vote upon which registration representation should be based in any municipal election. Consequently we would have elections—every other election that was held would be upon a basis that could not be used to compute the distribution of registrars in the State. I am surprised at the gentleman from Philadelphia that he should offer this amendment at this time, for this reason: That I was with him on a sub-committee on this bill and we sat upon this bill and on this subject for days and the gentleman was absolutely opposed to this legislation because he said it was a repetition of the ripper legislation of two years ago and we modified that ripper feature. The word "general" was inserted in the bill, and now the gentleman has a complete change of heart and comes on the floor advocating that very ripper legislation that he was opposing on that sub-committee.

Mr. MCCLINTOCK. Mr. Speaker, I would like to rise to correct an impression given to the House by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Scott. In the case of a new party in Philadelphia, after the next November election, the status of their registrars would be settled for the coming year. Now he indicated to this House that in case a new party was brought into being and held an election next Fall, that the registrars would be based on the last presidential election. That is a wrong impression given to the House. Under my amendment the registrars would be appointed according to the majority party in the division after every election.

On the question recurring.

Will the Committee of the Whole agree to reconsider the vote by which it adopted the amendment offered by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McClintock?

A division was called for, 90 voting in the affirmative and 73 in the negative, and the motion to reconsider was agreed to.

On the question recurring.

Will the House agree to the amendment offered by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McClintock.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. This amendment should not prevail. It should be voted down.

Mr. WALNUT. Mr. Speaker, I was a member of the sub-committee that inserted this amendment in the bill. When that was done I had in my mind the fact that we would probably pass a non-partisan ballot and if there was a non-partisan bill passed, we would of course have no party designation at the year of the municipal election. We therefore could have no party representation for the selection of registrars for the next election. In view of the fact, however, that it appears to me that a non-partisan bill will not pass, I am convinced that the proper time by which to fix the representation upon the board of registrars in each division is the last presidential election. During the last few years in Philadelphia, during my experience in politics, that scheme has always worked out better than any other that I can imagine in order to arrive at the result intended to be accomplished by the bill, and I therefore am in favor of the amendment.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, to allow the thought of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Walnut, to prevail, would be, as I said upon the question of reconsideration of the vote by which the amendment prevailed, would be to simply undo that which this bill provides to do, and that is to protect the independent movement. The gentleman from Philadelphia took the position that the last preceding election would do. That would be as I said a moment ago, merely to give to a body of properly interested citizens who are seeking the selection of proper councilmen, to have the appointing power of registrars of the next election, where the independent movement, state wide, should have the power of appointing those various registrars, and I hope that the amendment will not prevail and that the Committee will vote it down.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. Chairman, when it comes to a question of taking reform doctrine, I wish to state to the members of this House that I would rather take it from Henry Walnut than John R. K. Scott.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Chairman, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia.

The CHAIRMAN. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McNICHOL. I will.

Mr. ALLEN. I desire to ask the gentleman if he were taking reform medicine, if he would take it in allopathic or homeopathic doses?

Mr. McNICHOL. If I were taking reform medicine, or medicine of any sort, I would seek out a physician of repute and not one of fakerism.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Chairman, I do not know whether the gentleman from Philadelphia in his levity, referred to the gentleman from Allegheny or myself. If he was referring to me, which more than likely he was, I would merely say to him that he has no sympathy—

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. JOSEPH GRAY. Mr. Chairman, I rise to a point of order.

The CHAIRMAN. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. JOSEPH GRAY. Mr. Chairman, my point of order is that the remarks of the gentleman from Philadelphia are out of order.

The CHAIRMAN. The point of order would appear to be well taken. The gentleman from Philadelphia will confine himself to the discussion of the amendment offered by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McClintock.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Do I understand the Chair to rule that the remarks made by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McNichol, cannot be answered by myself?

The CHAIRMAN. The gentleman's remarks, unless upon the amendment, would not be in order.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Chairman, am I to understand that the point of order raised by the gentleman from Cambria will prohibit me from answering the accusations and insinuations made by the gentleman from Philadelphia? That the position I take before this House is the position of a faker? If that is so, then I must stand silent before the remarks that came from one of my dearest friends. The gentleman from Philadelphia did not mention anybody's name—

The CHAIRMAN. The gentleman's remarks are out of order.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Chairman, do I understand the Chair to rule that I cannot answer the remarks made by a gentleman from Philadelphia who has claimed to be my friend and who when he came to the bar had no better friend than myself? I think it is my right as a member of this House, in case I cannot answer the remarks, to have a public withdrawal of the statement or a statement as to whether the remarks were made in seriousness or levity.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. Chairman, I would state for the information of the Committee that I did not mention any names. I was asked the question whether I would take a dose from an allopath or a homeopath and I do not think that my friend should presume to put himself in either class when he was not referred to by name.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Chairman, I take it that I am entitled to a reply.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. JOSEPH GRAY. Mr. Chairman, I rise to a point of order.

The CHAIRMAN. The gentleman will state his point.

Mr. JOSEPH GRAY. Mr. Chairman, my point of order is that the gentleman is not talking on the question before the House and is therefore out of order.

The CHAIRMAN. The point of order is well taken and the gentleman will confine his remarks to the amendment offered.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Chairman, I take it that I am precluded from answering the gentleman. Possibly I am taking his remarks too seriously. I am informed by some of my friends that the remarks were made in levity. In reference, Mr. Chairman, to the remarks of the gentleman from Philadelphia in taking his medicine, so far as legislation is concerned, either from the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Walnut, or myself, I answer that by saying that in using the statement of the Chairman of the Election Committee to aid in putting this amendment through is for the purpose of hiding the real issue. When he says that he will take the advice of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Walnut, rather than the advice of myself on this proposition, he does not answer that which I said this amendment meant. This amendment if it prevails is but depriving the independent party of standing upon its rights upon the registration board. I answer that he will take neither the advice of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Walnut, or myself. His advice does not come from the people on the floor of this House. His position on the floor of this House, as every vote of his will show, is that he takes advice from neither the reformers or those who have attempted to join the ranks of that which is honest in the House. And when he uses such expressions, saying that he will take his advice from a reformer rather than from one who is a fake reformer, I answer him by saying that he takes his advice from discredited organization leaders.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair understands that the Senate has concurred in the resolution to adjourn the General Assembly at noon of the 26th. If this unsightly scene keeps up, some one's legislation is apt to suffer. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. J. R. K. Scott, will continue.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Chairman, I will answer the remarks of the gentleman from Philadelphia by saying that he will not take his advice from either a reformer or as he said, a fake reformer, but that he takes his advice from discredited organization leaders, and that he takes this advice is shown by his every vote upon the floor of this House upon election matters.

The CHAIRMAN. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. J. R. K. Scott, will confine his remarks upon the amendment or take his seat.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Chairman I will obey the order of the Chair and will confine my remarks to the amendment. In reply to the gentleman from Philadelphia who said that he was going to take his advice—

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair is of the opinion that the gentleman has proceeded far enough along that line.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Do I understand the Chair to say that my remarks upon the amendment have been out of order?

The CHAIRMAN. If the gentleman has anything further to say with reference, to the amendment, we will be glad to listen to him.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Do I understand the Chair to rule that my remarks are out of order? I do not want to transgress upon the Chair's ruling. Do I understand the Chair to rule that my remarks are out of order?

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair rules that if the gentleman has any further remarks to make upon the amendment he will be heard.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Chairman, I have discussed both the merits and the demerits of the amendment.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The Chairman announced that the Chair was in doubt. Whereupon,

A division was called for, and 70 gentlemen having voted in the affirmative, and 93 in the negative, the question was determined in the negative and the amendment was not agreed to.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee of the Whole House rise and report back to the House.

Mr. MATT. Mr. Chairman, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The SPEAKER (George W. Alter) in the Chair.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, as Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House, I now report back to the House, Senate Bill No. 883 with amendments as inserted therein.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the report of the Committee of the Whole.

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for final passage.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER VOTE.

Mr. GOSS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer a motion at this time.

The SPEAKER. The motion will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk then read the motion as follows:

The SPEAKER. The question is on the adoption of the motion to reconsider.

Whereupon, a division was called for and 62 gentlemen voting in the affirmative and 73 in the negative,

The motion was not agreed to.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the amendments were concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives numbered and entitled as follows, viz:

House Bill No. 1408.

An Act fixing the compensation of the reading clerks of the Senate and House of Representatives and the journal clerk of the Senate

With information that the Senate has passed the same with amendment in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The amendments were read as follows:

Section 1, line 4, after the words "act the" insert "journal and"

Line 5, strike out "clerk" and insert "clerks;" same line, before the words "the House" insert "the Senate and"

Line 10, after the word "said" insert "journal and "
 Line 10, after the word "reading" insert "clerks"
 Line 11, strike out the word "clerk"
 Line 11, strike out the word "officer" and insert "officers"

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments of the Senate?

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do non-concur in the amendments of the Senate.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. STEIN. Mr. Speaker, I would ask my good friend from Crawford to withdraw his motion because the amendment as it stands here is very small. The bill as now before us is practically the same as when we passed it, except that one or two Senate Clerks were added. If this bill is not agreed to now, it will be defeated for this session. The gentlemen know the purpose of the bill; it is for the benefit of the reading clerks. It is to give them a little extra compensation for the remainder of the term. I therefore ask my colleague to withdraw his motion or else I will ask the House to vote it down.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, it is not my desire to interfere in any way with the effort that has been made to compensate the reading clerk of the House, but when the Senate will undertake in this way to raise the salaries of their employees who are not entitled to the raise, I say that the responsibility rests upon us to non-concur in their amendments or that they should recede from their amendments and that we are only besmirching ourselves when we acquiesce in their unwarranted amendment. The Senate and House, if they desire to compensate their reading clerks, can do so, it is not necessary for them to add employees to the bill that are not entitled to the increase which the amendments give them. I insist upon my motion to non-concur and I trust the House will vote to sustain the motion.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, the bill is unconstitutional. I would cite to the House Section 11 of Article III of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, which reads as follows: "No bill shall be passed giving any extra compensation to any public officer, servant, employee, agent or contractor, after services shall have been rendered or contract made, nor providing for the payment of any claim against the Commonwealth without previous authority of law." This bill seeks to raise the salary of the Journal Clerk and Reading Clerk and provides for compensation for services already rendered. Therefore the bill is unconstitutional.

Mr. STEIN. Mr. Speaker, I take it that my friend from Tioga is mistaken in his view of the bill, because the change which the Senate made is precisely in line with the action of the House.

At the time that this bill was in committee we looked into the question of its constitutionality very thoroughly and it was determined at the outset I believe by an opinion from the Attorney General—though I may be mistaken—but at least by the opinion of all the constitutional lawyers, including my friend Jones, that it was constitutional and therefore if Jones says it was constitutional, Rockwell must be mistaken.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, I think the gentleman from Allegheny is entirely mistaken. I do not recall that the question of the constitutionality was up when the bill passed this House.

The SPEAKER. The point of constitutionality is scarcely in order upon the motion to non-concur in the Senate amendments.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, it is after the House has passed upon the non-concurrence and then if it is necessary I will raise the question again.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate.

The Chair declared itself in doubt.

Whereupon a rising vote was taken, 68 voting in the affirmative and 59 in the negative and the amendments were non-concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives numbered and entitled as follows, viz:

House Bill No. 1383.

An Act making an appropriation for the purpose of further carrying out the provisions of a joint resolution approved the fourteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and eleven entitled "A joint resolution to provide for the participation of the State of Pennsylvania in the Panama-Pacific International Exposition to be held in San Francisco California in one thousand nine hundred and fifteen to celebrate the completion and opening of the Panama Canal and the Four Hundredth Anniversary of the discovery of the Pacific Ocean and providing for the appointment of a commission and making an appropriation to defray the expenses of the same

With information that the Senate has passed the same with amendment in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend section one, line 4, by striking out "three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000)" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "four hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($450,000)"

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Mr. MATT. Mr. Speaker, I move that we non-concur in the amendments.

Mr. Steele. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 2223 (Senate No. 1572) entitled:

An Act defining milk and milk food products and regulating the production storage transportation and sale thereof providing for a milk hygiene service under the direction of the State Livestock Sanitary Board providing for the examination of milk and milk food products and premises and equipment where and whereby milk and milk food products are produced prepared stores transported or sold vesting certain powers in and imposing certain duties on local boards of health and providing penalty for violation of this act

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass?

BILL STRICKEN FROM CALENDAR.

Mr. KUHNS. Mr. Speaker here is another milk bill, a duplication of the same kind that were defeated on the floor of this House during this session. This here is very much the same as the last one we defeated a few weeks ago and it seems as though the same bill was drawn up on the other side, passed and sent over. It attempts to show that we want to do away with the duplication of inspection, but if you read on page five, it says that we shall have no duplicate work of the milk hygiene service of the State Livestock Sanitary Board, but still it says that they may make a duplicate inspection when necessary in the opinion of the Department of Health. Well I don't think that they have very many inspections without their opinion. Further on in the bill on page five, you will find that the inspectors appointed by the cities and boroughs and the townships of the first class will make no duplicate inspection of the State Livestock Sanitary Board excepting when in their opinion it is necessary. Well they never want to inspect any cow without opinions for doing so. So there is no change there at all. As far as the rest of the bill is concerned, it is exactly the same as the other, and on that ground I think those gentlemen in the House who are interested in keeping down the price of milk, should vote with me when I move that this bill be stricken from the Calendar, to save time.

Mr. BENNINGER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. FORSTER. Mr. Speaker, I ask the gentlemen of the House not to strike this bill off the Calendar, because it is a good bill, and I think every man has a right to vote on it. Just because every bill of this kind that is up is connected with the State Livestock Sanitary Board, it seems to invite an attack, and I ask the gentlemen not to support this motion, but to vote on the bill. It is the first time I have asked any favor of the House.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Lehigh a few moments ago referred to the last bill before this House. It was a bill that I was the sponsor for and the imputation that that bill was not a meritorious measure is distinctly ill founded, when he said that bill is like the bill before the House now. I want to go on record now as saying that this bill is not like that bill. Under that bill duplication of inspection was prevented and this bill is a bill similar in every particular, excepting for the ninth section, to the bill which I introduced; but it leaves the duplication of inspection to the discretion of the local Board of Health and for that reason the one and only real meritorious feature of the bill that was defeated before is not in this bill, and consequently this bill stands without a single meritorious feature in it, and I think we might as well stike it off the Calendar to save time.

Mr. PEACHEY. Mr. Speaker, this is another one of those milk bills that I look upon with more or less suspicion because I agree with the gentleman from Crawford, that it duplicates some things that we don't want duplicated. The thought that I want to present is this, that there is nothing explicit in it. They don't just say what they should say and it makes a hardship upon the man who produces the milk, and whenever you put a hardship upon the man who produces milk, you put a hardship upon the man who consumes the milk, because he must pay for it. Then there is another thing here in the latter part of the bill, in section 15. It says "It shall be unlawful for any person to use any vessel used as a container of milk or milk food products, for any purpose whatever except as a container for milk and milk food products." Therefore you cannot use it for anything else except for milk. That is another provision I do not like. This bill has some good features in it, as all bills have. It is a compromise of the good and the bad and there is just enough bad in it to condemn it for me and I shall vote against it.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion to strike the bill from the Calendar?

The Chair declared itself in doubt,

Whereupon a division was called for, and 76 voting in the affirmative and 48 in the negative, the motion was agreed to and the bill stricken from the Calendar.

AMENDED HOUSE BILL FOR CONCURRENCE.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to announce to the House a number of bills with Senate amendments, which have come over to the House for concurrence. It has been the practice to put these bills on the Calendar of the following day. This is scarcely practicable at this time. So the Chair desires to announce these bills with their file folios in order that members may make memorandum and by and by they will be laid before the House.

House Bill 1458, file folio 11907.

House Bill 197, file folio 11937.

House Bill 1469, file folio 11967.

House Bill 888, file folio 12125.

House Bill 1989, file folio 11949.

House Bill 532, file folio 11433.

Perhaps some of these bills are not on the files, but they will be placed on the files during the recess; and the file folio of the Utilities Bill, House Bill No. 183, is 12007.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 2213 (Senate No. 1790) entitled:

"An Act to amend the fourteenth section of an act entitled 'An Act to provide for the incorporation of casualty insurance companies and for the regulation of home and foreign casualty insurance companies and providing penalties for the violation of any of the provisions of this act' approved the first day of June Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and eleven and providing for the incorporation of casualty companies for the insurance of glass breakage upon the mutual plan

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

Shall the bill pass finally?
